Luminous The Spiritual Life On Film:

Luminous Mike King, 2018-06-19 This book is a comprehensive survey of religion and spirituality on film covering both popular and arthouse movies. It seeks spiritual and moral depth finding filmic examples across the world's faiths and sometimes in surprising places where religion has no obvious presence. Over 400 films are drawn on to shed light on issues that confront us in the serious pursuit of spirituality culminating in the sixty must see films for the spiritual life. The examination of spiritual and religious questions is divided across twelve categories: Spiritual Aesthetics, Nature and the Romantic, The Esoteric, the New Age and Neoplatonism, Dying, Suicide and Bereavement, Ghosts, Angels and the Afterlife, Reincarnation and Resurrection, Spiritual Chaos and Rubber Reality, Wisdom, Teachers and Disciples, Priests, Monks, Nuns and Spiritual Community, Spiritual Practice, Discipline and the Martial Arts, Violence, Compassion, Forgiveness and Atonement, East vs West, Secular vs Spiritual. 100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15 Spiritual themes are common in movies. The unconventional savior, The hero's journey, The redemption tale, The balance of creation. Journalist John A. Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema, discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty, from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more. See them all, read them all before you die.

The Afterlife in Popular Culture Kevin O'Neill, 2022-06-17 The Afterlife in Popular Culture: Heaven, Hell, and the Underworld in the American Imagination gives students a fresh look at how Americans view the afterlife, helping readers understand how it is depicted in popular culture. What happens to us when we die? The book seeks to explore how that question has been answered in American popular culture. It begins with five framing essays that provide historical and intellectual background on ideas about the afterlife in Western culture. These essays are followed by more than 100 entries, each focusing on specific cultural products or authors that feature the afterlife front and center. Entry topics include novels, film, television, shows, plays, works of nonfiction, graphic novels, and more, all of which address some aspect of what may await us after our passing. This book is unique in marrying a historical overview of the afterlife with detailed analyses of particular cultural products such as films and novels. In addition, it covers these topics in nonspecialist language written with a student audience in mind. The book provides historical context for contemporary depictions of the afterlife addressed in the entries, which deal specifically with work produced in the 20th and 21st centuries.

Transcendence and Spirituality in Japanese Cinema Melissa Croteau, 2022-11-14 This book explores significant representations of Shinto and Buddhist sacred space, spiritual symbols, and religious concepts that are embedded in the secular framework of Japanese films aimed at general audiences in Japan and globally. These cinematic masterpieces by directors Akira Kurosawa, Hayao Miyazaki, Hirokazu Koreeda, and Makoto Shinkai operate as expressions of and potentially catalysts for transcendence of various kinds, particularly during the Heisei era (1989-2019) when Japan experienced severe economic hardship and devastating natural disasters. The book's approach to aesthetics and religion employs the multifaceted concepts of ma (structuring intervals), liminal space, time, emptiness, sky, mono no aware.

compassionate sensibility resigned sadness and musubi generative interconnection examining the dynamic evolving nature of these ancient principles that are at once spiritual aesthetic and philosophical Scholars and enthusiasts of Japanese cinema live action and anime religion and film cinematic aesthetics and the relationship between East Asian religions and the arts will find fresh perspectives on these in this book which moves beyond conventional notions of transcendental style and essentialized approaches to the multivalent richness of Japanese aesthetics

Lars von Trier's Women Rex Butler, David Denny, 2016-11-17 The Danish director Lars von Trier is undoubtedly one of the world's most important and controversial filmmakers and arguably so because of the depiction of women in his films He has been criticized for subjecting his female characters to unacceptable levels of violence or reducing them to masochistic self abnegation as with Bess in Breaking the Waves She in Antichrist and Joe in Nymphomaniac At other times it is the women in his films who are dominant or break out in violence as in his adaptation of Euripides Medea the conclusion of Dogville and perhaps throughout Nymphomaniac Lars von Trier's Women confronts these dichotomies head on Editors Rex Butler and David Denny do not take a position either for or against von Trier but rather consider how both attitudes fall short of the real difficulty of his films which may simply not conform to any kind of feminist or indeed anti feminist politics as they are currently configured Using Lacanian psychoanalysis and acknowledging the work of prior scholars on the films Lars von Trier's Women reveals hidden resources for a renewed feminist politics and social practice

Bodies in Pain Tarja Laine, 2017-04 The films of Darren Aronofsky invite emotional engagement by means of affective resonance between the film and the spectator's lived body Aronofsky's films which include a rich range of production from Requiem for a Dream to Black Swan are often considered cerebral because they explore topics like mathematics madness hallucinations obsessions social anxiety addiction psychosis schizophrenia and neuroscience Yet this interest in intelligence and mental processes is deeply embedded in the operations of the body shared with the spectator by means of a distinctively corporeal audiovisual style Bodies in Pain looks at how Aronofsky's films engage the spectator in an affective form of viewing that involves all the senses ultimately engendering a process of self reflection through their emotional dynamics

Deleuze and the Gynesis of Horror Sunny Hawkins, 2020-10-01 Applying Deleuze's schizoanalytic techniques to film theory Deleuze and the Gynesis of Horror demonstrates how an embodied approach to horror film analysis can help us understand how film affects its viewers and distinguish those films which reify static hegemonic molar beings from those which prompt fluid nonbinary molecular becomings It does so by analyzing the politics of reproduction in contemporary films such as Ex Machina Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Mad Max Fury Road the Twilight saga and the original Alien quadrilogy and its more recent prequels Prometheus and Alien Covenant Author Sunny Hawkins argues that films which promote a monstrous philosophy of qualitative affirmative difference as difference in itself and which tend to be more molecular than molar in their expressions can help us trace a line of flight from the gender binary in the real world Deleuze and the Gynesis of Horror demonstrates how the techniques of horror film editing sound and visual effects lighting and colour camera movement work in tandem with a film's content to affect the viewer's body in ways that disrupt the sense of self as a whole unified subject with a stable monolithic identity and in some cases can serve to breakdown the binary between self Other as we come to realize that we are none of us static categorizable beings but are as Henri Bergson said living things constantly becoming

Polish Cinema in a Transnational Context Ewa Mazierska, Michael Goddard, 2014 The opening up of Poland economically and politically to global influences after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 coupled with the rise of transnational approaches to the study of film presents ideal conditions for examining Polish cinema from a transnational vantage point Yet not only have studies of Polish cinema remained largely within a national framework but Polish cinema as well as many other Eastern European cinemas has been virtually excluded from new research in transnational cinema Polish cinema in a transnational context addresses this lacuna in film studies offering extended analysis of this national cinema's global influence

Contributors assess the reception of Polish films in Europe and North America Polish international coproductions the presence of Polish performers in foreign films and the works of subversive migr auteurs like Andrzej u awski and Walerian Borowczyk The collection presents familiar films and filmmakers in a new and revealing light while also focusing on lesser known filmmakers and aspects of Polish cinema The resulting volume moves the discussion beyond the border of Polish national belonging Film News ,1980
