Alternative Comics Charles Hatfield, 2009-11-12 In the 1980s a sea change occurred in comics Fueled by Art Spiegelman and Francoise Mouly s avant garde anthology Raw and the launch of the Love Rockets series by Gilbert Jaime and Mario Hernandez the decade saw a deluge of comics that were more autobiographical emotionally realistic and experimental than anything seen before These alternative comics were not the scatological satires of the 1960s underground nor were they brightly colored newspaper strips or superhero comic books In Alternative Comics An Emerging Literature Charles Hatfield establishes the parameters of alternative comics by closely examining long form comics in particular the graphic novel He argues that these are fundamentally a literary form and offers an extensive critical study of them both as a literary genre and as a cultural phenomenon Combining sharp eyed readings and illustrations from particular texts with a larger understanding of the comics as an art form this book discusses the development of specific genres such as autobiography and history Alternative Comics analyzes such seminal works as Spiegelman s Maus Gilbert Hernandez s Palomar The Heartbreak Soup Stories and Justin Green s Binky Brown Meets the Holy Virgin Mary Hatfield explores how issues outside of cartooning the marketplace production demands work schedules can affect the final work Using Hernandez's Palomar as an example he shows how serialization may determine the way a cartoonist structures a narrative In a close look at Maus Binky Brown and Harvey Pekar's American Splendor Hatfield teases out the complications of creating biography and autobiography in a substantially visual medium and shows how creators approach these issues in radically different ways International Journal of Comic Art, 2009 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 The Comics Journal, 1990 Comic Book Collections for Libraries Bryan D.
