Childs Jr., 2021-06-08 Aging and Loving Christian Faith and Sexuality in Later Life aims to address the social ethical physical and spiritual issues related to sexuality and aging The book is written for various professionals who minister to the aged pastors chaplains other care providers for the aging and aged themselves and for their families The focus is on people sixty five years old and older This is the age group whose sexuality is most vulnerable to being dismissed by those around them It is also the age group that experiences new challenges to their sexual lives as age brings physical and sometimes psychological changes as well as changes in living circumstances To be human is to be sexual Undermining or failing to appreciate that fact in older age can be hurtful Regarding the diminishments of aging as the end of sexuality and therefore the dissipation of fully meaningful life is a critical dimension of ageism To understand the realities of sexuality in later life and the choices older adults face along with providing a theological and ethical account that affirms their sexuality as integral to their humanity and vocation in later life is a curb against ageism and provides much needed information to the aged the aging and their families Equipping those who care for the aging and minister to them is essential The book seeks to enable those related to the aged to have a deeper respect for their sexuality and thus their dignity and to provide an ethical account of Christian love that liberates as it engages the special issues of sexuality in later life A Companion to Public Theology, 2017-01-23 Winner of the 2017

Compassion in Healthcare Joshua Hordern, 2020-10-30 Compassion in Healthcare gives an account of the nature and content of compassion and its role in healthcare While compassion appears to be a straightforward aspect of life and practice Hordern's analysis shows that it is plagued by both conceptual and practical ills and stands in need of some quite specific kinds of therapy Starting from a diagnosis of what precisely is wrong with compassion its debilitating political entanglements the vagueness of its meaning and the risk of burnout it threatens three therapies are prescribed for these ills an understanding of patients and healthcare workers as those who pass through the life course encountering each other as wayfarers and pilgrims a grasp of the nature of compassion in healthcare and an embedding of healthcare within the realities of civic life Applying these therapeutic strategies uncovers how compassionate relationships acquire their content in healthcare practice The form that compassion takes is shown to depend on how doctrines of time tragedy salvation responsibility fault and theodicy make a difference to the quality of people's lives and relationships Drawing on the author's real world collaborations the way in which compassion matters to practice and policy is worked out in the detail of healthcare professionalism marketization and technology Covering everything from conception to old age and from machine learning to religious diversity Compassion in Healthcare draws on philosophy theology and everyday experience to expand our understanding of what compassion means for healthcare practice

Bonhoeffer and the Responsibility for a Coming Generation Robert Vosloo, Teddy Sakupapa, Karola Radler, Ashwin Thyssen, 2024-07-25 This volume draws together a selection of high quality presentations at the 13th International Bonhoeffer Congress held in January 2020 in Stellenbosch South Africa The theme of the conference was How a coming generation is to go on living Bonhoeffer and the response to our present crisis and hope The selected essays engage thoroughly and creatively with this concern to take responsibility not only for our own personal and communal life in all of its complexity and richness but also for the ethos and society that future generations will inherit from us The pertinence of Bonhoeffer's question is addressed in these contributions anew as we experience threats on a global level to socio-political-economic and inter-religious stability and solidarity. Attention is also given to some important challenges experienced in the so-called global South and the reality of climate change and ecological devastation implies that the question of how future generations are going to go on living is linked to the fact that we live on a planet that is in jeopardy. Also included as an appendix is the powerful sermon preached by the South African Anglican archbishop of Cape Town Thabo Makgoba at the opening worship service of the congress.

Meaning and Aging Joachim Duyndam, Anja Machiels, 2024-04-27 The main objective of this book is to add from a humanist perspective new interdisciplinary insights and research results to the current academic debate on aging. The collection aims to enhance and complement the predominantly biomedical and sociological debates and provide a more comprehensive and highly topical view on aging and old age. By purveying a meaning in life perspective to the current debate we want to enrich and to deepen the research on aging thus aspiring to an ideal of meaningful aging. The starting point of this book is a humanistic meaning frame for addressing basic needs of a meaningful existence such as having goals in life, a sense of self-worth, connectedness with others, moral justification, a certain degree of understanding, comprehensibility, direction and influence with a view to cohesion in life and not in the least place living pleasure or excitement. Taken together the essays show that experiencing a meaningful life contributes to one's mental resilience conceived as the ability to realize a humane individuality, autonomy in thinking and acting in situations of adversity and vulnerability particularly those faced by older people.
