Accenting the Classics Deborah Mawer, Barbara L. Kelly, Rachel Moore, Graham Sadler, 2023. Brings new insights to the music of well known European composers by telling a fascinating little known story about French music publishing specifically through the lens of Jacques Durand's edition Classique. French composers, performers and musicologists acted as editors of eighteenth and nineteenth century European classics primarily for piano. Among these editors were Fauré, Saint-Saëns, Debussy, Ravel and Dukas. The objects of their enquiries included core works by Rameau, Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Schumann and Chopin. Presenting six composer-editor case studies, the volume shows that the French accent, both musical and cultural, upon this predominantly Austro-German music was highly varied. Editorial responses range from scholarly approaches to those directed by performance or compositional agendas and from pan-European to strongly patriotic stances. Intriguing intersections are revealed between old and new and between French and cross-European canons. Beyond editing, the book explores the edition's role in pedagogy and performance, including by pianists Robert Casadesu and Yvonne Loriod, and in the reassertion of contemporary French composition, especially regarding innovation around neoclassicism. It will interest a wide readership including musicologists, performers and concertgoers, cultural historians and other humanities scholars.
