Greater Ethiopia The Evolution Of A Multiethnic Society:

Greater Ethiopia Donald N. Levine, 2000-05 Greater Ethiopia combines history anthropology and sociology to answer two major questions Why did Ethiopia remain independent under the onslaught of European expansionism while other African political entities were colonized And why must Ethiopia be considered a single cultural region despite its political religious and linguistic diversity Donald Levine s interdisciplinary study makes a substantial contribution both to Ethiopian interpretive history and to sociological analysis In his new preface Levine examines Ethiopia since the overthrow of the monarchy in the 1970s Ethiopian scholarship is in Professor Levine s debt He has performed an important task with panache urbanity and learning Edward Ullendorff Times Literary Supplement Upon rereading this book it strikes the reader how broad in scope how innovative in approach and how stimulating in arguments this book was when it came out In the past twenty years it has inspired anthropological and historical research stimulated theoretical debate about Ethiopia s cultural and historical development and given the impetus to modern political thinking about the complexities and challenges of Ethiopia as a country The text thus easily remains an absolute must for any Ethiopianist scholar to read and digest J Abbink Journal of Modern African Studies

Historical Sociology of State Formation in the Horn of Africa Redie Bereketeab, 2023-03-28 This book analyses the historical sociology of state formation in the Horn of Africa It examines the genesis trajectories processes routes and consequences of the evolution of state formation Three analytical and explanatory models explain the process of state formation in the HOA proto state colonial and national liberation The models heuristically and innovatively provide understanding interpretation and analysis of state formation While the proto state model explicates an indigenous historical process of state formation the colonial model refers to an externally designed and imposed process of state formation The national liberation model concern state formation conducted under liberation movement and ideology The distinct significance of these models is that collectively they generate sufficient analysis of state formation They are also unique in that they have never been employed as aggregate analytical and explicative instruments to address the predicament of state formation in the Horn of Africa

Ethiopian Revolution 1974-1991 Teferra Haile-Selassie, 2013-12-19 First published in 1997 Ethiopia the only country in Africa to survive the nineteenth century European scramble for the continent has a long unique and complex history This stretches back over three million years to Lucy or as the Ethiopians call her Dinkeneshe the earliest known ancestor of the human race to the political turmoil of late twentieth century Africa Teferra Haile Selassie writes partly as a historian but also and perhaps more importantly as a sincere and sensitive observer who lived through the later historical events which he describes and indeed played a notable role in several of them The Horn of Africa Peter Woodward, 1996-12-31 Nowhere is the crumbling of state structures more self evident than in Somalia the Sudan and Ethiopia Drawing on a wide range of little known material this book presents an overview of structural disintegration in the Horn of Africa from the dual perspectives of domestic and international political developments The breakdown of these three major states is due according to Woodward to the ravages of civil war He argues that while all three conflicts arise from domestic issues their scale has been magnified by international involvement which has also linked the three countries together with Ethiopia as the crux The Horn of Africa is a study of the national and international dimensions of these conflicts examining not only the relations between the three countries but also their relations with a variety of regional actors as well as with the superpowers Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its cotemporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of carnivores in wild places usually do so from a distance using telemetry and noninvasive methods of data collection So what happens when an anthropologist studies a clan of spotted hyenas Africa s second largest carnivores up close and in a city of a hundred thousand inhabitants In Among the Bone Eaters Marcus Baynes Rock takes us to the ancient city of Harar in Ethiopia where the gey waraba hyenas of the city are welcome in the streets and appreciated by the locals for the protection they provide from harmful spirits and dangerous mountain hyenas They ve even become a local tourist attraction At the start of his research in Harar Baynes Rock contended with difficult conditions stone throwing children intransigent bureaucracy and wary hyena subjects intent on avoiding people After months of frustration three young hyenas drew him into the hidden world of the Sofi clan He discovered the elements of a hyena s life from the delectability of dead livestock and the nuisance of dogs to the unbounded thrill of hyena chase play under the light of a full moon Baynes Rock s personal relations with the hyenas from the Sofi clan expand the conceptual boundaries of human animal relations This is multispecies ethnography that reveals its messy intersubjective dangerously transformative potential

A Postcolonial Political Theology of Care and Praxis in Ethiopia's Era of Identity Politics Rode Molla,2022-12-15 The author argues that identity politics eliminates Ethiopians in between spaces and identities and defines in between spaces as political social religious and geographical spaces that enable Ethiopians to co exist with equity solidarity and justice The elimination of in between spaces and in between identities creates either or class religious ethnic and gender categories Therefore the author proposes an in between theology that invites Ethiopians to a new hybrid way of being to resist fragmented and hegemonic identities The author claims that postcolonial discourse and praxis of in between pastoral care disrupts and interrogates hegemonic definitions of culture home subjectivity and identity On the other hand in between pastoral care uses embodiment belonging subjectivity and hybridity as features of care and praxis to create intercultural and intersubjective identities that can co construct and co create in between spaces In the in between spaces Ethiopians can relate with the Other with intercultural competencies to live their difference similarity hybridity and complexity

Escape from Violence Aristide R. Zolberg,Astri Suhrke,Sergio Aguayo,1989-08-10 The magnitude of refugees movements in the Third World widely perceived as an unprecedented crisis has generated widespread concern in the West This concern reveals itself as an ambiguous mixture of heartfelt compassion for the plight of the unfortunates cast adrift and a diffuse fear that they will come pouring in In this comprehensive study the authors examine the refugee flows originating in Latin America Africa and Asia and suggest how a better understanding of this phenomenon can be used by the international community to assist those in greatest need Reviewing the history of refugee movements in the West they show how their formation and the fate of endangered populations have also been shaped by the partisan objectives of receiving countries They survey the kinds of social conflicts characteristic of different regions of the Third World and the ways refugees and refugee policy are made to serve broader political purposes

Developing Heritage - Developing Countries Marie Huber,2020-11-23 The history of development has paid only little attention to cultural projects This book looks at the development politics that shaped the UNESCO World Heritage programme with a case study of Ethiopian World Heritage sites from the 1960s to the 1980s In a large scale conservation and tourism planning project selected sites were set up and promoted as images of the Ethiopian nation This story serves to illustrate UNESCO's role in constructing a useful past in many African countries engaged in the process of nation building UNESCO experts and Ethiopian elites had a shared interest in producing a portfolio of antiquities and national parks to underwrite Ethiopia's imperial claims to regional hegemony with ancient history The key findings of this book highlight a continuity in Ethiopian history despite the political ruptures caused by the 1974 revolution and UNESCO's transformation from knowledge producer to actual provider of development policies The particular focus on the bureaucratic and political practices of heritage bridges a gap between cultural heritage studies and the history of international organisations The result is a first study of the global discourse on heritage as it emerged in the 1960s development decade

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei's book is also more radical

Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia Donald Crummey, 2000 Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia offers an original perspective on how the rulers of Ethiopia one of the great subcenters of agricultural innovation and development used land to support their dominion Crummey draws on all the surviving documents pertaining to the holding and granting of agricultural land in the Ethiopian highlands from the thirteenth to the twentieth century By examining how social relations affected the conditions for economic production and how people of power drew on the wealth created by society's basic producers he provides new insight into how ordinary farming and herding folk were incorporated into and affected by the institutions that ruled them

Mai Weini, a Highland Village in Eritrea Kjetil Tronvoll, 1998 Written by the first anthropologist to enter Eritrea after the war this study is an ethnographic account which explores the social organisation of a remote Tigrayan speaking highland community and the livelihood of its peasants
