Midas & The Golden Touch

Midas was a very wealthy king. He seemed rich enough to hold everything in his hand. But one day he found out that he had a golden touch. Everything he touched turned to gold. This was a terrible curse. He had to be careful not to touch anything. King Midas was very sad.

One day, all alone and weeping, he wandered through the kingdom. He found a little girl, a poor girl, who was crying. He asked her what was wrong. She told him that her father was sick and she was afraid to leave him. King Midas took her to his palace. He gave her the best food and the best clothes. He even gave her a golden touch. She was very happy.

One day King Midas went to sleep. He left the girl in his room. He was very tired. He fell asleep. When he woke up, he found that the girl was gone. He was very sad. He looked for her everywhere. He found her in a cave. She was very sick. He took her home. He gave her the best food and the best clothes. He even gave her a golden touch. She was very happy.

Planning your own myth

A myth is a story that explains a natural phenomenon or an important lesson in a creative way. Greeks found inspiration for things like the sun, the earth and rain. They tried to understand them by telling stories. You are going to tell a story by using your own myth. First, plan your myth by brainstorming, something like graph or spider below.
