Telling Our Stories of Home Kathy A. Perkins, 2021-12-16 What is home The answer seems obvious But Telling Our Stories of Home an international collection of eleven plays by and about women from Lebanon Haiti Venezuela Uganda Palestine Brazil India UK and the US complicates the answer The answer includes stories as far ranging as enslaved women trying to create a home one by any means necessary and one in the ocean siblings wrestling with their differing devotion to home after their mother's death a family wrestling with the government's refusal to allow the burial of their soldier son in their hometown a young scholar attempting to feel at home after studying abroad a young man fleeing home due to his sexual orientation only to discover the difficulty of creating home elsewhere and Siddis Indians of African descent continuing to struggle for acceptance despite having lived in India for over 600 years These are voices seldom represented to a larger audience The plays and performance pieces range from 20 to 90 minute pieces and include a mix of monologue duologue and ensemble plays Short yet powerful they allow fantastic performance opportunities particularly in an age of social distancing with flexible casts that together invite the theme of home to be performed and studied on the page The plays include The House by Arz Khodr Lebanon Happy by Kia Corthron US The Blue of the Island by velyne Trouillot Haiti Nine Lives by Zodwa Nyoni UK Leaving but Can't Let Go by Lupe Gehrenbeck Venezuela Questions of Home by Doreen Baingana Uganda On the Last Day of Spring by Fidaa Zidan Palestine Letting Go and Moving On by Louella Dizon San Juan US Antimemories of an Interrupted Trip by Aldri Anuncia o Brazil So Goes We by Jacqueline E Lawton US and Those Who Live Here Those Who Live There by Geeta P Siddi and Girija P Siddi India

Stories and Parables to Illustrate Gospel Truths George Rutledge Stuart, 1907 People in general and preachers in particular marvel at the results of the preaching of George Stuart and wonder what the secret of his success is This book will reveal his secret It is a collection of the illustrations that he uses in his ministry But it is incidentally more it is a revelation of the heart of the man and of the deep and mighty convictions that move and drive him in his ceaseless and merciless battle against sin and wrong and his tireless efforts to reach and save the lost Introduction

Stories by Contemporary Irish Women Daniel J. Casey, Linda M. Casey, 1990-04-01 These short stories invite the reader to see Ireland afresh Included are works by well known authors such as Mary Lavin Edna O'Brien and Julia O Faolain the collection also showcases new writers such as Clare Boylan Rita Kelly and Una Woods Repeatedly the stories bring us up against the inherent contradiction of provincial Ireland and Ireland as a modern European state and the complexities of women's lives in both Helen Lucy Burke writes tellingly of an older devout Irish Catholic woman as she encounters the startling realities of Italian Catholic Rome Other stories also dwell on traditional Irish themes and situations through refreshingly varied voices Ita Daly movingly portrays the problems of an educated sensitive schoolteacher resigned to her life in a country town Anne Devlin handles yet another familiar theme the Irishman in England an Englishman's view about IRA bombings A few stories deal with the troubles in Northern Ireland while others address the troubles of the country as a whole too many children too much hypocrisy too little communication especially between women and men The editors have provided an introduction that examines the role of women writers in Irish literature They have also supplied detailed biographical notes for each contributing author Twelve Stories and a Dream H. G.

Wells, 2019-11-19 In Twelve Stories and a Dream H G Wells presents a captivating collection of speculative fiction that interweaves thought provoking narratives with themes of dream and reality This anthology encapsulates Wells signature literary style concise prose enriched by vivid imagination which transports readers into alternative worlds and unsettling possibilities The stories reflect the socio political landscape of the early 20th century addressing issues such as class struggle technological advancement and the human condition often with a satirical lens that underscores his critical view of contemporary society Wells known as the father of science fiction drew from his extensive education and experiences as both a novelist and social commentator His background in the natural sciences and his keen observations of societal shifts were instrumental in shaping the narratives found in this collection Wells ability to blend scientific curiosity with philosophical inquiry positions him as a pioneer of the genre inviting readers to ponder profound existential questions while entertaining them with imaginative tales Highly recommended for fans of speculative fiction and those interested in the interplay between imagination and reality Twelve Stories and a Dream offers a rich tapestry of narratives that not only entertain but also provoke deep reflection Engaging with the themes presented within these pages readers will find themselves traversing the boundaries of the conceivable making this collection an essential read for anyone seeking intellectual and literary enrichment

Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha, Rhunette C. Diggs, 1999-08 This volume examines how family communication affects our understanding of race and race relations For scholars studying diversity issues intercultural communication family communication and related areas Short Stories, 1900 The Door in the Wall, and Other Stories Герберт Уэллс, 2021-12-02 Little Roque and Other Stories Guy de Maupassant, 1924 Reciprocal Ethnography and the Power of Women's Narratives Elaine J. Lawless, 2019-08-09 Folklorist Elaine J Lawless has devoted her career to ethnographic research with underserved groups in the American Midwest including charismatic Pentecostals clergywomen victims of domestic violence and displaced African Americans She has consistently focused her research on women's speech in these contexts and has developed a new approach to ethnographic research which she calls reciprocal ethnography while growing a detailed corpus of work on women's narrative style and expressive speech Reciprocal ethnography is a feminist and collaborative ethnographic approach that Lawless developed as a challenge to the reflexive turn in anthropological fieldwork and research in the 1970s which was often male centric ignoring the contributions by and study of women's culture

Collected here for the first time are Lawless's key articles on the topics of reciprocal ethnography and women's narrative which influenced not only folklore but also the allied fields of anthropology sociology performance studies and women's and gender studies Lawless's methods and research continue to be critically relevant in today's global struggle for gender equality

The Greatest Stories Ever... Retold Ross Thomas Lucas, 2010-09-24 I wonder what the Samaritan woman who met Jesus at Jacob's Well was like What were the circumstances that led to her being there drawing water in the heat of the day The New Testament does not give us much background on the people involved in some of the familiar stories This book brings those characters to life by letting the reader imagine what their life might have been like Consider Joseph as a man wondering how he got himself into a situation where he and his pregnant wife were traveling to Bethlehem What happened at the birth of Jesus from the perspective of another guest in the Inn Did the jailer in Philippi have a son If he did how might he have viewed the events that happened while Paul was a prisoner A Centurion had a servant who was ill What was the relationship between the Centurion and the servant How did the Centurion happen to get sent to Galilee These stories take New Testament stories as a starting place and consider a different possibility They will challenge you to think again about the people who might have met Jesus in person

Boots, Bikes, and Bombers Ginny Wood, 2012-06-15 Born in Washington in 1917 Ginny Hill Wood served as a Women's Airforce Service pilot in World War II and flew a military surplus airplane to Alaska in 1946 Settling in Fairbanks she went on to cofound Camp Denali Alaska's first wilderness ecotourism lodge This title presents an oral history of Ginny Hill Wood

Stories My Folks Told Me Susanne Keller, 2016-06-16 This is a book of family stories of pioneers who immigrated to central Illinois from a variety of locations in Germany They dared to leave the Old World and seek their fortune in the New World and strove every day of their lives to improve the quality of life for their children and descendants They left a part of Europe Germany comprising a radius of about a hundred miles and settled in America in central Illinois within a radius of about twenty five miles Between 1845 and 1869 some came as families some as individuals but they all chose to inhabit the villages of Danvers Minier Petersburg or the surrounding farmland Of the pioneer generation there were sixteen people whose stories are like little jewels embroidered onto the warp and woof of the historical tapestry of their time The second third and fourth generation folks are likewise described within the context of their times and always leading in a straight line of lineage to Mary and Bill Oehler the authors parents Every life has a story It has been a pleasure to delineate these thirty one lives

Digital Storytelling, Mediatized Stories Knut Lundby, 2008 Recent years have seen amateur personal stories focusing on me flourish on social networking sites and in digital storytelling workshops The resulting digital stories could be called mediatized stories This book deals with these self representational stories aiming to understand the transformations in the age old practice of storytelling that have become possible with the new digital media Its approach is interdisciplinary exploring how the mediation or mediatization processes of digital storytelling can be grasped and offering a sociological perspective of media studies and a socio cultural take of the educational sciences Aesthetic and literary perspectives on narration as well as questioning from an informatics perspective are also included More Stories to Touch the Heart Russ Lawson,2008-02-01 This book is full of stories some true happenings some just good stories Each of these short devotional lessons are a sermon unto themselves I have had preachers write and tell me that they use them as sermon starters or for devotional lessons Mostly they are written with the hopes that they will touch something in your heart and help you in your daily walk with Christ The Country of the Blind, and other Stories H. G. Wells,2024-11-01 The Country of the Blind and Other Stories by H G Wells is a captivating collection that showcases the author s mastery of speculative fiction and social commentary The title story The Country of the Blind presents a thought provoking narrative about a sighted man who stumbles upon a secluded community where everyone is blind As he attempts to impose his perception of the world upon this unique society the story explores themes of perception understanding and the nature of reality challenging readers to reconsider their definitions of normalcy and ability Wells s keen insights into human nature and societal constructs shine throughout this anthology which includes a variety of tales that blend science fiction with elements of fantasy and horror Each story serves as a lens through which Wells examines the complexities of human relationships the impact of technology on society and the often absurd nature of existence His narratives provoke reflection on the human condition morality and the intricacies of social dynamics The collection features Wells s signature wit and inventive storytelling offering readers an engaging journey through imaginative landscapes and profound philosophical questions From eerie encounters to societal critiques each tale captivates and stimulates thought making The Country of the Blind a compelling read for fans of speculative fiction Readers are drawn to The Country of the Blind and Other Stories for its rich storytelling and intellectual depth This book is a must read for anyone interested in exploring the boundaries of human perception and the nature of society Wells s narratives not only entertain but also challenge readers to reflect on their values and assumptions making this collection an essential addition to any literary library
