Lyric Novella Seagull S The Swiss List:

Lyric Novella Annemarie Schwarzenbach,2011 Annemarie Schwarzenbach journalist novelist antifascist archaeologist and traveller has become a European cult figure for bohemian free spirits since the rediscovery of her works in the late 1980s Lyric Novella is her story of a young man s obsession for a Berlin vari t actress Despite having his future career mapped out for him in the diplomatic service the young man begins to question all his family values under Sibylle's spell His family future and social standing become irrelevant when set against his overriding compulsion to pick her up every night from the theatre so they can go for a drive Schwarzenbach's clear psychologically acute prose makes this novella an evocative narrative with many intriguing parallels to her own life In fact she admitted after publication that her hero was a young woman not a man leaving little doubt that Lyric Novella is a literary tale of lesbian love during socially and politically turbulent times
