Mohr,2005-06-15 Literary critics and scholars have written extensively on the demise of the utopian spirit in the modern novel What has often been overlooked is the emergence of a new hybrid subgenre particularly in science fiction and fantasy which incorporates utopian strategies within the dystopian narrative particularly in the feminist dystopias of the 1980s and 1990s The author names this new subgenre transgressive utopian dystopias Suzette Haden Elgin s Native Tongue trilogy Suzy McKee Charna s Holdfast series and Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale are thoroughly analyzed within the context of this this new subgenre of transgressive utopian dystopias Analysis focuses particularly on how these works cover the interrelated categories of gender race and class along with their relationship to classic literary dualism and the dystopian narrative Without completely dissolving the dualistic order the feminist dystopias studied here contest the notions of unambiguity and authenticity that are generally part of the canon Side Dishes Melissa

Materialisms and Environmental Education David A. G. Clarke, Jamie McPhie, 2023-07-24 New materialisms refers to a broad contemporary and significant movement of thought across the social sciences and cultural studies which attempts to return to renew or create alternative philosophies of matter. Such philosophies spring from multiple sources but are in general an attempt to bring the indissolubility of the social and environmental more forcefully into our analytical frames and modes of inquiry and tackle a perceived over reliance on discourse and language in the so called post modern era of philosophy and social science. This movement in thought is underlaid by and meets up with the climate and biodiversity crises and the nature of the human condition and modes of learning or becoming within the field of environmental education. This volume brings together academics working at differing intersections of environmental education and new materialisms highlighting tensions, knots and lines of flight across and for research practice and theory. As such, this collection draws on multiple interpretations and streams of thought within new materialisms and demonstrates their significance for those engaging with environmental education policy practice and research. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Environmental Education Research.
