Growing Up Hollywood Tara Botel Doherty, 2019-03-20 Hollywood is the land of hopes dreams and make believe. Anything can happen on its tarnished and run down streets especially on the Boulevard in the 1970s. Annie and Gracie sisters aged 7 and 10 live near the Boulevard in the Hollywood Hills. As their mother and father edge toward divorce these two young girls try to make sense of their lives amid their domestic chaos. From the outside on their unfriendly dead end street the picture may look perfect but pictures are often deceiving. Follow these two sisters adventures as they grow up among the famous Hollywood landmarks and learn about life and people. Visit the Boulevard with its tacky and sometimes shady establishments and the patrons who inhabit them. Meet the eccentrics looking for fame and fortune among the stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. This collection of short stories offers a picture of what it was like to grow up in legendary make believe Hollywood. The snapshots are short vignettes recalling businesses that existed for decades along Hollywood Boulevard where its connection to its past glory still existed. This is Hollywood before gentrification and big business development.
