The Islamic World Andrew Rippin, 2013-10-23 The Islamic World is an outstanding guide to Islamic faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished international team of scholars it elucidates the history philosophy and practice of one of the world's great religious traditions Its grounding in contemporary scholarship makes it an ideal reference source for students and scholars alike Edited by Andrew Rippin a leading scholar of Islam the volume covers the political geographical religious intellectual cultural and social worlds of Islam and offers insight into all aspects of Muslim life including the Qur'an and law philosophy science and technology art literature and film and much else It explores the concept of an Islamic world what makes it distinctive and how uniform is that distinctiveness across Muslim geographical regions and through history

World Islam Andrew Rippin, 2008 Reflecting the diversity of Islam this collection focuses on the presence of Muslims in countries outside the traditionally conceived heartlands of the Islamic world The history of the arrival of Islam in such countries and the nature of the way in which Islam is practised in such places is the thematic focus of the materials selected for inclusion Today the community of Muslims around the globe looks to the Arab world and Iran as a source of identity and authority While this is driven as much by finances as by religious ideology it does create a sense of there being a central Islamic world and a diaspora which can be separated and considered This separation may also be considered a historical phenomenon the core Islamic world came into existence as a result of the early military expansion of the Arabs up to about 750CE after that point the spread of Islam occurred by different and more gradual means often influenced by trade especially Both of these ways of conceptualizing the region of interest results in a vast amount of territory in which to explore the special manifestations of Islam Materials selected for inclusion in this Major Work provide general information on Islam rather than being overly specific A number of aspects are considered the history of the introduction of

Islam into the area the means by which Islam spread the attitude Muslims took to the surrounding culture the character of the Islam which resulted the sense of Muslim identity in the area and the issues which might have emerged as a result The gathered material is grouped geographically with an attempt to include as many individual countries as possible within each area while also paying attention to each of the above criteria An initial selection of articles on world Islam the process and means of the spread of Islam in general and some consideration of what it means to talk about the presence of Islam in the world and a survey of the general diversity of characteristics of Islam serves as an introductory section to the volumes Additional groupings are geographical and include South Asia South East Asia Australia and islands of the Pacific China countries of the former Soviet Union South Africa East Africa West Africa Europe North America Central and South America

Islam in the World Malise Ruthven, 2000 This work is an introduction to the Islamic world past and present and to the challenges it presents to western society Fully revised for this second edition it includes chapters on the spiritual richness of the religion the law and how it reflects attitudes to society and to women in particular as well as an incisive analysis of various Muslim sects their links and conflicts A new chapter discusses such issues as the Rushdie affair the reinterpretation of the doctrine of Jihad to encompass terrorism and the internal strife that countries such as Algeria Iran Israel and Egypt are experiencing bringing this stimulating analysis up to the present day

Europe and the Islamic World John Victor Tolan, Gilles Veinstein, Henry Laurens, Jane Marie Todd, 2013 In this book three historians bring to life the complex and tumultuous relations between Genoans and Tunisians Alexandrians and the people of Constantinople Catalans and Maghrebis the myriad groups and individuals whose stories reflect the common cultural and religious heritage of Europe and Islam Since the seventh century when the armies of Constantinople and the Medina fought for control of Syria and Palestine there has been ongoing contact between the Muslim world and the West This sweeping history recounts the wars and the crusades the alliances and diplomacy commerce and the slave trade technology transfers and the intellectual and artistic exchanges Readers are given an introduction to key periods and events including the Muslim conquests the collapse of the Byzantine Empire the commercial revolution of the medieval Mediterranean the intellectual and cultural achievements of Muslim Spain the crusades and Spanish reconquista the rise of the Ottomans and their conquest of a third of Europe European colonization and decolonization and the challenges and promises of this entwined legacy today
