Pilgrimage in the Marketplace Ian Reader, 2013-09-11 The study of pilgrimage often centres itself around miracles and spontaneous populist activities While some of these activities and stories may play an important role in the emergence of potential pilgrimage sites and in helping create wider interest in them this book demonstrates that the dynamics of the marketplace including marketing and promotional activities by priests and secular interest groups create the very consumerist markets through which pilgrimages become established and successful and through which the sacred as a category can be sustained By drawing on examples from several contexts including Japan India China Vietnam Europe and the Muslim world author Ian Reader evaluates how pilgrimages may be invented shaped and promoted by various interest groups In so doing he draws attention to the competitive nature of the pilgrimage market revealing that there are rivalries borrowed ideas and alliances with commercial and civil agencies to promote pilgrimages The importance of consumerism is demonstrated both in terms of consumer goods souvenirs and pilgrimage site selection rather than the usual depictions of consumerism as tawdry disjunctions on the sacred As such this book reorients studies of pilgrimage by highlighting not just the pilgrims who so often dominate the literature but also the various other interest groups and agencies without whom pilgrimage as a phenomenon would not exist

Pat Sheedy, 2025-07-25 Much like his first book God is Able this book is for the religious and laity alike Packed full of events that will encourage all to see how God is so needed in the world today and wants us to join with Him in His work This book continues to tell us how God things happen just about every day if we remain in Him listen to His promptings and have the courage to proceed In this book Father Pat uses examples from his early calling into the priesthood and through all his various ministry involvement over the last sixty years The reader will find inspiring and very relevant urgings from God such as the following There is so much we can do and which we have to do God will not do it for us He could do it It is just that He wants us to be partners with Him We like Him are created to share develop and share all He has given us When we unselfishly share we are imitating God It must be one of the greatest blessings Jesus gave the church to forgive sins in His name Father Pat over the years has been inspired in his spiritual journey because of his annual prayerful visits to three of Ireland's holy places of pilgrimage Knock Shrine Ireland's Holy Mountain Croagh Patrick and Lough Derg's three day heavy penances These pilgrimages are designed to inspire individuals to take time and space apart from their normal busy life to pray to meditate to focus to regroup and to get reenergized for their normal fully busy lives The uplifting stories in God is Needed will direct us to the ever present need for God and inspire us to partner with Him in the work of caring for His people
