Feminisms and Domesticity in Times of Crisis Jessica Martin, 2025-10-02 How can we make sense of intensifying gender inequalities amid the growing visibility of popular media driven feminism Can domestic cultures offer a space for feminist response and resistance to austerity Feminisms and Domesticity in Times of Crisis seeks to address these questions exploring how the revival of traditionally feminine domestic activities such as crafting baking and sewing exemplified by cultural figures such as the trad wife has coincided with the re politicisation and heightened visibility of domestic culture during an era of austerity Jessica Martin offers an in depth analysis of public figures who have forged austerity celebrity personas that blend domesticity with activism producing a popular but complex strand of neoliberal feminism Examining figures like Kirstie Allsopp Justine Roberts Jen Gale and anti austerity blogger and cook Jack Monroe Martin examines how each figure develops a distinct form of politicised domesticity Their responses span the political spectrum from Allsopp's promotion of the Big Society and conservative individualism to Roberts transformation of motherhood into parliamentary activism Martin also considers how this nostalgic turn to domesticity intensified during the COVID 19 crisis reinforcing narratives of white femininity patriotic stoicism and the so called British blitz spirit while helping to obscure the escalating inequalities of austerity era Britain Martin argues that the convergence of nostalgia and femininity has produced new discourses of performative thrift feminized labour and aspirational domesticity which are key resources for the justification of austerity policy DIY Utopia Amber Day, 2016-12-22 At first glance contemporary popular culture filled with bleak images of the future seems to have given up on the possibility of positive collective change Below the surface however alternative culture is rife with artist led projects activist movements and subcultural communities of interest that seek to spark the collective imagination and to encourage hunger for alternatives More playfully self conscious than past utopian movements today s are often whimsical or ironic but are still entirely earnest Artists invite us to re author city maps or archive individual ideas for the future while maker collectives urge us to rethink our relationship to consumer goods All seem to have grown out of a similar do it yourself ethos and alternative culture One of the central conflicts informing these case studies is that while it remains immensely difficult to envision anything outside of the current system of consumer capitalism there is nevertheless a powerful desire to take it apart in piecemeal ways We see the longing for new social and political narratives new forms of communion and sociability and new imaginings of the possible longings that are currently unmet by mainstream culture but that are taking expression in myriad ways at the local level Taken as a whole this collection examines what our grand ideals and playful daydreams tell us about ourselves Gender and Austerity in Popular Culture Helen Davies, Claire O'Callaghan, 2016-12-18 From the gritty landscapes of The Hunger Games and The Walking Dead to the portrayal of the twenty first century precariat in Girls this book explores how transatlantic visual culture has represented and reconstructed ideas of gender in times of financial crisis Drawing on social cultural and feminist theory these writers explore how men and women experience austerity differently and illuminate the problematic ways in which economic policy can shape how gender is presented in popular culture Written from the perspective that the popular is indeed political this book considers film literature and television s ideological attitudes towards race sex and disability It also takes into account how mass culture has responded to austerity in the past and the present whilst examining the impact that feminism will have in the future Kirstie's Real Kitchen Kirstie Allsopp, 2017-09-07 Britain s favourite homemaker presents her debut cookbook featuring family meals that everyone will enjoy Most of the dishes I cook are big dishes as we are a family of six my partner Ben and myself my stepsons Hal and Orion and our sons Bay and Oscar and so starts Kirstie Allsopp s very first cookbook As someone who didn t learn to cook at her mother s apron strings Kirstie has had to learn as she s gone along Luckily she s been blessed with great advice from the cooks bakers and chefs she s worked with and recipes inherited from friends and families over the years In Kirstie s Real Kitchen she brings together her favourite recipes the ones she relies on to feed her family and whoever else happens to be around From weekday suppers and entertaining a crowd to dealing with fussy eaters and outdoor eating essential for families with lots of boys the book is full of the recipes that are at the centre of Kirstie s family life Whether it s a quick supper that has to be expanded to cater for last minute arrivals a breakfast fry up to lure a recalcitrant teenager out of bed or a school gate bake to impress the most competitive mum Kirstie's instinctive warmth and style shows how to make something special out of the everyday Packed with delicious recipes and stories from family life the book gives a unique glimpse into the kitchen of the Queen of home making Kirstie Allsopp As much about family as it is about food with a good mix of trendy comforting and indulgent The Lady

When the term postfeminism entered the media lexicon in the 1990s it was often accompanied by breathless headlines about the death of feminism Those reports of feminism's death may have been greatly exaggerated and yet contemporary popular culture often conjures up a world in which feminism had never even been born a fictional universe filled with suburban Stepford wives maniacal career women alluring amnesiacs and other specimens of retro femininity In Feminism and Popular Culture Rebecca Munford and Melanie Waters consider why the twenty first century media landscape is so haunted by the ghosts of these traditional figures that feminism otherwise laid to rest Why over fifty years since Betty Friedan's critique does the feminine mystique exert such a strong spectral presence and how has it been reimagined to speak to the concerns of a postfeminist audience To answer these questions Munford and Waters draw from a rich array of examples from contemporary film fiction music and television from the shadowy cityscapes of Homeland to the haunted houses of American Horror Story Alongside this comprehensive analysis of today's popular culture they offer a vivid portrait of feminism's social and intellectual history as well as an innovative application of Jacques Derrida's theories of hauntology Feminism and Popular Culture thus not only considers how contemporary media is being visited by the ghosts of feminism's past it raises vital questions about what this means for feminism's future

Shouting at the Telly John Grindrod, 2014-04-17 A host of comedians writers and viewers including Rebecca Front Andrew Collins Kevin Eldon Emma Kennedy Richard Herring Jim Shelley and David Quantick share funny and heartfelt rants and raves on everything from soaps to sitcoms sci fi to reality shows HBO to QVC All of TV is here the age old rift between BBC and ITV that tore families apart the secret shame of crying at adverts and those significant moments in life when television has made for an unforgettable backdrop Richard Herring has a controversial new theory about Goodnight Sweetheart Boyd Hilton shares his all time comedy top ten and Rebecca Front demolishes the clichés of news reading They're joined by a list of fellow telly addicts with axes to grind So if you have ever rooted for the most offensive candidates in The Apprentice or repeatedly corrected Supernanny Jo Frost's pronunciation of unacceptable then this book will give you and your spleen many happy memories of the hours you've spent shouting at the telly

The Play of Political Culture, Emotion and Identity Candida Yates, 2015-09-22 Offering a uniquely psycho cultural take on the emotional dynamics of UK political culture this book uses theories and research in psychoanalysis cultural and media studies and political sociology It explores the cultural and emotional processes that shape our relationship to politics in a media age referencing Joanna Lumley to Nigel Farage

Crunch Lit Katy Shaw, 2015-10-22 The financial crisis of 2008 quickly gave rise to a growing body of fiction Crunch Lit These recession writings take the financial crisis as their central narrative concern and explore its effects on consumer culture gender roles and contemporary communities Examining a range of texts including Sebastian Faulks A Week in December Adam Haslett's Union Atlantic and John Lanchester's Capital this book offers the first wide ranging guide to these new millennial writings

Is It Just Me Or Has The Shit Hit The Fan? Alan McArthur, Steve Lowe, 2009-11-05 The authors of the bestselling IS IT JUST ME OR IS EVERYTHING SHIT survey the post crash landscape Are we better people now or just the same people with less money From bank bailouts to enviro copouts from Tory politicians listening to The Jam to celebrity credit crunch victims Grant Bovey and Anthea Turner from BNP coppers to Christian theme parks to middle class shoppers banging on about budget supermarkets plus everyone banging on about The Wire Funny sharp and timely IS IT JUST ME OR HAS THE SHIT HIT THE FAN asks the crucial questions of the new age like why are the people who screwed the world still running the world and screwing the world until we re all screwed more than we ve ever been screwed before Total Institutions and Reinvented Identities S. Scott,2011-10-27 Why do people enter total institutions places that confine and control them around the clock and how does the experience change them This book updates Goffman s classic model by introducing the Re inventive Institution where members voluntarily commit themselves to pursue regimes of self improvement How To Launch A Magazine In This Digital Age Mary Hogarth,2013-12-19 A team of internationally respected scholars identify and explore how philosophical reflections on travelling and landscapes have shaped East Asian aesthetics and religion The Cultural Politics of Austerity R. Bramall,2013-10-31 This timely book examines austerity s conflicted meanings from austerity chic and anti austerity protest to economic and eco austerity Bramall s compelling text explores the presence and persuasiveness of the past developing a new approach to the historical in contemporary cultural politics Bad News Anya Schiffrin,2010-12-07 Leading scholars and journalists assess the media s failure to see the financial crisis coming A sort of All the President s Men for our time Kirkus Reviews Where was the business press in the weeks and months leading up to the deepest financial crisis since the Great Depression As our economy unraveled journalists struggled to keep up with the story of the century grappling with an alphabet soup of derivatives backroom deals and toxic financial instruments But many fault the media itself for having helped to create the bubble in the first place Did the press fail its mandate as an engine of truth by buying into the hubris and exuberance of the preceding decades Bad News is a foundational text for navigating a controversy that will be studied for years to come With contributions from leading journalists and academics including Nobel Laureate Joseph Stiglitz International Consortium of Investigative Journalists senior editor Dean Starkman and the New York Times European economics correspondent Peter S Goodman this collection presents a complex debate in a highly accessible format for anyone from curious readers and scholars to journalists themselves And ultimately the questions it raises illuminate the heated debate about the media s role as guardians of our democracy There are three 24 hour financial networks All their slogans are like We know what s going on on Wall Street But then you turn it on during the crisis and they re like We don t know what s going on It d be like turning on the Weather Channel in a hurricane and they re just doing this shuddering Why am I wet What s happening to me And it s so windy Jon Stewart Thorough hard hitting and admirably balanced James Ledbetter editor in charge Reuters Geographies of Making, Craft and Creativity Laura Price,Harriet Hawkins,2018-03-22 This book brings together cutting edge research from leading international scholars to explore the geographies of making and craft It traces the geographies of making practices from the body to the workshop and studio to the wider socio cultural economic political institutional and historical contexts In doing so it considers how these geographies of making are in and of themselves part of the making of geographies As such contributions examine how making bodies and their intersections with matter come to shape subjects create communities evolve knowledge and make worlds This book offers a forum to consider future directions for the field of geographies of making craft and creativity It will be of great interest to creative and cultural geographers as well as those studying the arts culture and sociology Kirstie's Vintage Home Kirstie Allsopp,2012-10-11
