Gypsies And Travellers Empowerment And Inclusion In British Society:

Gypsies and Travellers Joanna Richardson, Andrew Ryder, 2012 The eviction at Dale Farm in the UK in 2011 brought the conflicting issues relating to Gypsy and Traveller accommodation to the attention of the world's media. However, as the furore surrounding the eviction has died down, the very pressing issues of accommodation, need, inequality of access to education, healthcare and employment, and exclusion from British and European society, is still very much evident. This topical book examines and debates a range of themes facing Gypsies and Travellers in British society, including health, social policy, employment and education. It also looks at the dilemmas faced in representing disadvantaged minority groups in media and political discourse, theories on power, control and justice, and the impact of European initiatives on inclusion. Gypsies and Travellers Empowerment and inclusion in British society will be of interest to students, academics, policy makers, practitioners, those working in the media, police, education and health services, and of course to Gypsies and Travellers themselves.

Publisher's website Gypsies and Travellers Joanna Richardson, Andrew Richard Ryder, 2012 This title brings together some of the top experts in their fields to help the reader to understand Gypsy and traveller identity. Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade, community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems. Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice. Focusing on self-organised community activity, this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal, unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector. The collection includes work from leading academics, activists, policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar. The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series, which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust. Hearing the Voices of Gypsy, Roma and Traveller Communities Ryder, Andrew, Cemlyn, Sarah, 2014-10-08 Over the past decade, interest in Gypsies, Roma and Travellers (GRT) has risen up the political and media agendas, but they remain relatively unknown. This topical book is the first to chart the history and contemporary developments in GRT community activism and the community and voluntary organisations and coalitions which support it. Underpinned by radical community development and equality theories, it describes the communities' struggle for rights against a backdrop of intense intersectional discrimination across Europe and critiques the ambivalent role of community development in fostering these campaigns. Much of it co-written by community activists, it is a vehicle for otherwise marginalised voices and an essential resource and inspiration for practitioners, lecturers, researchers and members of GRT communities.

Racisms Steve Garner, 2017-03-06 Combining key theoretical perspectives with contemporary case studies, this text will be invaluable in helping you to fully understand the complex issue of racism. With clear definitions and practical examples, this is a solid resource when seeking to examine the way in which racisms have become part of social practices and institutions Providing a clear and readable introduction to all of the key concepts theories and debates this fully revised new edition Includes new chapters on Ethnicity and Immigration Has 30 new boxed case studies with a more international focus Contains new learning features including further reading and questions for reflection Racisms is an ideal introduction for undergraduates studying race and ethnicity social divisions and stratification View from the Traveller Site Anna Hoare,2025-04-24 Traveller specific architecture in Ireland and permanently temporary sites in the UK embody an insoluble contradiction as systems of control policing and strategic neglect and as a cultural right an alternative to housing that recognizes the dignity of choice View from the Traveller Site explores post nomadism as an artefact of statecraft in which contradictory processes occur in tandem legal insecurity persists and state policies have unexpected consequences as sites materialize the countervailing tendencies of post war European states At conjunctures of camps courtrooms sites and council houses Irish Travellers generate new architectures and revive old ones Architecture and the body form distributed fields of analogy and metaphor and are reciprocally constituted as social capacities and sites of personhood and relations Through ethnographic accounts of sites and camps funerary monuments and gift cycles of mares and foals the book reflects on material and performative architectures negotiations of gendered and generational rights and the role of women in encounters between the dead the living and the unborn in camps The author engages with debates in the anthropology of the state property citizenship and the family and offers a new analysis of Travellers concepts of personhood and embodiment as they negotiate the politics and poetics of citizenship kinship and sociality enfoldng the settled non Traveller world of sites into the collective bodies of breeds and back breeds This exploration of the productivity of post nomadic architecture culture and sociality will be of particular interest to scholars of anthropology architecture and material and visual culture Contemporary British Horror Cinema Johnny Walker,2015-10-01 Combining industrial research and primary interview material with detailed textual analysis Contemporary British Horror Cinema looks beyond the dominant paradigms which have explained away British horror in the past and sheds light on one of the most dynamic and distinctive yet scarcely talked about areas of contemporary British film production Considering high profile theatrical releases including The Descent Shaun of the Dead and The Woman in Black as well as more obscure films such as The Devil s Chair Resurrecting the Street Walker and Cherry Tree Lane Contemporary British Horror Cinema provides a thorough examination of British horror film production in the twenty first century Creating Community-Led and Self-Build Homes Martin Field,2020-06-24 In Creating Community Led and Self Build Homes Martin Field explores the ways in which people and communities across the UK have been striving to create the homes and neighbourhood communities they want Giving context to contemporary practices in the UK the book examines self build housing and community led housing discussing the commonalities and distinctions between these in practice and what could be learned from other initiatives across Europe Individual methods and models of local practice are explored including cohousing cooperatives community land trusts empty homes and other intentional communities and an examination is made of what has constrained such initiatives to date and how future policies and practice might be shaped

Gypsies in Contemporary Egypt Alexandra Parrs, 2017 In Gypsies in Contemporary Egypt sociologist Alexandra Parrs draws on two years of fieldwork to explore how Dom identities are constructed negotiated and contested in the specifically Egyptian national context With an eye to the pitfalls and evolution of scholarly work on the vastly more studied European Roma she traces the scattered representations of Egyptian Dom from accounts of them by nineteenth century European

Orientalists to their portrayal in Egyptian cinema as belly dancers in the 1950s and beggars and thieves more recently

A Global Law of Diversity Nicolò Paolo Alessi, 2024-11-25 This book provides a global perspective on the accommodation of diversity within constitutional traditions considering the most innovative approaches and legal instruments of the Global North and Global South This field of study traditionally dominated by a Global North approach based on majority minority and rights based discourse is undergoing significant development The work thus assesses the appropriateness of the existing mainstream theoretical tools and concepts in particular minority and minority related concepts as well as rights discourse to grasp the ongoing evolution of this field of law A reconsideration of the traditional conceptual categories and the introduction of the concept Law of Diversity is proposed as a theoretical framework to grasp the ongoing developments in this area Among the models studied those that are referred to as emergent models for the accommodation of diversity in the Global North appear to be particularly in need of theoretical recognition To this end the theory of federalism is used to serve a rather unexplored theoretical function Federal theory is put forward as a theoretical instrument to frame and explain the emergent instruments for the accommodation of diversity as well as provide practical solutions for their development The book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of comparative constitutional law minority and indigenous rights law and federal studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

When Stereotype Meets Prejudice Timofey Agarin, 2014-09-01

Tackling Poverty and Social Exclusion John H. Pierson, 2016-04-20 In our highly unequal Britain poverty and social exclusion continue to dominate the lives of users of social work and social care services At the same time spending cuts and welfare reform have changed the context within which services are delivered The third edition of this unique textbook seeks to capture the complexity and diversity of practice relating to social exclusion as social workers adapt to this challenging environment Tackling Poverty and Social Exclusion prepares practitioners to engage directly with the social and personal circumstances facing excluded individuals and their families The volume Explains the development of the concept of social exclusion as a framework for understanding the impact of poverty and other deprivations on users lives and outlines five building blocks for combating exclusion in practice Locates practice within social work values of fairness and social justice while acknowledging the many challenges to those values Includes individual chapters on excluded children and families young people and adults with chapters also on practice in disadvantaged neighbourhoods and rural communities Discusses inclusionary practice in relation to racism as well as refugees and asylum seekers Throughout the book encourages students and practitioners to think through the range of approaches perspectives and value choices they face To facilitate engagement each chapter includes up to date practice examples case studies and specific questions for readers to reflect on

Culture Wars James Curran, Ivor Gaber, Julian Petley, 2018-07-11 Culture Wars investigates the relationship between the media and politics in Britain today It focusses on how significant sections of the national press have represented and distorted the policies of the Labour Party and particularly its left from the Thatcher era up to and including Ed Miliband's and Jeremy Corbyn's leaderships. Revised and updated including five brand new chapters this second edition shows how press hostility to the left particularly newspaper coverage of its policies on race gender and sexuality has morphed into a more generalised campaign against political correctness the liberal elite and the so called enemies of the people. Combining fine grained case studies with authoritative overviews of recent British political and media history Culture Wars demonstrates how much of the press have routinely attacked Labour and in so doing have abused their political power distorted public debate and negatively impacted the news agendas of public service broadcasters. The book also raises the intriguing question of whether the rise of social media and the success of its initial exploitation by Corbyn supporters followed by Labour as a whole in the 2017 General Election represent a major shift in the balance of power between Labour and the media and in particular the right wing press. Culture Wars will be of considerable interest to students and researchers in the fields of media politics and contemporary British history and will also attract those with a more general interest in current affairs in the UK.

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child in Wales Jane Williams, 2013-02-15 This edited collection tells the story behind a ground breaking Welsh law which reinforces the human rights of children and young people in Welsh devolved government. It examines the impact of this law in selected policy areas and shows why the Welsh approach is attracting worldwide interest.

Ethnographic Methods in Gypsy, Roma and Traveller Research Martin Fotta, Paloma Gay y Blasco, 2024-01-29 EPDF and EPUB available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence This collection scrutinizes the methodological and ethical challenges that researchers face when working with and for Gypsy Roma and Traveller communities in the context of global crises. Contributors assess the impact of the pandemic on their engaged research evaluating novel methods and technologies. They reveal how current research practice blurs the borders between activism and scholarship and they argue the need for innovative collaborations with local communities. Showcasing emerging aspects of GRT related scholarship this book makes a key contribution to larger debates on the positionality of researchers and the politics of research and affirms the continued value of rigorous ethnography.

Transnational Resilience and Change Dan Allen, Margaret Greenfields, David Smith, 2019-01-23 This edited collection draws together contributions from various social scientific fields and explores the mechanisms and strategies that Gypsy Roma and Traveller communities employ to preserve identities and cultural practices in different situational and national contexts. The book has a global focus with case studies from different European nations as well as from Australia North and South America. While several chapters acknowledge the power of cultural maintenance in the preservation of identity others take a critical stance towards those aspects of inwardly focused and self regulated examples of cultural isolation and highlight the implications that cultural marginality can have for members of these groups. The book is therefore essential reading for students in professional fields such as social work education and community development It is also relevant to academics with interests in anthropology ethnography migration studies politics public administration sociology and social policy Many of the book s themes have a cross disciplinary and transnational relevance and will be of interest to a range of international audiences

The Palgrave Handbook of Minority Entrepreneurship

Thomas M. Cooney,2021-04-17 Bringing much needed clarity and definition to the term minority entrepreneur this authoritative and timely handbook explores the distinctive challenges that minority communities face when founding and managing new ventures The handbook is inclusive of any community who might be considered disadvantaged or under represented in terms of entrepreneurial activity and included are women youths seniors disabled immigrants Indigenous peoples LGBTQ ex offenders Roma refugees and many others Chapters highlight the idiosyncratic nature of the many communities examined before offering frameworks and models that draw together the various findings With a cast of international contributors this scholarly handbook discusses the surrounding literature of minority entrepreneurship and takes an all encompassing approach to its interpretation It also addresses the sorely under researched area of entrepreneurial behaviour among minorities and disadvantaged groups This is particularly important for policymakers tasked with designing and delivering initiatives that are appropriate for the needs of these communities Ultimately this handbook contributes to existing knowledge by providing a current understanding of the literature for each of the communities investigating the uniqueness of the entrepreneurial behaviour within the communities offering new frameworks models from which future researchers can build new knowledge The handbook provides a comprehensive account of an important and fast emerging field of entrepreneurship and is an invaluable resource for students researchers and policymakers

Wellbeing

Anneyce Knight,Vincent La Placa,Allan McNaught,2014-08-15 Wellbeing Policy and Practice details the contemporary research evidence base for health and wellbeing within the global context The concept of wellbeing is currently being explored globally with policy makers debating how to use and measure wellbeing beyond the traditional means that focus upon material and economic indicators This book looks at the contemporary research evidence base and discusses how this improved knowledge can be applied to both healthcare policy and practice It explores and analyses the many different but inter facing arguments around wellbeing and its relevance in the modern world Written by a multi professional group of health and wellbeing academics who have extensive national and international experience across the statutory and non statutory sectors the book is essential reading for healthcare professionals and policy makers looking for a comprehensive and up to date summary of the latest research and practice in the field of wellbeing
