

saying "All the adults burst out laughing" (Jin 84, Ln27), hence proving the fact that the narrator is young.

"Antagonist" is a straight plot used by Ha Jin as a reading pleasure by many readers. Its plot flows smoothly and makes the reader understand the story without inquiring about the outcome. To solve the mystery of knowing the setting of the story, Ha Jin creates circumstances that become meaningful to the reader. He brings out historical setting which consists of social, cultural and political elements to influence the story line. The narrator grandmother explains how such behaviors were punished in the old times.

The story is derived from the thought of an innocent, naïve boy, Nicknamed white cat. Ha Jin portrays it when the Chinese woman stands up for her sexuality with a self-awakening feminist consciousness through untainted and authentic. The first turning point was when Mu Ying started confessing after being questioned about her crimes of adultery with the three men. Mu comes to a point where she describes her sexual need and explains the feeling of wanting a man to hold her with his strong arm very comprehensive. Bare Hips mother confronts her and tells her that she has a husband who does not lack a leg or an arm and therefore it is wrong to want another man. Mu Ying explains "He always comes before I feel anything" (Jin 84, Ln 26). The naïve narrator could not understand even after Bare Hips explained the phrase.

Ha Jin story concerns a moral issue through straight characterization of an active character of a married woman named Mu and her husband Meng. The community thinks Mu is a prostitute since she engaged sexual activities with men for money and Red guards were to punish her. In this story, her husband, Meng Su has a static character. Meng tried to protect his wife
