Cuba Puede Ser Independiente. Cuba May Become Independent. A Political Pamphlet Bearing Upon Current Events ... Translated from the Spanish by C. Kirchhoff José Ferrer de Couto,1872

The Last Language on Earth Piers Kelly, 2021-12-31 The Last Language on Earth is an ethnographic history of the disputed Eskayan language spoken today by an isolated upland community living on the island of Bohol in the southern Philippines After Eskaya people were first discovered in 1980 visitors described the group as a lost tribe preserving a unique language and writing system Others argued that the Eskaya were merely members of a utopian rural cult who had invented their own language and script Rather than adjudicating outsider polemics this book engages directly with the language itself as well as the direct perspectives of those who use it today Through written and oral accounts Eskaya people have represented their language as an ancestral creation derived from a human body Reinforcing this traditional view Piers Kelly s linguistic analysis shows how a complex new register was brought into being by fusing new vocabulary onto a modified local grammar In a synthesis of linguistic ethnographic and historical evidence a picture emerges of a coastal community that fled the ravages of the U S invasion of the island in 1901 in order to build a utopian society in the hills Here they predicted that the world's languages would decline leaving Eskayan as the last language on earth Marshalling anthropological theories of nationalism authenticity and language ideology along with comparisons to similar events across highland Southeast Asia Kelly offers a convincing account of this linguistic mystery and also shows its broader relevance to linguistic anthropology Although the Eskayan situation is unusual it has the power to illuminate the pivotal role that language plays in the pursuit of identity building and political resistance Negotiating Sainthood Kathy Bacon, 2017-12-02 This study demonstrates the previously unrecognised significance of discourses of saintliness for constructions of gender and national identity in late nineteenth and early twentieth century Spanish culture a Kathy Bacons innovative approach to sainthood leads to fresh readings of texts by Spains three principal realist novelists La familia de Leon Roch and Nazarin Benito Perez Galdos 1878 and 1895 La Regenta Leopoldo Alas 1884 85 and Dulce dueno Emilia Pardo Bazan 1911 a The author challenges the conventional distinction between anti clerical and spiritual novels by these writers and questions previous feminist assumptions about the negative role of religion for female identity aSainthood emerges as a key theme through which texts grapple with Spains difficult transition to modernity
