CHAPTER SUMMARIES

1 Brian is 13 years old. He boards a small plane from New York to the Canadian wilderness. While on the plane, he thinks about his parents' recent divorce. He thinks about but does not explain a "secret". He has a hatchet his mom gave him attached to his belt. Suddenly Brian realizes the pilot is having a heart attack and dies. Brian realizes that he is now all alone on the small plane, thousands of feet in the air.

2 Brian tries to use the radio, but loses the signal before he can get any useful information across. He keeps trying the radio. Suddenly the engine on the plane dies, and Brian realizes he will be forced to land it. He points the nose of the plane down and throws up.

3 Brian is convinced that he will not survive the crash. The plane lands on a lake. Water pours into the plane but he is able to survive by unbuckling his seat belt and swimming to land. He passes out from pain and exhaustion.

4 Brian recalls the incident of "the secret". He saw his mom in a strange car, kissing someone who was not his dad. When he wakes up, he can't believe he has survived the crash. He is covered in mosquito bites. Exhausted and in pain, he quickly falls asleep again.

The Hatchet's Blood Marc R. Schloss, 2022-09-20 Winner of the Royal Anthropological Institute's Amaury Talbot Prize for African Anthropology. The ritual complexes of the Eling, a farming people of southern Senegal, embody an elaborate set of prohibitions on social behavior and prescribe the general rules of Eling social organization. Power is distributed and maintained in Eling culture by the concept of Odieng, the hatchet which, as a spirit, acts upon human beings much as an ax does upon a tree, falling from above to punish its victims for transgression. Marc R. Schloss's ethnography of the Eling is a study of the meaning of Odieng's power, explaining why its rules are so essential to the Eling way of life.
