The Table: Stories from Black Women in Student Affairs The Table Books, 2020-07-10 Black women work twice as hard to have a seat at the infamous table The table that once we have a seat at we are told to be grateful for or else we could lose it back to the kitchen preparing meals that we may never have the pleasure of sitting down and enjoying We are given no plate No utensils No napkin to clean up those accidental spills Instead of waiting for a seat at a table where we would have to compromise our stories or have them told by those who have not walked our paths we decided to build our own table and invited some of our sisters to sit with us and indulge in its spread This book is an anthology of the various trials and triumphs 11 Black women encountered while working in the student affairs sector of higher education We are connected by our experiences navigating in spaces where we have sometimes felt disempowered but we have learned the trade of maneuvering in a professional environment and world dominated by white people This is just the beginning We will be adding more chairs assembling more tables and inviting others in our communities to have a seat where they'd like. No more unfulfilled appetites and unseasoned dishes. No more scrapes from biting our tongues. At this table we define spaces. We center conversations. We invite fellowship. We serve you food for your soul and truth elixir for your thirst.

Colossians and Philemon (Word and Spirit Commentary on the New Testament) Holly Beers, 2025-02-25 The Spirit who inspired the authors of the New Testament is at work today around the globe as evidenced by the explosive growth of pentecostal charismatic and renewalist movements; the number of adherents is now estimated at more than half a billion. There is a clear need for a balanced, affordable, and accessible commentary series aimed at Christians who identify as Spirit-filled. The Word and Spirit Commentary on the New Testament series emphasizes how we listen alongside ancient audiences for the Spirit's voice in our time and contexts. Written by pastorally sensitive biblical scholars from the Spirit-filled tradition, these commentaries explore how God works in the biblical texts and how Christians can expect God to work today, even in new or culturally surprising ways. Series editors are Holly Beers, Westmont College, and Craig S. Keener, Asbury Theological Seminary. In this addition to the series, respected New Testament scholar Holly Beers engages Colossians and Philemon in their ancient setting and explores their message for Spirit-filled Christians today. Images, illustrations, and sidebars on pentecostal charismatic revival history or insights are included.

Ten Made Whole: Gratefulness from One Leper Ahmed Musa, 2024-12-14 Ten lepers stood at the edge of a village, desperate for healing, burdened by isolation and longing for restoration. They called out to Jesus, pleading for mercy. With just a word, Jesus healed them, and their lives were forever changed. But only one returned to give thanks. Ten Made Whole: Gratefulness from One Leper is a powerful exploration of this story where Jesus not only performed a physical healing but also revealed profound spiritual truths about gratitude, faith, and the completeness of God's restoration. In Ten Made Whole: Gratefulness from One Leper, you will discover the heartbreaking condition of leprosy, how it separated individuals from society and family, making the healing miracle all the more powerful and transformative. The moment when the ten lepers called out to Jesus for mercy, showing the raw vulnerability of those who recognized their desperate need for healing and restoration. The miraculous act of healing that Jesus performed, how He didn't just cleanse them of leprosy but offered them an opportunity for spiritual wholeness. The divided response while all ten were healed, only one returned to Jesus to give thanks, and in doing so, received not just physical healing but a deeper spiritual wholeness. Jesus' powerful question, "Were not all ten cleansed?" Where are the other nine? How the response of the one grateful leper demonstrated the heart of true faith and the importance of acknowledging God's work in our lives. The profound lesson that gratitude is essential to spiritual wholeness, how it reflects a heart of humility, worship, and understanding that every good gift comes from God. The healing of the ten lepers teaches us a vital lesson: Gratitude is not just a response to blessings; it is a vital part of our spiritual journey. The one leper who returned showed us that wholeness is more than physical healing; it's about a heart that is thankful, humble, and willing to turn back to God in worship. In our own lives, how often do we receive God's blessings without fully acknowledging His grace How much of our wholeness depends on our response of thankfulness What does the story of the ten lepers teach us about the importance of gratitude in our walk with God How can we cultivate a heart of thankfulness that leads to true spiritual wholeness Ten Made Whole shows us that gratitude is the gateway to deeper spiritual healing and wholeness A thankful heart opens the door to greater intimacy with God and more profound experiences of His grace Step into Ten Made Whole Gratefulness from One Leper and be reminded that true healing is not just physical it is spiritual and it begins with a heart that acknowledges the goodness and mercy of God When we return to God in gratitude we experience the fullness of His restoration
