Monika Czekanowska-Gutman,2022-11-07 Although recently more studies have been devoted to the representations of Biblical heroines in modern European art less is known about the contribution to the portrayals of Biblical women by modern Jewish artists This monograph explores why and how heroines of the Scripture Judith Esther and the Shulamite received a particular meaning for acculturated Jewish artists originating from the Polish lands in the last decades of the nineteenth century and the first two decades of the twentieth century It convincingly proves that artworks by Maurycy Gottlieb Wilhem Wachtel Ephraim Moses Lilien Maurycy Minkowski Samuel Hirszenberg and Boris Schatz significantly differed from renderings of contemporary non Jewish artists adopting a Jewish perspective creating complex and psychological portrayals of the heroines inspired by Jewish literature and as well as by historical and cultural phenomena of Jewish revival and the cultural Zionism movement Invisible Enlighteners Federica Francesconi,2021-06-04 Federica Francesconi writes the history of the Jewish merchants who lived and prospered in the northern Italian city of Modena capital city of the Este Duchy during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Her protagonists are men and women who stood out within their communities but who despite their cultural and economic prominence were ghettoized after 1638 Their sociocultural transformation and eventual legal and political integration evolved through a complex dialogue between their Italian and Jewish identities and without the traumatic ruptures or dramatic divides that led to the assimilation and conversion of many Jews elsewhere in Europe In Modena male and female Jewish identities were contoured by both cultural developments internal to the community and engagement with the broader society The study of Lurianic and Cordoverian Kabbalah liturgical and nondevotional Hebrew poetry and Sabbateanism existed alongside interactions with Jesuits converts and inquisitors If Modenese Jewish merchants were absent from the public discourse of the Estes their businesses lives were nevertheless located at the very geographical and economic center of the city They lived in an environment that gave rise to unique forms of Renaissance culture early modern female agency and Enlightenment practice New Jewish ways of performing gender emerged in the seventeenth century giving rise to what could be called an entrepreneurial female community devoted to assisting employing and socializing in the ghetto Indeed the ghetto leadership prepared both Jewish men and women for the political and legal emancipation they would eventually obtain under Napoleon It was the cultured Modenese merchants who combined active participation in the political struggle for Italian Jewish emancipation with the creation of a special form of the Enlightenment embedded in scholarly and French oriented lay culture that emerged within the European context Jewish Book World ,2006 The Art Bulletin ,2004 Includes section Notes and reviews
