The Homestead, 1918 Creative Approaches in Dementia Care Hilary Lee, Trevor Adams, 2017-09-16 A practical introduction to the use of the arts in dementia care Based on experience the book provides clear guidance on how to employ a variety of innovative techniques including art music and dance therapies to promote the physical psychological emotional social and spiritual well being of people with dementia

Doing Prison Work Elaine M Crawley, 2013-01-11 This book provides a much needed sociological account of the social world of the English prison officer making an original contribution to our understanding of the inner life of prisons in general and the working lives of prison officers in particular As well as revealing how the job of the prison officer and of the prison itself is accomplished on a day to day basis the book explores not only what prison officers do but also how they feel about their work In focusing on how prison officers feel about their work this book makes a number of interesting revelations about the essentially domestic nature of much of the work they do about the degree of emotional labour invested in it and about the performance nature of many of the day to day interactions between officers and prisoners Finally the book follows the prison officer home after work showing how the prison can spill over into their home lives and family relationships Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in different types of prisons including interviews with prison officers wives and children as well as prison officers themselves this book will be essential reading for all those with an interest in how prisons and organisations more generally operate in practice

Remembering Yesterday, Caring Today Pam Schweitzer, Errollyn Bruce, 2008-05-15 This practical guide is designed to give those who care for people with dementia a clear sense of how reminiscence can be used to greatly improve their quality of life The book explores how reminiscence can contribute to person centred dementia care and contains detailed descriptions of activities that can be used in a variety of care settings

The One That Got Away Zoë Wicomb, 2009-06-09 These short stories from the award winning South African author combine the coolly interrogative gaze of the outsider with an insider's intimate warmth J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb's debut short story collection You Can't Get Lost in Cape Town won critical acclaim across the globe as well as high praise from fellow authors including Toni Morrison J M Coetzee Bharati Mukherjee and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Now after two novels Wicomb returns to the genre that first brought her international acclaim Set mostly in the South African city of Cape Town where Wicomb is from and the Scottish city of Glasgow where she now lives this new collection of short stories straddles two worlds With an array of expertly drawn characters these twelve tales explore a range of human relationships marriage friendship family and the fraught yet often intimate relations between those who serve and those who are served Full of ironic twists ambiguities and moments of startling insight The One That Got Away showcases this Windham Campbell Award winning author at the height of her powers An extraordinary writer seductive brilliant and precious her talent glitters Toni Morrison
