Hampshire Bird Report 2014 Clark:

The Zoological Record, 1870 Gender and the Representation of Evil Lynne Fallwell, Keira V. Williams, 2016-07-28 This edited collection examines gendered representations of evil in history the arts and literature Scholars often explore the relationships between gender sex and violence through theories of inequality violence against women and female victimization but what happens when women are the perpetrators of violent or harmful behavior How do we define evil What makes evil men seem different from evil women When women commit acts of violence or harmful behavior how are they represented differently from men How do perceptions of class race and age influence these representations How have these representations changed over time and why What purposes have gendered representations of evil served in culture and history What is the relationship between gender punishment of evil behavior and equality Agriculture and Industry in South-Eastern Roman Britain David Bird, 2016-12-31 The ancient counties surrounding the Weald in the SE corner of England have a strongly marked character of their own that has survived remarkably well in the face of ever increasing population pressure The area is however comparatively neglected in discussion of Roman Britain where it is often subsumed into a generalised treatment of the civilian part of Britannia that is based largely on other parts of the country This book aims to redress the balance The focus is particularly on Kent Surrey and Sussex account is taken of information from neighboring counties particularly when the difficult subsoils affect the availability of evidence An overview of the environment and a consideration of themes relevant to the South East as a whole accompany 14 papers covering the topics of rural settlement in each county crops querns and millstones animal exploitation salt production leatherworking the working of bone and similar materials the production of iron and iron objects non ferrous metalworking pottery production and the supply of tile to Roman London Agriculture and industry provides an up to date assessment of our knowledge of the southern hinterland of Roman London and an area that was particularly open to influences from the Continent Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Part B: Regional Aspects: Volume 2, Regional Aspects Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), 2014-12-29 This latest Fifth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC will again form the standard reference for all those concerned with climate change and its consequences including students researchers and policy makers in environmental science meteorology climatology biology ecology atmospheric chemistry and environmental policy When There Were Birds Roy Adkins, Lesley Adkins, 2021-11-11 A landmark book that charts humanity's changing relationship with birds from the ancient Egyptians to the twenty first century A marvellously original slice of social history Daily Mail The facts and folklore of birdlife are dissected in admirable detail in this handsome book Sunday Times Roy and Lesley Adkins are masters of their craft BBC Countryfile Magazine No other group of animals has had such a complex and lengthy relationship with humankind as birds They have been kept in cages as pets taught to speak and displayed as trophies More practically they have been used to tell the time predict the weather foretell marriages provide unlikely cures for ailments convey messages and warn of poisonous gases When There Were Birds is a social history of Britain that charts the complex connections between people and birds set against a background of changes in the landscape and evolving tastes beliefs and behaviours It draws together many disparate forgotten strands to present a story that is an intriguing and unexpectedly significant part of our heritage Villas, Sanctuaries and Settlement in the Romano-British Countryside Martin Henig, Grahame Soffe, Kate Adcock, Anthony King, 2023-03-02 This volume brings together a range of papers on buildings that have been categorised as villas mainly in Roman Britain from the Isle of Wight to Shropshire It comprises the first such survey for almost half a century Birds of New Guinea Bruce M. Beehler, Thane K.

Pratt, 2016-03-29 New Guinea the largest tropical island supports a spectacular bird fauna characterized by cassowaries megapodes pigeons parrots kingfishers and owl nightjars as well as the iconic birds of paradise and bowerbirds Of the nearly 800 species of birds recorded from New Guinea more than 350 are found nowhere else on Earth This comprehensive annotated checklist of distribution taxonomy and systematics of the birds of New Guinea is the first formal review of this avifauna since Ernst Mayr's Checklist published in 1941 This new book brings together all the systematic taxonomic and distributional research conducted on the region's bird families over the last 70 years Bruce Beehler and Thane Pratt provide the scientific foundation for the names geographic distributions and systematic arrangement of New Guinea's bird fauna All technical information is annotated and a geographic gazetteer and bibliography are included This book is an ideal complement to the Birds of New Guinea field guide also published by Princeton and is an essential technical reference for all scientific libraries ornithologists and those interested in bird classification The first complete revision of the New Guinea bird fauna since 1941 Accounts for 75 bird species new to the region Includes a geographic gazetteer bibliography and explanations of taxonomic and systematic classifications Clark's Horse Review, 1901 Global Port Cities in North America Boris Vormann, 2014-11-27 As the material anchors of globalization North America's global port cities channel flows of commodities capital and tourists This book explores how economic globalization processes have shaped these cities political institutions social structures and urban identities since the mid 1970s Although the impacts of financialization on global cities have been widely discussed it is curious that how the global integration of commodity chains actually happens spatially creating a quantitatively new global organization of production distribution and consumption processes remains understudied The book uses New York City Los Angeles Vancouver and Montreal as case studies of how once redundant spaces have been reorganized and crucially reinterpreted so as to accommodate new flows of goods and people and how in these processes social environmental and security costs of global production networks have been shifted to the public Landscapes and Landforms of England and Wales Andrew Goudie, Piotr Migoń, 2020-05-10 This book presents the geomorphological diversity of England and Wales These regions are characterised by an extraordinary range of landforms and landscapes reflecting both the occurrence of many different rock types and drastic climatic changes over the last few million years including ice sheet expansion and decay The book begins by providing the geological and geomorphological context needed in order to understand this diversity in a relatively small area In turn it presents nearly thirty case studies on specific landscapes and landforms all of which are landmarks in the territory discussed These include the famous coastal cliffs and landslides granite tors of Dartmoor formerly glaciated mountains of Snowdonia and the Lake District karst of Yorkshire and many others The geomorphology of London and the Thames is also included Providing a unique reference guide to the geomorphology of England and Wales the book is lavishly illustrated with diagrams colour maps and photos and written in an easy to read style The contributing authors are distinguished geomorphologists with extensive experience in research writing and communicating science to the public The book will not only be of interest to geoscientists but will also benefit specialists in landscape research geoconservation tourism and environmental protection Heathland Clive

Chatters,2021-03-04 In Clive we have an ever fascinating guide to Britain s heathery districts not only marvelling at the wildlife of such wild places but also celebrating their diverse origins uses and cultural resonances Andrew Byfield Heathlands are so much more than simply purple carpets of heather They are ancient landscapes found throughout Britain that support a complex of inter related species and an immense diversity of habitats They also possess a unique human history defined by the struggle between pastoralism and the competing demands of those who seek exclusive use of the land In this latest addition to the British Wildlife Collection Clive Chatters introduces us to Britain s heathlands and their anatomy He then takes the reader on a geographical heathland tour from the maritime sub arctic of the Shetlands to the mild wetness of the Atlantic coast with an in memoriam nod to those heaths that have been erased from common memory and understanding He concludes with a review of how people have perceived and used heathland wildlife over the ages and sets out a future vision for this iconic landscape its unique habitats and the species that live there Most of our heaths are pale shadows of their former selves However Chatters argues it is not inevitable that the catastrophic losses of the recent past are the destiny of our remaining heaths Should we wish their place in the countryside as an integral part of British culture can be secured

Tortricidae, part 2 Keith P. Bland,J. Razowski,E.F. Hancock (†),2015-03-20 In Moths and Butterflies of Great Britain and Ireland volume 5 Keith P Bland offers a comprehensive account of the British members of the moth family TORTRICIDAE sensu lato For ease of handling it is divided into two Volumes Part 1 the Tortricinae Chlidanotinae and Part 2 the Olethreutinae Each volume is self contained and indexed separately For each species there is included a full taxonomy a description of the adult moth an account of the larval stages and its life history The up to date British distribution for each species is given as maps showing vice county occurrence supported with further detail where relevant Each species is illustrated by means of one or more coloured photographs of mounted specimens proportionally sized For all species the male and female genitalia are depicted by Josef Razowski s excellent line drawings Besides an index to the moth species there is a comprehensive index to larval food substrates The original text was formed by the late E F Ted Hancock and extended and updated by Keith P Bland Photographs of the adult moths were done by the latter and line drawings of the genitalia were all done by Josef Razowski Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1914 Local Collection Catalogue of Books and Maps Relating to Berkshire Reading (England).
