Modernity in East-West Literary Criticism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2001 This collection of eleven essays concerns the movement of modernity in East West literary criticism Most of the contributions address particular cross cultural relationships such as W B Yeats's interest in the noh play Ezra Pound's imagism and the influence of Zen aesthetics on Western poetry The Western writers discussed range from Americans including Emerson Thoreau Faulkner Wright and Snyder to Europeans such as Marcel Proust The Eastern writers include Basho Tanizaki Lao Tzu Wan Wei Tagore and Yone Noguchi Poetry's Nature Susan Stewart, 2025-02-09 How is poetry a living art This is the question at the heart of Poetry's Nature Although it is common to speak of nature poetry Stewart contends that the essential nature of poetry is bound up with the natural world by looking to nature we can better understand poetry and in turn our own situation within nature The study draws on contemporary physics and philosophy to argue that all beings and all matter are enmeshed in relations to one another and that such processural relations can help us to think about poetry as an ever arriving ever unfinished art Based on Stewart's 2023 Clarendon Lectures in English at the University of Oxford the volume's four chapters explore four paradigms that illuminate poetry's relation to other natural phenomena the ways poems draw on birdsong to veer between language and sound and hence between semantic density and meaninglessness the experience of seasonality as a paradigm for the lyric's recursive use of time the flows and forms of water as an inspiration for the enactment and depiction of motion and rest in poems and finally the vast domain of the imperceptible as a resource for the imagination Her examples range from medieval lyrics to Modernism Poems are events that are felt in time rather than being merely cognized rewarding of our attention like the natural world experienced like the weather in our bodies By reframing poetry in its relation to nature Poetry's Nature hopes to reframe our relation to the world in which we live a task that is of ever greater urgency Haiku, Haiga Elizabeth L.
