learn more about the woman and what might have happened to her The plot thickens when the woman s car is found abandoned Now Lexie knows she didn t imagine the visitor but where is she and what happened to her As the clues line up Lexie starts to worry that they re just a bit too neat too much like a good story Now that the police are seriously investigating the woman s disappearance Lexie s credibility may be in danger if she got the story all wrong in the first place She has to find the truth before the police do and before her next issue goes to press if she doesn t want to be the editor who cried wolf

Mystery of the Drowned Driver Shanna Swendson,2021-01-28 Was It an Accident or Vengeance When a fisherman spots a car in the river it s the most exciting news during a slow week in Stirling Mills and newspaper editor Lexie Lincoln is there to cover it The cops think it was an accident but a ghost on the scene tells Lexie the drowned driver got what he deserved for cheating her out of her land Lexie figures the ghost got vengeance There are just two problems A ghost can t be prosecuted for murder and the person the ghost named isn t one of the people found in the car Still Lexie thinks it s worth digging into and she discovers that someone has been taking advantage of elderly landowners She d have thought the town would rally behind her investigation of a real estate scam but she finds herself standing alone Her suspect has an eerie hold over everyone he encounters If she doesn t find concrete proof that he committed a crime she may get run out of town That s a real challenge when no one still alive will talk to her And then there s still the case of the drowned driver and his passenger was it an accident or did the scheme lead to murder

Case of the Broken Bridge Shanna Swendson,2022-09-22 Locking the doors may not keep a killer out Lexie Lincoln hoped the Saturday outing Wes Mosby planned would be a date a step toward defining their ambiguous relationship but it turns out to be something better a story Wes fears there was something shady about the construction of a bridge that collapsed in a recent storm It s out of his jurisdiction but he thinks Lexie s just the person to dig into it She suspects Wes might be right when the county engineer she calls about the bridge invites her to his house for a cookout instead of arranging an interview There must be something he doesn t want to discuss at the office But when she arrives he s nowhere to be found His family can t get into the house because it s locked from the inside After the police resort to kicking in a door they find him dead from an apparent suicide Or is it It doesn t make sense for him to invite Lexie over then kill himself before talking On the other hand there are those locked doors How could the killer have left Then again this is Stirling Mills where half the population can do seemingly impossible things Getting in and out in spite of locked doors isn t out of the question If it was murder was he killed because of the bridge or was it something else Either way Lexie s investigation into the bridge has made her a target of threats If she s dealing with someone willing to kill to keep her from finding and publishing the truth and if that person can lock or unlock any door she won t be safe until she brings the killer to justice
