Mission Rift David E. Woolverton, 2021 There are two types of conflict in congregations conflict that kills and conflict that cultivates growth So argues David E Woolverton in Mission Rift Leading through Church Conflict Conflict that kills that damages or destroys teams ministries missions vibrancy occurs when we as the people of God forget who we are why we re here and where we re going in carrying out the divine mission Conflict that cultivates growth often begins with the same scenarios but leaders see conflict as a context for learning how to live together as a people called to transform their neighborhoods schools and workplaces In Mission Rift Woolverton reorients our view of congregational conflict In part 1 he examines conflict from a theological and ecclesiological framework exploring why it is essential to discipleship and mission In part 2 he presents six principles of missional leadership challenging pastors and other leaders to define themselves within the frameworks of spiritual formation and family systems and then to create environments that facilitate growth in faith communities Rather than resolve conflict too quickly Woolverton explains lest we inadvertently sabotage the potential it has to draw a congregation toward spiritual growth wise leaders recognize that a lack of conflict may be a symptom of missional decline rather than congregational unity When the church pursues its divine mission first conflict may become essential for defining its mission priorities Successfully leading through conflict toward a transformative end will empower a congregation s witness within its community and beyond

Imagining Mission with John V. Taylor Jonny Baker, Cathy Ross, 2020-08-30 The impact that John V Taylor had on our contemporary understanding of mission is vast his determination that mission should mean engagement across cultural boundaries has deep resonance today In Imagining Mission with John V Taylor leading missional thinkers Jonny Baker and Cathy Ross invite us into a vision of church mission and society which takes John Taylor's ideas seriously seeking to imagine what Taylor's insights might mean for these three areas in our contemporary context. This open access book brings together works by specialists from different disciplines and continents to reflect on the nexus between leadership, spirituality and discernment particularly with regard to a world that is increasingly volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous VUCA. The book spells out first of all what our VUCA world entails and how it affects businesses, organizations and societies as a whole. Secondly, the book develops new perspectives on the processes of leadership, spirituality and discernment particularly in this VUCA context. These perspectives are interdisciplinary in nature and are informed by e.g. management studies, leadership theory, philosophy and theology.

How to Lead and Still Have a Life H. Dale Burke, Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06. This book is about leadership: a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church. It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women's perspectives. The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership: theologically profound, practically relevant and historically timely. This volume, a product of a collaborative process between academia and church, promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society. Mission without Conquest Willis Horst, Ute Paul, Frank Paul, 2015-07-14. Almost sixty years ago the Mennonite missionary team working in the Argentine Chaco decided to look for ways to be effective in their ministry while being faithful to Jesus' lifestyle and teaching. They left behind paternalistic models and conquering methods and were liberated from the mindset of forming a denominational church. As a result, they found an alternative missionary style of walking alongside those they worked with, giving priority to the integrity of the local people. Mission Without Conquest is a historical narrative of how the Toba Qom people of the Argentine Chaco followed Jesus' way from the time of their conversion until the formation of an autochthonous church. This book embodies a new way to approach the church's missionary task: a way that makes the mission of Jesus Christ the paradigm for Christian mission until his return. Leadership Mosaic Daniel Montgomery, Jared Kennedy, 2016-10-13. There's a leadership crisis in the church. Every leadership model claims to have all the answers to the challenges of leadership. Each perspective emphasizes certain qualities and we search desperately for answers in the absence of clear direction. But there's no simple leadership formula that meets every need we have in life and ministry. Challenging the conventional wisdom about what makes for a good leader, Daniel Montgomery calls us to a countercultural perspective on leadership rooted in our Creator He presents a new framework for leadership not just a beckoning to further pragmatism relentless productivity or a reactionary cultural fad He helps us see leadership as a mosaic of five characteristics conviction creativity courage collaboration and contemplation reflective of the very image of the triune God Armed with this perspective we will be able to see strive after and celebrate the great and complex vision of leadership God has called us to for the flourishing of our homes churches and workplaces
