The Politics of Haunting and Memory in International Relations Jessica Auchter, 2014-03-21 International Relations has traditionally focused on conflict and war but the effects of violence including dead bodies and memorialization practices have largely been considered beyond the purview of the field Drawing on Jacques Derrida s notion of hauntology to consider the politics of life and death Auchter traces the story of how life and death and a clear division between the two is summoned in the project of statecraft She argues that by letting ourselves be haunted or looking for ghosts it is possible to trace how statecraft relies on the construction of such a dichotomy Three empirical cases offer fertile ground for complicating the picture often painted of memorialization Rwandan genocide memorials the underexplored case of undocumented immigrants who die crossing the US Mexico border and the body ruins nexus in 9 11 memorialization Focusing on the role of dead bodies and the construction of particular spaces as the appropriate sites for memory to be situated it offers an alternative take on the new materialisms movement in international relations by asking after the questions that arise from an ethnographic approach to the subject viewing things from the perspective of dead bodies who occupy the shadowy world of post conflict international politics This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical international relations security studies statecraft and memory studies      Writing Migration through the Body Emma Bond, 2018-09-05 Writing Migration through the Body builds a study of the body as a mutable site for negotiating and articulating the transnational experience of mobility At its core stands a selection of recent migration stories in Italian which are brought into dialogue with related material from cultural studies and the visual arts Occupying no single disciplinary space and drawing upon an elaborate theoretical framework ranging from phenomenology to anthropology human geography and memory studies this volume explores the ways in which the skin itself operates as a border and brings to the surface the processes by which a sense of place and self are described and communicated through the migrant body Through investigating key concepts and practices of transnational embodied experience the book develops the interpretative principle that the individual bodies which move in contemporary migration flows are the primary agents through which the transcultural passages of images emotions ideas memories and also histories and possible futures are enacted      Forensic Science and Humanitarian Action Roberto C. Parra, Sara C. Zapico, Douglas H. Ubelaker, 2020-01-28 Widens traditional concepts of forensic science to include humanitarian social and cultural aspects Using the preservation of the dignity of the deceased as its foundation Forensic Science and Humanitarian Action Interacting with the Dead and the Living is a unique examination of the applications of humanitarian forensic science Spanning two comprehensive volumes the text is sufficiently detailed for forensic practitioners yet accessible enough for non specialists and discusses both the latest technologies and real world interactions Arranged into five sections this book addresses the management of the dead across five major areas in humanitarian forensic science Volume One presents the first three of these areas History Theory Practice and Legal Foundation Basic Forensic Information to Trace Missing Persons and Stable Isotopes Forensics Topics covered include Protection of The Missing and the Dead Under International Law Social Cultural and Religious Factors in Humanitarian Forensic Science Posthumous Dignity and the Importance in Returning Remains of the Deceased The New Disappeared Migration and Forensic Science Stable Isotope Analysis in Forensic Anthropology Volume Two covers two further areas of interest DNA Analysis and the Forensic Identification Process It concludes with a comprehensive set of case studies focused on identifying the deceased and finding missing persons from around the globe including Forensic Human Identification from an Australian Perspective Skeletal Remains and Identification Processing at the FBI Migrant Deaths along the Texas Mexico Border Humanitarian Work in Cyprus by The Committee on Missing Persons CMP Volc n De Fuego Eruption Natural Disaster Response from Guatemala Drawing upon a wide range of contributions from respected academics working in the field Forensic Science and Humanitarian Action is a unique reference for forensic practitioners communities of humanitarian workers human rights defenders and government and non governmental officials      Deviant Maternity Angela Joy Muir, 2020-02-17 This is the first ever book to explore illegitimacy in Wales during the eighteenth century Drawing on previously overlooked archival sources it examines the scope and context of Welsh illegitimacy and the link between illegitimacy courtship and economic precarity It also goes beyond courtship to consider the different identities and relationships of the mothers and fathers of illegitimate children in Wales and the lived experience of conception pregnancy and childbirth for unmarried mothers This book reframes the study of illegitimacy by combining demographic social and cultural history approaches to emphasise the diversity of experiences contexts and consequences
