Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan Kamoludin Abdullaev, 2018-08-10 Tajikistan is the poorest and only Persian speaking country among the post Soviet independent states Historically the Tajiks of Central Asia and Afghanistan along with the Persians of modern Iran came from a related ethnic group When the Tajik Autonomous Soviet Socialist Republic was established in late 1924 it became the first modern Tajik state that remained one of the 15 union republics of the Soviet Union until 1991 Almost immediately after the collapse of the USSR Tajikistan became a scene of brutal civil war taking place in one of the global hubs of religiously motivated political struggle militancy mass cross border refugee flows insurgency and drug trafficking During the first decade of the 21st century the country was making modest progress toward stability However the heavy burden of socio economic problems in addition to continuing conflict in the neighboring Afghanistan Pakistan presented even bigger challenges for Tajikistan In addition Western economic sanctions against Russia in 2014 coinciding with continuing lower oil prices have negatively affected one million of Tajik labor migrants in Russia Yet Tajikistan has become neither weaker nor less important as a player in world politics This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Tajikistan contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Tajikistan

ShariE a in the Russian Empire Paolo Sartori, 2020-01-07 This book looks at how Islamic law was practiced in Russia from the conquest of the empire s first Muslim territories in the mid 1500s to the Russian Revolution of 1917 when the empire s Muslim population had exceeded 20 million It focuses on the training of Russian Muslim jurists the debates over legal authority within Muslim communities and the relationship between Islamic law and customary law Based upon difficult to access sources written in a variety of languages Arabic Chaghatay Kazakh Persian Tatar it offers scholars of Russian history Islamic history and colonial history an account of Islamic law in Russia of the same quality and detail as the scholarship currently available on Islam in the British and French colonial empires

Tajikistan Kirill Nourzhanov, Christian Bleuer, 2013-10-08 This book is a historical study of the Tajiks in Central Asia from the ancient times to the post Soviet period For millennia these descendants of the original Aryan settlers were part of many different empires set up by Greek Arab Turkic and Russian invaders as well as their own most notably during the Middle Ages The emergence of the modern state of Tajikistan began after 1917 under Soviet rule and culminated in the promulgation of independence from the moribund USSR in 1991 In the subsequent civil war that raged between 1992 and 1997 Tajikistan came close to becoming a failed state The legacy of that internal conflict remains critical to understanding politics in Tajikistan a generation later Exploring the patterns of ethnic identity and the exigencies of state formation the book argues that despite a strong sense of belonging underpinned by shared history mythology and cultural traits the Tajiks have not succeeded in forming a consolidated nation The politics of the Russian colonial administration the national territorial delimitation under Stalin and the Soviet strategy of socio economic modernisation contributed to the preservation and reification of sub ethnic cleavages and regional identities The book demonstrates the impact of region based elite clans on Tajikistan s political trajectory in the twilight years of the Soviet era and identifies objective and subjective factors that led to the civil war It concludes with a survey of the process of national reconciliation after 1997 and the formal and informal political actors including Islamist groups who compete for influence in Tajik society Tajikistan A Political and Social History is the best source of information on this important country in the English language Drs Nourzhanov and Bleuer present a comprehensive yet detailed account of the past and prospects of this emerging nation and have filled one of the major gaps in Central Asian scholarship This book must be read by those who wish to grasp the vagaries of Central Asia s evolving political and cultural landscapes Reuel Hanks Professor of Geography Oklahoma State University and Editor of the Journal of Central Asian Studies If Tajikistan is known outside its region it is often for the civil war that gravely damaged it This volume authoritatively provides the longer perspective to the unsettling events of the 1990s and skilfully explains them in terms of history social structure and sub state identities In addition to highlighting a wealth of local factors it is insightful on the ways in which antagonists can be transformed into broader ethnic and regional blocs Kirill Nourzhanov and Christian Bleuer are erudite guides to an understudied part of Central Asia while astutely instructing us about larger patterns of state society relations and their impact on the logic of conflict James Piscatori Professor of International Relations Durham University

Kazakhstan - Ethnicity, Language and Power Bhavna Dave, 2007-09-13 Kazakhstan is emerging as the most dynamic economic and political actor in Central Asia. It is the second largest country of the former Soviet Union after the Russian Federation and has rich natural resources, particularly oil, which is being exploited through massive US investment. Kazakhstan has an impressive record of economic growth under the leadership of President Nursultan Nazarbaev and has ambitions to project itself as a modern wealthy civic state with a developed market economy. At the same time, Kazakhstan is one of the most ethnically diverse countries in the region with very substantial non-Kazakh and non-Muslim minorities. Its political regime has used elements of political clientelism and neo-traditional practices to bolster its rule. Drawing from extensive ethnographic research, interviews, and archival materials, this book traces the development of national identity and statehood in Kazakhstan, focusing in particular on the attempts to build a national state. It argues that Russification and Sovietization were not simply top-down processes; they provide considerable scope for local initiatives, and that Soviet ethnically based affirmative action policies have had a lasting impact on ethnic identity formation and the rise of a distinct brand of national consciousness.
