Creese James De Mille He had a face of rather unusual appearance and an air which in England is usually considered foreign His features were regular a straight nose wide brow thin lips and square massive chin His complexion was olive and his eyes were of a dark hazel color with a peculiarity about them which is not usually seen in the eye of the Teutonic or Celtic race but is sometimes found among the people of the south of Europe or in the East It is difficult to find a name for this peculiarity It may be seen sometimes in the gipsy sometimes in the more successful among those who call themselves spiritual mediums or among the more powerful mesmerizers Such an eye belonged to Napoleon Bonaparte whose glance at times could make the boldest and greatest among his marshals quail What is it Magnetism Or the revelation of the soul Or what You ve not been long away this time I remarked as I finished my soup forgetting momentarily Carnacki s dislike of being asked even to skirt the borders of his story until such time as he was ready Then he would not stint words That s all he replied with brevity and I changed the subject remarking that I had been buying a new gun to which piece of news he gave an intelligent nod and a smile which I think showed a genuinely good humoured appreciation of my intentional changing of the conversation

Through by Daylight: The Young

Engineer of the Lake Shore Railroad Oliver Optic,2020-09-28 Mr Waddie Wimpleton an elegant young gentleman of fifteen by all odds the nicest young man in Centreport was firing at a mark with a revolver It was a very beautiful revolver too silver mounted richly chased and highly polished in all its parts discharging six shots at each revolution not often at the target in the unskilful hands of Mr Waddie but sometimes near enough to indicate what the marksman was shooting at Even the target was quite an elaborate affair and though Mr Waddie had been shooting at it for a week it was hardly damaged by the trial to which it had been subjected It was two feet in diameter having in its centre a tolerably correct resemblance of one of the optics of a bovine masculine and this enigma being literally interpreted meant the bull s eye which Mr Waddie was expected to hit or at least to try to hit Around it were several circles in black red yellow green and blue each indicating a certain distance from the objective point of the shooter There were a few holes in the target within these circles but the central eye was not put out and still glared defiance at the ambitious marksman Mr Waddie Wimpleton had everything he wanted and therefore never wanted anything he had There was no end to the ponies sail boats row boats guns pistols fishing rods and other sporting gear which came into his possession and of which he soon became weary His father was as rich as an East Indian prince and Mr Waddie being an only son though there were two daughters who partially put his nose out of joint his paternal parent had labored industriously to spoil the child from babyhood I am forced to acknowledge that he succeeded even better than he intended Mr Waddie was always waiting and watching for a new sensation A magnificent kite of party colored silk had evidently occupied his attention during the earlier hours of the morning and it now lay neglected on the ground the line stretched off in the direction of the lake The young gentleman had become tired of the plaything and when I approached him he was blazing away at the target with the revolver at the rate of six shots in three seconds I halted at a respectful distance from the marksman He was not shooting at me but I regarded this as the very reason why he would be likely to hit me If he had been aiming at me I should have approached him with more confidence Keeping well in the rear of the young gentleman I came within hailing distance of him I did not belong to the upper ten of Centreport and I could not be said to be familiarly acquainted with him My father was the engineer in his father s steam flouring mills and a person of my humble connections was of no account in his estimation But I am forced to confess that I had not that awe and respect for Mr Waddie which wealth and a lofty social position demand of the humble classes I had the audacity to approach the young scion of an influential house and it was audacious considered in reference to his pistol if not to his social position
