Reuben Miller a chaplain at the Cook County Jail in Chicago and now a sociologist studying mass incarceration spent years alongside prisoners ex prisoners their friends and their families to understand the lifelong burden that even a single arrest can entail What his work revealed is a simple if overlooked truth life after incarceration is its own form of prison The idea that one can serve their debt and return to life as a full fledged member of society is one of America s most nefarious myths Recently released individuals are faced with jobs that are off limits apartments that cannot be occupied and votes that cannot be cast As The Color of Law exposed about our understanding of housing segregation Halfway Home shows that the American justice system was not created to rehabilitate Parole is structured to keep classes of Americans impoverished unstable and disenfranchised long after they ve paid their debt to society Informed by Miller s experience as the son and brother of incarcerated men captures the stories of the men women and communities fighting against a system that is designed for them to fail It is a poignant and eye opening call to arms that reveals how laws rules and regulations extract a tangible cost not only from those working to rebuild their lives but also our democracy As Miller searchingly explores America must acknowledge and value the lives of its formerly imprisoned citizens PEN America 2022 John Kenneth Galbraith Award for Nonfiction Finalist Winner of the 2022 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences 2022 PROSE Awards Finalist 2022 PROSE Awards Category Winner for Cultural Anthropology and Sociology An NPR Selected 2021 Books We Love As heard on NPR s Fresh Air

Seeing Things Mason Kamana Allred,2023-02-14 In this theoretically rich work Mason Kamana Allred unearths the ways Mormons have employed a wide range of technologies to translate events beliefs anxieties and hopes into reproducible experiences that contribute to the growth of their religious systems of meaning Drawing on methods from cultural history media studies and religious studies Allred focuses specifically on technologies of vision that have shaped Mormonism as a culture of seeing These technologies he argues were as essential to the making of

Mormonism as the humans who received interpreted and practiced their faith While Mormons uses of television and the internet are recent examples of the tradition s use of visual technology Allred excavates older practices and technologies for negotiating the spirit such as panorama displays and magic lantern shows Fusing media theory with feminist new materialism he employs media archaeology to examine Mormons ways of performing distinctions beholding as a way to engender radical visions and standardizing vision to effect assimilation Allred s analysis reveals Mormonism as always materially mediated and argues that religious history is likewise inherently entangled with media Song Messenger of the North-West ,1871 The Earthly Paradise by William Morris William Morris,2014-01-09 This annotated critical edition is the first attempt to make Morris s 42 000 word verse sequence accessible to a modern audience Comfort ,1914
