Klein Lacan Dialogues Bernard Burgoyne:

The Klein-Lacan Dialogues Bernard Burgoyne, 2018-05-01 Throughout the year of 1995 a series of debates took place under the auspices of the Higher Education Network for Research and Information in Psychoanalysis Leading Kleinian and Lacanian psychoanalysts were brought together to debate key topics of psychoanalytic theory Subsequently they were asked to submit their papers in written form and this book was compiled The following areas were discussed phantasy by Darien Leader and Robert M Young child analysis by Bice Benvenuto and Margaret Rustin transference and countertransference by Robert Hinshelwood and Vincetn Palomera technique and interpretation by Catalina Bronstein and Bernard Burgoyne sexuality by Jane Temperley and Dany Nobus the unconscious by Robin Anderson and Filip Geerardyn The book ends with interviews with Donald Meltzer and Eric Laurent each significant figures in the fields of Kleinian and Lacanian psychoanalysis respectively Mary Sullivan provides an introduction setting out the similarities and divergences of the two psychoanalytic paradigms

The New Klein-Lacan Dialogues Julia Borossa, Catalina Bronstein, Claire Pajackowska, 2018-05-01 This book provides a timely exploration and comparison of key concepts in the theories of Melanie Klein and Jacques Lacan two thinkers and clinicians whose influence over the development of psychoanalysis in the wake of Freud has been profound and far reaching Whilst the centrality of the unconscious is a strong conviction shared by both Klein and Lacan there are also many differences between the two schools of thought and the clinical work that is produced in each The purpose of this collection is to take seriously these similarities and differences Deeply relevant to both theoretical reflection and clinical work the New Klein Lacan Dialogues should make interesting reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists mental health professionals scholars and all those who wish to know more about these two leading figures in the field of psychoanalysis The collection centres around key concepts such as symbolic function the ego the object the body trauma autism affect and history and archives

Lacan and Klein, Creation and Discovery Adam Rosen-Carole, 2012-07-10 On the one hand Creation and Discovery Lacan and Klein An Essay of Reintroduction seeks to disclose the often suppressed or unacknowledged proximity even intimacy between Lacan and Klein and thereby to facilitate a re introduction between Lacan and Klein such that their works can read anew both independently and together On the other hand by reconstructing the highly divergent metapsychological theories and clinical orientations of Jacques Lacan and Melanie Klein from their discussions of the same case material the text seeks to demonstrate the irreducible plurality of psychoanalysis and the ethico political significance of this plurality Siding with neither Lacan nor Klein s perspective Adam Rosen Carole argues that within and between these exaggerated positions a dialectic of creation and discovery emerges that affords the reader unique insights into the nature and status of psychoanalytic knowing and its particular objects Special attention is paid to the indelible exaggerations and distortions the guiding sensitivities and urgencies and the concomitant structures of blindness and insight organizing various psychoanalytic perspectives Written for clinicians as well as for students and scholars interested in psychoanalysis and philosophy this book serves not only as a comprehensive introduction to Lacan but also a reassessment of psychoanalytic method

British Psychoanalysis Gregorio Kohon, 2017-12-22 British Psychoanalysis New Perspectives in the Independent Tradition is a new and extended edition of The British School of Psychoanalysis The Independent Tradition which explored the successes and failures of the early environment transference and counter transference in the psychoanalytic encounter regression in the situation of treatment and female sexuality Published in the mid 1980s it had an important influence on the development of psychoanalysis both in Great Britain and abroad was translated into several languages and became a central textbook in academic and professional courses This new updated book includes not only many of the original papers but also new chapters written for this volume by Hannah Browne Josh Cohen Steven Groarke Gregorio Kohon Rosine Perelberg and Megan Virtue Addressing and reflecting on the four main themes of the first collection the new papers discuss such subjects as a new focus on earliest infancy new directions in Independent clinical thinking the question of therapeutic regression the centrality of sexual difference in Freud They also highlight the connections between and the mutual influence of British and French psychoanalysis now a critical subject in contemporary psychoanalytic debates British Psychoanalysis New Perspectives in the Independent Tradition will be important not only to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists and the full spectrum of professionals involved in mental health It will be of great value in psychotherapy and counselling training and an important resource for teaching and academic activities

Jacques Lacan and the Freudian Practice of Psychoanalysis Dany Nobus, 2013-01-11 Jacques Lacan and the Freudian Practice of Psychoanalysis paints a completely new picture of the man and his ideas The book succeeds in showing how ideas can become more accessible and re evaluates his significance within the field of psychodynamic psychotherapy The book is structured thematically around five key issues diagnosis the analyst's position during the treatment the management of transference the formulation of interpretations and the organisation of analytic training For each of these issues Lacan's entire work both published and unpublished material has been taken into account and theoretical principles have been illustrated with clinical examples The book also contains the first complete bibliography of Lacan's works in English Clear detailed and wide ranging Jacques Lacan and the Freudian Practice of Psychoanalysis will prove essential reading not only for professionals and students within the fields of psychology and psychiatry but for all those keen to discover a new Lacan

Intimate Violence David Greven, 2013-03-13 Intimate Violence explores the consistent cold war in Hitchcock's films between his heterosexual heroines and his queer characters usually though not always male Decentering the authority of the male hero Hitchcock's films allow his female and queer characters to vie for narrative power often in conflict with one another These conflicts eerily echo the tense standoff between feminism and queer theory From a reparative psychoanalytic perspective David Greven merges queer and feminist approaches to Hitchcock Using the theories of Melanie Klein Greven argues that Hitchcock's work thematizes a constant battle between desires to injure and to repair the loved object Greven develops a theory of sexual hegemony The feminine versus the queer conflict as he calls it in Hitchcock films illuminates the shared but rivalrous struggles for autonomy and visibility on the part of female and queer subjects The heroine is vulnerable to misogyny but she often gains an access to agency that the queer subject longs for mistaking her partial autonomy for social power Hitchcock's queer personae however wield a seductive power over his heterosexual subjects having access to illusion and masquerade that the knowledge seeking heroine must destroy Freud's theory of paranoia understood as a tool for the dissection of cultural homophobia illuminates the feminine versus the queer conflict the female subject position and the consistent forms of homoerotic antagonism in the Hitchcock film Through close readings of such key Hitchcock works as North by Northwest Psycho Strangers on a Train Spellbound Rope Marnie and The Birds Greven explores the ongoing conflicts between the heroine and queer subjects and the simultaneous allure and horror of same sex relationships in the director's films

After-Education Deborah P. Britzman, 2012-02-01 In After Education Deborah P Britzman raises the startling question What is education that it should give us such trouble She explores a series of historic and contemporary psychoanalytic arguments over the nature of reality and fantasy for thinking through the force and history of education Drawing from the theories of Anna Freud and Melanie Klein she analyzes experiences of difficult knowledge pedagogy group psychology theory and questions of loneliness in learning education Throughout the book education appears and is transformed in its various guises as a nervous condition as social relation as authority as psychological knowledge as quality of psychical reality as fact of natality as the thing between teachers and students as an institution and as a play between reality and fantasy

Echoes of the Tambaran Paul Roscoe, David Lipset, 2011-10-01 In the Sepik Basin of Papua New Guinea ritual culture was dominated by the Tambaran a male tutelary spirit that acted as a social and intellectual guardian or patron to those under its aegis as they made their way through life To Melanesian scholarship the cultural and psychological anthropologist Donald F Tuzin was something of a Tambaran a figure whose brilliant and fine grained ethnographic project in the Arapesh village of Ilahita was immensely influential within and beyond New Guinea anthropology Tuzin died in 2007 at the age of 61 In his memory the editors of this collection commissioned a set of original and thought provoking essays from eminent and accomplished anthropologists who knew and were influenced by his work They are echoes of the Tambaran The anthology begins with a biographical sketch of Tuzin s life and scholarship It is divided into four sections each of which focuses loosely around one of his preoccupations The first concerns warfare history the male cult and changing masculinity all in Melanesia The second addresses the relationship between actor and structure Here the ethnographic focus momentarily shifts to the Caribbean before turning back to Papua new Guinea in essays that examine uncanny phenomena narratives about childhood and messianic promises The third part goes on to offer comparative and psychoanalytic perspectives on the subject in Fiji Bali the Amazon as well as Melanesia Appropriately the last section concludes with essays on Tuzin s fieldwork style and his distinctive authorial voice

Cradling the Chrysalis Mary MacCallum Sullivan, Harriett Goldenberg, 2018-05-16 This book addresses the ethical and philosophical basis for the teaching learning involved in becoming a psychotherapist How can training prepare prospective psychotherapists counsellors and counselling psychologists for a task whose practitioners cannot even agree as to whether it is an art or a science an impersonal clinical interaction or a profoundly humane even spiritual encounter The authors believe they share with their students a passion about the possibilities inherent in this particular kind of conversation Such a meeting demands a fully personal engagement and a profoundly ethical attitude towards the relationship with the Other it is also potentially an important beginning in repairing the world The book explores the relative importance and emphasis of the structure content and process of psychotherapy training Its thesis is that the teaching learning takes place in the quality of the reciprocal meeting between the teacher and the learner

IDIOT LOVE and the Elements of Intimacy David

Stromberg,2020-05-05 This book turns our search for intimacy on its head suggesting that our way to creativity in love may be through idiocy The book takes its readers on a journey through the work of Plato and Melanie Klein in theorizing the dynamics of intimacy while exploring some of the paradoxical aspects of love in works by Fyodor Dostoevsky and French filmmaker Catherine Breillat Revisiting core concepts of how we think about relationships the book lays out a model for relational breakdown the idiot lovecycle in which we are constantly in the flux between seeing ourselves and seeing the other Effecting close readings of literary philosophical and psychoanalytical sources the book draws on parallels between these fields of inquiry while tracing their shared intellectual genealogy suggesting that the tension between Narcissus and Cassandra with its inherent conflicts is also the space through which love emerges from intimacy
