

To the chief musician: A Psalm of David.

(1) What was David like a hard heart?
To a trusting person the advice of others to flee becomes almost an insult which implies lack of faith in God.

* Psalm 11 - Psalm reflects some crises in which David was advised to flee because of the attack of the wicked. His response is to declare that the Lord is greater than the dangers from men.

Psalm 11:1-7

1 In the Lord I take refuge; how can you say to my soul, "Be like a bird to your mountain";

2 for behold, the wicked bend the bow; they have fitted their arrow to the string to shoot in the dark at the upright in heart;

3 if the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

4 The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord there, is in heaven, his eyes see, his eyelids test the children of man.

5 The Lord tests the righteous, but his soul hates
the wicked and the one who loves violence.

6 Let him rain coals on the wicked; fire and a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the Lord is righteous; he loves righteous deeds; the upright shall behold his face.
