River Flow 2020 Wim Uijttewaai, Mário J. Franca, Daniel Valero, Victor Chavarrias, Clàudia Ylla Arbós, Ralph Schielen, Alessandra Crosato, 2020-08-27 Rivers form one of the lifelines in our society by providing essential services such as availability of fresh water navigation energy ecosystem services and flood conveyance Because of this essential role mankind has interfered continuously in order to benefit most and at the same time avoid adverse consequences such as flood risk and droughts This has resulted in often highly engineered rivers with a narrow set of functions In the last decades rivers are increasingly considered in a more holistic manner as a system with a multitude of interdependent processes River research and engineering has therefore added to the river fundamentals also themes like ecohydraulics consequences of climate change and urbanisation River Flow 2020 contains the contributions presented at the 10th

conference on Fluvial Hydraulics River Flow 2020 organised under the auspices of the Committee on Fluvial Hydraulics of the International Association for Hydro Environment Engineering and Research IAHR What should have been a lively physical gathering of researchers students and practitioners was converted into an online event as the COVID 19 pandemic hindered international travelling and large gatherings of people Nevertheless the fluvial hydraulics community showed their interest and to be very much alive with a high number of participations for such event Since its first edition in 2002 in Louvain la Neuve this series of conferences has found a large and loyal audience in the river research and engineering community while being also attractive to the new researchers and young professionals This is highlighted by the large number of contributions applying for the Coleman award for young researchers and also by the number of applications and attendants to the Master Classes which are aimed at young researchers and students River Flow 2020 aims to provide an updated overview of the ongoing research in this wide range of topics and contains five major themes which are focus of research in the fluvial environment river fundamentals the digital river the healthy river extreme events and rivers under pressure Other highlights of River Flow 2020 include the substantial number of interdisciplinary subthemes and sessions of special interest The contributions will therefore be of interest to academics in hydraulics hydrology and environmental engineering as well as practitioners that would like to be updated about the newest findings and hot themes in river research and engineering

Changing Contours of Criminal Justice Mary Bosworth, Carolyn Hoyle, Lucia Zedner, 2016-11-17

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Oxford Centre for Criminology this edited collection of essays seeks to explore the changing contours of criminal justice over the past half century and to consider possible shifts over the next few decades. The question of how social science disciplines develop and change does not invite any easy answer with the task made all the more difficult given the highly politicised nature of some subjects and the volatile evolving status of its institutions and practices. A case in point is criminal justice at once fairly parochial much criminal justice scholarship is now global in its reach and subject areas that are now accepted as central to its study victims restorative justice security privatization terrorism citizenship and migration to name just a few were topics unknown to the discipline half a century ago. Indeed most criminologists would have once stoutly denied that they had anything to do with it. Likewise some central topics of past criminological attention like probation have largely receded from academic attention and some central criminal justice institutions like Borstal and corporal punishment have at least in Europe been abolished. Although the rapidity and radical nature of this change make it quite impossible to predict what criminal justice will look like in fifty years time reflection on such developments may assist in understanding how it arrived at its current form and hint at what the future holds. The contributors to this volume have been invited to reflect on the impact Oxford criminology has had on the discipline providing a unique and critical discussion about the current state of criminal justice around the world and the origins and future implications of contemporary practice. All are leading internationally renowned criminologists whose work has defined and often re defined our understanding of criminal justice policy and literature

Essentials of Assessment Report Writing W. Joel Schneider, Elizabeth O. Lichtenberger, Nancy Mather, Nadeen L. Kaufman, 2018-08-24 The bestselling guide to reporting writing updated and reworked for today s practice Essentials of Assessment Report Writing offers effective solutions to the creation of reader friendly yet targeted psychological and educational assessment reports Parents clinicians clients and other readers need more than test by test descriptions they need an accessible analysis of the entire situation to determine their next steps This book provides clear guidance for busy practitioners seeking ways to improve their report writing skills With a focus on current practice this new second edition covers DSM 5 updates and the latest assessment instruments including the WJ IV WISC V WAIS IV KTEA 3 and the CAS2 New discussion includes advice on tailoring the report to the audience and annotated case reports provide illustrative models of effective report styles interpretation and analysis Key concepts are highlighted for quick reference throughout and end of chapter questions help reinforce understanding Reporting styles vary widely within the field in both content and style there is no definitive standard but many reports fail to reflect best practices and therefore prove less than useful to the reader This book provides expert guidance throughout the reporting process to help practitioners provide high quality accessible reports Integrate assessment results to provide a person centered report Identify and navigate critical decision points in the interpretive process Write efficiently yet effectively while enhancing the reader s experience Provide an accurate informative and readable assessment report Incorporate practical recommendations to address the referral concerns Expertly conducted assessments should culminate with a carefully constructed analysis that provides direction via clear communication Because this report will be used to inform treatment intervention and ultimately the client s quality of life it is critical that it provides clear informative guidance in a way that readers can understand Essentials of Assessment Report Writing provides comprehensive guidelines for navigating through the report writing process
