and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies Junot Díaz José David Saldívar, 2022-08-29 In Junot D az On the Half Life of Love

Jos David Sald var offers a critical examination of one of the leading American writers of his generation He explores D az s imaginative work and the diasporic and immigrant world he inhabits showing how his influences converged in his fiction and how his writing especially his Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao radically changed the course of US Latinx literature and created a new way of viewing the decolonial world Sald var examines several aspects of D az s career from his vexed relationship to the literary aesthetics of Whiteness that dominated his MFA experience and his critiques of the colonialities of power race and gender in culture and societies of the Dominican Republic United States and the Am ricas to his use of the science fiction imaginary to explore the capitalist zombification of our planet Throughout Sald var shows how D az s works exemplify the literary currents of the early twenty first century Abstract Barrios Johana

Londoño,2020-08-10 In Abstract Barrios Johana Londoño examines how Latinized urban landscapes are made palatable for white Americans Such Latinized urban landscapes she observes especially appear when whites feel threatened by concentrations of Latinx populations commonly known as barrios Drawing on archival research interviews and visual analysis of barrio built environments Londoño shows how over the past seventy years urban planners architects designers policy makers business owners and other brokers took abstracted elements from barrio design such as spatial layouts or bright colors to safely Latinize cities and manage a long standing urban crisis of Latinx belonging The built environments that resulted ranged from idealized notions of authentic Puerto Rican culture in the interior design of New York City's public housing in the 1950s which sought to diminish concerns over Puerto Rican settlement to the Fiesta Marketplace in downtown Santa Ana California built to counteract white flight in the 1980s Ultimately Londoño demonstrates that abstracted barrio culture and aesthetics sustain the economic and cultural viability of normalized white and middle class urban spaces

James Joyce and Cinematicity Keith Williams,2020-03-27 Investigates how the cinematic tendency of Joyce's writing developed from media predating film First comprehensive consideration of Joyce in the context of pre filmic cinematicity Research and analysis based on recent media archaeology Examines the shaping of Joyce's fiction by late Victorian visual culture and science Shows that key aspects of his literary experimentation derive from forgotten popular cultural practices and vernacular modernism Shows Joyce's interaction with and critique of Modernity's developing media cultural imaginary In this book Keith Williams explores Victorian culture's emergent cinematicity as a key creative driver of Joyce's experimental fiction showing how Joyce's style and themes share the cinematograph's roots in Victorian optical entertainment and science The book reveals Joyce's references to optical toys shadowgraphs magic lanterns panoramas photographic analysis and film peepshows Close analyses of his works show how his techniques elaborated and critiqued their effects on modernity's media cultural imaginary

Rights to Public Space Sig Langegger,2016-12-21 This book examines the roles that public space plays in gentrification Considering both cultural norms of public behavior and the municipal regulation of behavior in public it shows how commonplace acts in everyday public spaces like sidewalks streets and parks work to establish neighborhood legitimacy for newcomers while delegitimizing once authentic public practices of long timers With evidence drawn from the formerly Latino neighborhood of Highland in Denver Colorado this ethnographic study demonstrates how the regulation of public space plays a pivotal role in neighborhood change First there is often a profound disharmony between how people from different cultural complexes interpret and sanction behavior in everyday public spaces Second because regulations codes urban design and enforcement protocols are deliberately changed commonplace activities longtime neighborhood residents feel they have a right to do along sidewalks and streets and within their neighborhood parks sometimes unexpectedly misalign with what is actually possible or legal to do in these publicly accessible spaces
