Poland in the Single Market Anna Visvizi, Anna Matysek-Jędrych, Katarzyna Mroczek-Dąbrowska, 2020-10-21 By all accounts the case of Poland and its segue to market economy and democracy is a success story 30 years of uninterrupted growth and development infrastructure expansion and modernization of the economy and society Epochal changes have unfolded in a timespan of merely three decades Change has taken place so fast that children born in late 1980s and onwards cannot remember what life in Poland under communism was like and cannot relate to it Also many elderly people easy victims of romanticizing their own youth tend to forget As a result the uniqueness of Polish transition and transformation the boldness and efficiency of reforms and the success that Polish society mastered together tend to be undermined today both domestically and internationally Poland has now been a member of the EU for more than 15 years During that time Poland's image on the EU scene evolved from newcomer through model child champion of growth to in some respects a maverick This volume's objective is to remind society old and young researchers scholars and practitioners that Poland's success is an outcome of well thought out and bold structural reforms implemented in a swift and timely manner of society's support for these reforms and of third actors benign assistance Looking back on the 30 years since the collapse of communism and at the over 15 years of EU membership this book offers an interdisciplinary comprehensive and critical insight into factors and processes that have led to today's Poland

At Risk of Deprivation Jonas Bergmann, 2023-10-19 This open access book examines how and why various forms of climate im mobilities can impact people's objective and subjective well being Worsening climate impacts are forcing subsistence farmers worldwide to decide between staying or leaving their homes This mixed methods study analyzes cases of climate related migration displacement relocation and immobility in Peru's coastal highland and rainforest regions The results reveal that numerous farmers experienced profound and often negative well being impacts regardless of whether they stayed or migrated The higher the structural constraints such as weak governance and the more damaging the climate impacts were the higher the risk of well being declines Additionally the affected individuals often had limited agency and ability to mitigate losses These findings challenge the notion of migration as adaptation and emphasize the importance of safeguarding the human rights and security of those affected while addressing loss and damage Without significant investments in such efforts climate impacts could sharply diminish the well being of numerous subsistence farmers worldwide irrespective of whether they stay or migrate

Knowledge Partnering for Community Development Robyn Eversole, 2014-10-17 Effective community development means that many different stakeholders have to work together governments development organizations and NGOs and most importantly the people they serve Knowledge Partnering for Community Development teaches community development professionals how to mediate community needs and development agendas to make community based solutions for development challenges Based on the newest research in community and global development Eversole shows readers a strong research and theoretically based framework for understanding local development processes and gives them the skills to turn this into cutting edge practice Each chapter features global case studies of innovative community state partnerships and practical application exercises and strategies for professionals looking to bring new approaches to their research Knowledge Partnering for Community Development is essential for community workers and students of community development looking to bridge the gap between research insight and best practice between community actors

Institutional Change and Power Asymmetry in the Context of Rural India Amar Patnaik, 2018-10-08 This book explains how to bring about institutional change and foster new institutional structures institution building by resolving power inequities in a rural ecosystem in India and advocates the identification of an appropriate institutional champion to make this happen The book develops a power asymmetry based framework and argues that a champion with the right attributes and the ability to convene people over a social issue can only succeed if he she can resolve or reduce the deep rooted societal power asymmetries within that community It also presents four case studies that indicate how such social change is typically spread over a long period of time American Book Publishing Record ,2006
