Sidney Lumet Maura Spiegel,2019-12-10 The first ever biography of the seminal American director whose remarkable life traces a line through American entertainment history Acclaimed as the ultimate New York movie director Sidney Lumet began his astonishing five decades long directing career with the now classic 12 Angry Men followed by such landmark films as Serpico Dog Day Afternoon and Network His remarkably varied output included award winning adaptations of plays by Anton Chekhov Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams and Eugene O'Neill whose Long Day's Journey into Night featured Katharine Hepburn and Ralph Richardson in their most devastating performances. Renowned as an actor's director, Lumet attracted an unmatched roster of stars among them Henry Fonda, Sophia Loren, Marlon Brando, Anna Magnani, Sean Connery, Ingrid Bergman, Paul Newman, Al Pacino, Ethan Hawke, and Philip Seymour Hoffman, accruing eighteen Oscar nods for his actors along the way. With the help of exclusive interviews with family colleagues and friends, author Maura Spiegel provides a vibrant portrait of the life and work of this extraordinary director whose influence is felt through generations and takes us inside the Federal Theater, the Group Theatre, the Actors Studio, and the early golden age of television. From his surprising personal life with four marriages to remarkable women, all of whom opened their living rooms to Lumet's world of artists and performers like Marilyn Monroe and Michael Jackson, to the world of Yiddish theater and Broadway spectacles, Sidney Lumet: A Life is a book that anyone interested in American film of the twentieth century will not want to miss.

Distant Archipelagos Peter Moss, 2004-08. He dropped money bags from low flying biplanes on remote rubber plantations and tin mines, spent nights in deep jungle longhouses aboard fishing kelongs manned by aborigines far out at sea in mosquito infested swamps collecting malarial parasites and on beaches where giant leatherback turtles came to lay their eggs. He accompanied commonwealth troops hunting for terrorists on the Thai-Malaysian border, flew reconnaissance patrols seeking guerilla camps and escorted Field Marshal Templer on his return visit to the country he had liberated from communist insurrection. He met Lady Edwina Mountbatten, wife of the architect of India's independence, interviewed actors Orson Welles and Sir Donald Wolfit and was conversing with the French Ambassador when a ghost walked into the room. He worked with William Holden, Susannah York, and Capucine on a film in which nearly everyone ended up miscast. He helped conceal an escaped prisoner in a hilarious fake jail break, trailed the Sultan of Pahang on a regal progress through Malaysia's largest state, and befriended one of President Soekarno's infamous red beret parachutists sent on a sabotage mission during the height of Indonesian confrontation. Mostly, he loved the land and its people so much that he shunned the cocktail circuit and the city life for the simple pleasures of the kampong and the open road, learning the language and feeling his way towards what French author Henry Fauconnier had called the Soul of Malaya. With Distant Archipelagos, Peter Moss follows up his account of an Anglo-Indian childhood in Bye Bye Blackbird by painting a vivid portrait of another vanished world.

Sociology Arnold Wilfred Green, 1956. American Film Noir Genres, Characters, and Settings Harold Hellwig, 2023-03-20. American Film Noir Genres: Characters and Settings argues that film noir style evolved out of American literature prior to the 1930s and continues to evolve long after the classic films that defined its presence in cinema. While many critics suggest that the film noir tradition ceased after the mid-1950s, labeling similar films produced later as neo noir, Harold Hellwig contends that film noir itself has continued to evolve beyond cinema to include television series such as CSI, Have Gun Will Travel, and Frasier, among others. Hellwig posits that rather than being a single genre in and of itself, film noir comprises several genres, including detective procedurals, science fiction, the Western, and even comedy This book examines different elements of American film noir including the characters and settings it is often defined by and its contexts within different adaptations in both film and television Scholars of film studies American literature and media studies will find this book of particular interest Black Friday: Ashley Jaquavis, 2012-02-01 All it takes is one murder to change a million lives and that's exactly what happens to Kasheef Williams on a cold black Friday After a reunion with an old friend goes wrong in a Long Island night club Kasheef is forced to protect himself by any means necessary The only problem is that prying eyes see everything Those eyes belong to Alija Bell After walking in on a situation she was never meant to see she runs but Kasheef sees her face and he tells her that it's best for her to get temporary amnesia Afraid for her life and the safety of her daughter she keeps her mouth shut but when a tape of the murder surfaces the only face that's visible is Alija's Now the police are looking for their eyewitness and Kasheef has to get to Alija before her day comes to testify against him in court In this dramatic hood savvy tale things aren't always as they seem Somebody holds the ticket to the jury's verdict Lies and truth collide Everyone has a different angle but the only question is who has the most influence over Kasheef's fate The James Bond Phenomenon Christoph Lindner, 2003 Shanghai long known as mainland China's most cosmopolitan city is today a global cultural capital This book offers the first in depth examination of contemporary Shanghai based art and design from state sponsored exhibitions to fashionable cultural complexes to cutting edge films and installations Informed by years of in situ research the book looks beyond contemporary art's global hype to reveal the socio political tensions accompanying Shanghai's transitions from semi colonial capitalism to Maoist socialism to Communist Party sponsored capitalism Case studies reveal how Shanghai's global aesthetic constructs glamorising artifices that mask the conflicts between vying notions of foreign influenced modernity and anti colonialist nationalism as well as the city's repressed socialist past and its consumerist present The Complete and Independent Guide to the Eurovision Song Contest 2009 Simon Barclay, 2009-07-19 Independent Guide to the history of the Eurovision Song Contest Details of all the Contests from 1956 to 2009 the performers composers writers Statistics on voting patterns for each country analysis of best and worst countries closest friends best starting position etc
