Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 The Languages and Linguistics of Mainland Southeast Asia Paul Sidwell, Mathias Jenny, 2021-08-23 The handbook will offer a survey of the field of linguistics in the early 21st century for the Southeast Asian Linguistic Area. The last half century has seen a great increase in work on language contact, work in genetic, theoretical and descriptive linguistics and since the 1990s especially documentation of endangered languages. The book will provide an account of work in these areas focusing on the achievements of SEAsian linguistics as well as the challenges and unresolved issues and provide a survey of the relevant major publications and other available resources. We will address Survey of the languages of the area organized along genetic lines with discussion of relevant political and cultural background issues. Theoretical, descriptive and typological issues: Genetic classification and historical linguistics, Areal and contact linguistics. Other areas of interest such as sociolinguistics, semantics, writing systems etc. Resources: major monographs and monograph series, dictionaries, journals, electronic data bases etc. Grammar sketches of languages representative of the genetic and structural diversity of the region.

Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork Shobhana L. Chelliah, Willem J. de Reuse, 2010-10-06 The Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork is the most comprehensive reference on linguistic fieldwork on the market bringing together all the reader needs to carry out successful linguistic fieldwork. Based on the experiences of two veteran linguistic fieldworkers and advice from more than a twenty active fieldwork researchers, this handbook provides an encyclopedic review of current publications on linguistic fieldwork and surveys past and present approaches and solutions to problems in the field and the historical, political and social variables correlating with fieldwork in different areas of the world. The discussion of the ethical dimensions of fieldwork as well as what constitutes the typical linguistic fieldwork setting or consultant is explored from multiple perspectives relevant to fieldwork on every continent. Included is information omitted in most other texts on the subject such as the collection, representation, management and methods of extracting grammatical information from discourse and conversational data as well as the relationship between questionnaire-based elicitation, text-based elicitation and philology and the need for combinations of these methods. The book is useful before, during and after linguistic field trips since it provides extensive practical macro and micro organization and planning, fieldwork tips as well as a handy sketch of major typological features for use in linguistic analysis. Comprehensive references are provided at the end of each chapter as resources relevant to the reader's particular interests. Marbled Paper Richard J. Wolfe, 1990 For 250 years after its introduction to Europe around 1600, the method of decorating paper known as marbling reigned supreme as the chief means of embellishing the fine work of hand bookbinders. Richard J. Wolfe reconstructs the rise and fall of the craft.
