Lydia Narrates Collection Spontaneous Stories:

Lydia Narrates Lydia Findlay, 2015-11-25 Hark The rapturous fountain of a child's mind doth rain upon us But seriously because they were transcribed at the time of their conception these kid stories are genuinely squeezed from the author's brain Other than the presumptuous insertion of punctuation they are presented here in their original form unedited and unadulterated As a bonus this edition concludes with Lydia's a collection of the author's quippy epiphanies El Monte Lydia Cabrera, 2023-04-24 First published in Cuba in 1954 and appearing here in English for the first time Lydia Cabrera's El Monte is a foundational and iconic study of Afro-Cuban religious and cultural traditions Drawing on conversations with elderly Afro-Cuban priests who were one or two generations away from the transatlantic slave trade Cabrera combines ethnography history folklore literature and botany to provide a panoramic account of the multifaceted influence of Afro-Atlantic cultures in Cuba Cabrera details the natural and spiritual landscape of the Cuban monte forest wilderness and discusses hundreds of herbs and the constellations of deities sacred rites and knowledge that envelop them The result is a complex spiritual and medicinal architecture of Afro-Cuban cultures This new edition of what is often referred to as the Santería Bible includes a new foreword introduction and translator notes As a seminal work in the study of the African diaspora that has profoundly impacted numerous fields Cabrera's magnum opus is essential for scholars activists and religious devotees of Afro-Cuban traditions alike Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gay Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant-garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting
