Sound Communities in the Asia Pacific Lonán Ó Briain, Min Yen Ong, 2021-01-28 The popularization of radio television and the Internet radically transformed musical practice in the Asia Pacific. These technologies bequeathed media broadcasters with a profound authority over the ways we engage with musical culture. Broadcasters use this power to promote distinct cultural traditions, popularize new music and engage diverse audiences. They also deploy mediated musics as a vehicle for disseminating ideologies, educating the masses, shaping national borders and promoting political alliances. With original contributions by leading scholars in anthropology, ethnomusicology, sound studies and media and cultural studies, the 12 essays in this book investigate the processes of broadcasting musical culture in the Asia Pacific. We shift our gaze to the mechanisms of cultural industries in eastern Asia and the Pacific islands to understand how oft invisible producers, musicians and technologies facilitate, frame, reproduce and magnify the reach of local culture.
