Womanhoods and Equality in the United States Christen Bryson, Anne Légier, Amélie Ribieras, 2024-03-15

Womanhoods and Equality in the United States explores how the idea of equality has evolved along with the debates that have animated contemporary American women's history. This book argues that womanhood is neither a unified concept nor a monolithic experience but rather a multifaceted notion. This collection thus looks at this plural dimension of womanhood with a special focus on equality as a common goal. The authors question what equality means depending on many factors such as race, class, sexuality, education, marital or parental status, physical appearance, and political orientation and address timely issues including abortion rights, Black womanhood, and sexual violence on college campuses. Womanhoods and Equality in the United States is an essential resource for academics and students in gender studies, American sociocultural history, and the sociology of social movements. Garner's Modern English Usage Bryan Garner, 2016-03-11 A cornerstone of Oxford's language reference list, Garner's Modern English Usage now includes revisions to more than 2,000 entries to reflect the nuances of English usage not only in the United States but in Australia and New Zealand, the United Kingdom, Canada, and South Africa. Using Informational Text to Teach A Raisin in the Sun Audrey Fisch, Susan

Chenelle, 2016-02-12 The Common Core State Standards mean major changes for language arts teachers, particularly the emphasis on informational text. How do we shift attention toward informational texts without taking away from the teaching of literature? The key is informational texts deeply connected to the literary texts you are teaching. Preparing informational texts for classroom use, however, requires time and effort. Using Informational Text to Teach Literature is designed to help. In this second volume, the first volume is on To Kill a Mockingbird, we offer informational texts connected to Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun. Readings range in genre: commencement address, historical and cultural analysis, government report, socioeconomic research study, and Supreme Court decision, and topic: housing discrimination, past and present, abortion, the racial and cultural politics of hair, socioeconomic mobility and inequality, the violence associated with housing desegregation, and the struggle against the legacy of systemic racism. Each informational text is part of a student-friendly unit with reading strategies and vocabulary, writing and discussion activities. Teachers need to incorporate nonfiction in ways that enhance their teaching of literature. The Using Informational Text to Teach Literature series is an invaluable supportive tool. Tahoe

Tales of Bygone Days and Memorable Pioneers Don Lane, 2004-11-24 The manuscript is a collection of short stories that were originally prepared as part of a radio program that began in the early 1980s as a summer informational and educational program for Tahoe area residents and tourists. Between 1982 and 1985, the author presented more than one hundred radio tales about Tahoe's history and the environment over Tahoe radio station KTHO AM 590. Lane returned to the radio airways in 1995, this time with radio station KOWL AM 1490, and has since broadcast more than two thousand tales. Don Lane's Tales of Tahoe The manuscript is a distinctive mixture of stories about the events large and small that shaped and changed the region and simple stories about the people that once lived in our region during the past 150 years Stories about pioneer men and women gold seekers and adventurers Tales about the unique characters the famous like the Donner s Mark Twain John Sutter and James Marshall and John Fremont along with the powerful and the forgotten The manuscript weaves serious history with light hearted tales with a minimum of editorializing as the emphasis has been on maintaining historical integrity and authenticity The stories gathered from old journals archives and historical records are both entertaining and educational And hopefully too this manuscript will contribute to an increased awareness of our regional history and a greater appreciation for those people that have been lost inside the pages of history
