Islam Hans Kung, 2007-04-26 For more than two decades the world religions have been a central topic for Hans Kung. In books which have inspired millions throughout human society he has pioneered work towards a new dialogue between cultures. In this extraordinary comprehensive book he gives an in depth account of Islam describing paradigm shifts in its 1400 year history outlining the various currents and surveying the positions of Islam on the urgent questions of the few present day theologians could have written such a complete analysis in a world where understanding of global politics requires a knowledge of Islam. This is a perfect place to start.

Islam Hans Küng, 2007 Past, Present, and Future of Kashmir Raj Kumar Singh, 2008 The book Past Present and Future of Kashmir deals in detail with the problem of the State of Jammu and Kashmir. Beginning with the political history of the state in ancient times it presents a chronology of Kashmiri rulers: Hindus, Muslims and the British respectively. When India was to become independent it was ruled by a Hindu King who failed in either way to decide the fate of the territory like other princely states of India. As a result of the mini war between India and Pakistan a portion of it was held by the latter and is known as Azad Kashmir. In post independence phase it continues to be a contentious issue between the two neighbours and caused four devastating wars over it. Pakistan has complaints over its accession to the Union of India because at the time public at large were not consulted. The very composition of Pakistani society and political system as well witnessed a sea change towards the direction opposite to India. In recent years the two have realised the futility of third party began to look forward for better bilateral understanding to great rid of this vexed problem.

Radical Islam: Past, Present, and Future Anita And Vann Boseman, 2016-06-07 Why do they hate us and can it happen here. All good questions and if you want the answers this book will help you find them. Recently ISIS has taken parts of Syria and Iraq for the new Caliphate and people in the non Muslim world struggle to understand. This book explains the background history to so much of what is happening and surveys the possibilities for the future. Islam is exposed as a religion very different from any other religion especially Christianity throughout history as well as its manifestation in our present. All through history and even today the West has been looking for moderate Muslims to stand up against the radicalism of the Islamic Fundamentalists. Here finally the simple truth is revealed that Islam is Islam. The distinction between radical and moderate is usually more imagined than real. The authors unique qualifications as students of history and the residency in Cyprus of one of the authors provide a unique perspective not likely to be found elsewhere.

From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Eric Walberg,2013-07-31 Eric Walberg s new book From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Re emerging Islamic Civilization provides an overview of imperialism and colonialism in the Muslim world It elaborates on the third of the Great Games addressed in his earlier work Postmodern Imperialism which traced the movement of history from the colonialism of the British and other empires through the neocolonialism of the US empire to the current Great Game marked by the revival of Islam Walberg reviews the Islamic reform traditions from the 19th century on deriving from Al Afghani Qutb incorporating the Islamic critique of the West as well as the Sunni Shia mainstream Sufi Salafi divisions Then he addresses the twentieth century experience of Islamic states Saudi Arabia Pakistan Afghanistan Iran as well as the current dynamics of the Muslim world Saudi Iran Qatar Turkey and now Egypt Tunisia Libya Key actors and milestones in the struggle to free the Muslim world from the imperial yoke are discussed While the Christian Judaic surrender to capitalism led to Marxist secularism and the communist utopia Walberg views the Islamic project as containing an alternative socio economic orientation This prevented the rise of capitalism imperialism in lands populated by

Muslims making them the losers in the technology race of the 19th 20th centuries but the repository of a corrected vision of the rich lost values of the earlier monotheistic traditions Here modernity and postmodernism are critiqued from both left and right and Islam is discussed as both an alternative worldview and world order However the contradictions of the Arab Spring may be resolved as the West continues its decline Walberg projects how the understandings entrenched in Islamic civilization point toward a new old civilizational alternative one not derivative from the West but indigenous to the developing world still under its heel

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies

The Idea of European Islam Mohammed Hashas, 2018-07-24 Suspensions about the integration of Islam into European cultures have been steadily on the rise and dramatically so since 9 11 One reason lies in the visibility of anti Western Islamic discourses of salafi origin which have monopolized the debate on the true Islam not only among Muslims but also in the eyes of the general population across Europe these discourses combined with Islamophobic discourses reinforce the so called incompatibility between the West and Islam This book breaks away from this clash between Islam and the West by arguing that European Islam is possible It analyzes the contribution that European Islam has made to the formation of an innovative Islamic theology that is deeply ethicist and modern and it clarifies how this constructed European Islamic theology is able to contribute to the various debates that are related to secular liberal democracies of Western Europe Part I introduces four major projects that defend the idea of European Islam from different disciplines and perspectives politics political theology jurisprudence and philosophy Part II uses the frameworks from three major philosophers and scholars to approach the idea of European Islam in the context of secular liberal societies British scholar George Hourani Moroccan philosopher Taha Abderrahmane and the American philosopher John Rawls The book shows that the ongoing efforts of European Muslim thinkers to revisit the concept of citizenship and political community can be seen as a new kind of political theology in opposition to radical forms of Islamic thinking in some Muslim majority countries Opening a new path for examining Islamic thought in and of Europe this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Islam in the West and Political Theology Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston,2020-11-05 Shar a is one of the most hotly contested and misunderstood concepts and practices in the world today Debates about Islamic law and its relationship to secularism and Christianity have dominated political and theological discourse for centuries Unfortunately Western Christian theologians have failed to engage sufficiently with the challenges and questions raised by Islamic political theology preferring instead to essentialize or dismiss it In Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston presents an innovative approach to Christian Muslim dialogue Eschewing both polemics and apologetics he proposes a comparative framework for Christian engagement with Islamic debates on shar a Ralston draws on a diverse range of thinkers from both traditions including Karl Barth Ibn Taymiyya Thomas Aquinas and Mohammad al Jabri He offers an account of public law as a provisional and indirect witness to the divine rule of justice He also demonstrates how this theology of public law deeply resonates with the Christian tradition and is also open to learning from and dialoguing with Islamic and secular conceptions of law sovereignty and justice Handbook of Islamic Philosophy of Science Masudul Alam Choudhury,2024-03-28 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of Islamic ethical issues within a wide spectrum of philosophy of science topics examining the development of the model of moral inclusiveness in economics science and society from ontological epistemological and analytical perspectives This paradigm takes the view that ethics is systemically endogenous and can be studied by the most rigorous scientific analysis pertaining to diverse issues and problems of ethicality in socio scientific inquiry This handbook takes a sweeping transdisciplinary approach that is deeply phenomenological to the nature and logic of scientific inquiry of and in the Qur an Such an approach invokes the episteme of the unity of knowledge in the socio scientific systemic sense The volumes respective sections focus on the nature logic and role that ethics plays in formulating new vistas of alternative epistemic futures in Islamic economics finance and the social sciences The ideas presented are situated within the broader context of the post modernist post pandemic and the post Covid 19 epoch while being aimed at conceptualising a distinctive new outlook of transdisciplinary intellection in Islamic philosophy The content is rigorously conceptual qualitative quantitative and applied Covering a diversity of subject areas from philosophy of science to economics and in socio scientific context within the realm of Islamic philosophy this forms a key text for scholars in these respective arenas led by pioneering scholarship in Islamic studies Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin,2008-03-12 Here at last is the massively updated and augmented second edition of this landmark encyclopedia It contains approximately 1000 entries dealing in depth with the history of the
