The Sunna and the Hadith Through the Lens of the Qur'an Joseph The Monotheist,2024-09-22 This book is the second in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur anic revelation published concurrently with the first and third volumes It continues on the work presented in the first volume of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur anic revelation The proposed interpretation of the Qur anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues inclusiveness the sources of religious knowledge and the composition of any acceptable Qur anic based interpretation of religion Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively In this book the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur anic revelation in regard to the Sunna teachings of Prophet Muhammad and the Hadith reports on the Sunna is addressed. The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation recognizes in reference to the followers of the Qur'an that the Qur'an is to be the sole source of religious knowledge. It does not consider the Sunna to represent an independent or complementary source of religious knowledge. Furthermore, it does not consider the Hadith to represent the Sunna nor does it consider the Hadith a source of religious knowledge. What Islam is the book talking about? Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows? Is the Sunna a source of religious knowledge? Does the Hadith actually report on the Sunna? What of the Hadith is certain in its attribution to Prophet Muhammad? These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series. This book is self-contained. It can be read as part of the series or independently. It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed. The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam. It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an, its message, the Sunna, and the Hadith. Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today; those interested to learn about the Sunna and the Hadith, what they are and what they are not; and those interested in monotheistic religions in general.

Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27. This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history, concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre-Modern Islamic world. These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins, vessels, and books to major constructions including mosques, tombs, castles, dams, and canal systems. The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record. Object-based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period. To demonstrate these points, each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects. The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned, made, used, adapted, and exchanged. The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects, employing perspectives from the fields of art history, archaeology, numismatics, ethnography, and epigraphy. Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction, an extensive glossary, a timeline, and a guide for further reading, the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political, economic, social, cultural, religious, and intellectual histories of the Islamic world.

The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature Esad Durakovic, 2015-04-24. Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature, including the Qur'an, from within the Arabic literary tradition, this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture. Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry; prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts. Traditionally, this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens.

and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies

The Illusion of Eternal Religious Law Joseph The Monotheist, 2024-09-22 This book is the third in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur'anic revelation published concurrently with the first and second volumes It continues on the work presented in the first two volumes of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur'anic revelation The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues inclusiveness the sources of religious knowledge and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic based interpretation of religion Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively In this book the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation on law is addressed This position will prove to be of special significance particularly in the context of modernity and the modern state Furthermore Islamic law and its relationship to the religion of Islam is explored The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation does not see religion to be the source of law but rather it sees religion to be a source of ethics It sees that any acceptable interpretation of religion that is based on revealed scripture should have no law component It rejects religious law altogether and calls for the implementation of secular law In consequence the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation would be redefining the role of religion and its domain of operation What Islam is the book talking about Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows Are all of the commands in the Qur'an of eternal applicability What is Islamic law commonly referred to as Shari'a Why study Islamic law and why is it important to study it Is there only one Islamic law How does Islamic law relate to Islam Why does this book call for comprehensive religious reform and not religious law reform These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series This book is self contained It can be read as part of the series or independently It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an its message and Islamic law Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today those interested to learn about Islamic law what it is and what it is not and those interested in monotheistic religions in general This book will prove to be particularly useful to those seeking to understand the problems in the contemporary interpretations of Islam and consequently how such problems reflect on the Muslim individual and societies in general Keywords Islam Islamic law eternal law revealed scriptures interpretations of scripture theology the Qur'an Quran Koran al Qur'an el Coran Sunna Hadith Shari'a Fiqh monotheism inclusiveness secularism philosophy of law philosophy of religion religious reform religious law reform Arab spring comparative religion philology semantics Muslim and Christian Understanding W.
