Vv., 2014-12-19 T00:00:00+01:00 After the digital turn expansion of sexual representations has taken shape quantitatively thanks to the multiplication of production and distribution channels and qualitatively giving rise to a plurality of new representational forms In this context several social groups including women and non normative sexual subcultures have obtained full citizenship rights within the pornosphere moving beyond their traditional marginalization or indeed exclusion These nonconventional pornographies exist in a dialectical relationship with mainstream production in so far as they are at the same time a development and a repudiation of the latter on an aesthetic economic and political level This volume investigates the emergences of alternative pornographies highlighting their discursive heterogeneity their cultural status and connections to identities and non normative practices and their role in redefining the very idea of pornography The publication maps the main areas relating to alternative pornographies such as alt porn queer pornography indie porn post porn feminist pornography and amateur porn With a foreword by Feona Attwood Barbara Hammer in the Seventies Krystyna Mazur, 2025-01-13 Barbara Hammer in the Seventies Or What a Body Can Do addresses the intersection of experimental film lesbian sexuality and the women's movement in Hammer's early films Grounded in an embodied sexual and gendered positionality these films interrogate the politics of visibility and identity and perform a discontinuous repertoire of lesbian images that resist the medium of film's established constraints and the decade's broader systems of signification Hammer's films offer a critique of the dominant discourse that privileges the discreteness and self sufficiency of the individualistic human subject By performing the lesbian body in its environment in erotic and communal relation to other bodies and staging the relation of human bodies with the materiality of non human beings and objects they create a site of intervention into the humanist project as it informs film studies feminism and queer theory This rereading of Hammer's work offers an important contribution to conversations between feminism and queer studies In remembering the feminist origins of queer studies it recenters political and ethical questions such as the fundamental relationality of the subject the subject's dependency on others and the resulting ethical responsibility for and towards the other

2014 What they all have in common is the discussion of new aspects and approaches of how philosophy relates to film Whether by philosophizing through concrete examples of films or whether looking at film s ontological reliance on time and image or its intra active entanglement with reality or truth this book explores grasp film s nature philosophically and provides new insights for the film philosopher and the filmmaker as well as for the freshman fascinated by film for philosophical reasons New Queer Cinema B.
