David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher The Latest Early American Literature R. C. De Prospeo, 2016-01-21 The Latest Early American Literature according to readers for the University of Delaware Press is a collection of polemics and manifestoes In it R C De Prosopo bids to follow in the footsteps of the two rare early Americanist dissenters whom Philip F Gura once distinguished as prophets without honor in the field William Spengemann and Michael Colacurcio The book contends that a supposedly retired nationalist modernist telos continues to reign in most of the latest scholarship and even more influentially in all of the current literary histories and anthologies no matter how expansive in gender ethnic racial and hemispheric inclusiveness they profess to be Old teloi in particular that old American exceptionalist one can be cunning Updating and expanding upon essays written over the past thirty years De Prosopo proposes not only negatively to critique how the latest scholarly receptions of early American literature differ insignificantly from the earlier ones but positively to propose how a transnationalist concession that as a neocolonial culture America s lags behind that of Europe might advance post modern historiography by radically repositioning the past as no longer the present s diachronic predecessor but to quote Lyotard s semiotics its synchronic differend Closer to earth De Prosopo tries at the same time to remain mindful of the pedagogical imperative that ultimately to save the texts of early American literature will require making them legible to average non specialist never to become specialist undergraduate general education students To facilitate this he introduces in the concluding section of The Latest Early American Literature what will probably be taken as its most radical intervention the redefinition of Edgar Allan Poe as an early American writer

The Bible on the Shakespearean Stage Thomas Fulton, Kristen Poole, 2018-04-26 The Bible was everywhere in Shakespeare s England Through sermons catechisms treatises artwork literature and of course biblical reading itself the stories and language of the Bible pervaded popular and elite culture In recent years scholars have demonstrated how thoroughly biblical allusions saturate Shakespearean plays But Shakespeare s audiences were not simply well versed in the Bible s content they were also steeped in the practices and methods of biblical interpretation Reformation and counter reformation debate focused not just on the biblical text but crucially on how to read the text The Bible on the Shakespearean Stage is the first volume to integrate the study of Shakespeare s plays with the vital history of Reformation practices of biblical interpretation Bringing together the foremost international scholars in the field of Shakespeare and the Bible these essays explore Shakespeare s engagement with scriptural interpretation in the tragedies histories comedies and romances cannibals of Nukahiva in the Marquesas seeing those islands in a relatively untouched state before they were irrevocably changed by French annexation in 1842. Rebellious against duty on another ship he was held as a prisoner in a native calaboose in Tahiti. He prowled South American ports while on liberty, hunted giant tortoises in the Galapagos Islands and explored the islands of Eimeo, Moorea and Maui. He also saw the Society and Sandwich Hawaiian Islands when the Western missionary presence was at its height. Heflin combed the logbooks of any ship at sea at the time of Melville's voyages and examined nineteenth century newspaper items especially the marine intelligence columns for mention of Melville's vessels. He also studied British consular records pertaining to the mutiny aboard the Australian whaler Lucy Ann, an insurrection in which Melville participated and which inspired his second novel Omoo. Distilling the life's work of a leading Melville expert into book form for the first time, this scrupulously edited volume is the most in depth account ever published of Melville's years on whaleships and how those singular experiences influenced his writing.

The Hospitable Canon Virgil Nemoianu, Robert Royal, 1991-06-21. The papers in this book respond to the public debate over literary canons in the United States and elsewhere by placing the political ideological aspects of the conflict inside perspectives derived from comparative literature. Canons are seen by most of the contributors as based on democratic and communal intentions or choices inevitable filtered through and colored by historical experiences and social biases. An examination of the canonical process over many centuries reveals both the impressive durability of its elements and the amazing flexibility of its outlines. The careful individual analyses as well as the thought provoking general contributions in this volume agree that the democracy of play is one of the strongest bonds uniting the human race. Canons or canons the contributors argue are based on it and reflect the intimate interdependence of cultural and intellectual matters with the workings of society as a whole. Contributors: Charles Altieri, Lilian R. Furst, Michael G. Cooke, Robert Royal, Roger Shattuck, Rosa E. M. D. Penna, Glen M. Johnson, Yves Chevrel, Raymond A. Prier, Peter Walker, Christopher Clausen, Virgil Nemoianu.
