Bad Environmentalism Nicole Seymour,2018-10-30 Traces a tradition of ironic and irreverent environmentalism asking us to rethink the movement s reputation for gloom and doom Activists today strive to educate the public about climate change but sociologists have found that the more we know about alarming issues the less likely we are to act Meanwhile environmentalists have acquired a reputation as gloom and doom killjoys Bad Environmentalism identifies contemporary texts that respond to these absurdities and ironies through absurdity and irony as well as camp frivolity irreverence perversity and playfulness Nicole Seymour develops the concept of bad environmentalism cultural thought that employs dissident affects and sensibilities to reflect critically on our current moment and on mainstream environmental activism From the television show Wildboyz to the short film series Green Porno Seymour shows that this tradition of thought is widespread spanning animation documentary fiction film performance art poetry prose fiction social media and stand up comedy since at least 1975 Seymour argues that these texts reject self righteousness and sentimentality undercutting public negativity toward activism and questioning basic environmentalist assumptions that love and reverence are required for ethical relationships with the nonhuman and that knowledge is key to addressing problems like climate change Funny and original Bad Environmentalism champions the practice of alternative green politics From drag performance to Indigenous comedy Seymour expands our understanding of how environmental art and activism can be pleasurable even in a time of undeniable crisis

Sex and the Intelligence of the Heart Julie McIntyre,2012-04-26 Explores how Nature underlies sexuality and intimacy Examines how to regain intimacy in our relationships in a way that embraces our hidden wild nature and restores the sacred to our lives Provides sacred sex and intimacy building practices for partners and exercises to reconnect with the intuitive intelligence of the heart remove our emotional armor and cultivate a deeper relationship with the Earth Shows how by healing our relationship with Nature and our sexuality we move toward healing the whole planet Nature is having sex all the time that s one of the reasons we feel so alive when we are immersed in it Sexuality is essential to the sensation of Nature in your own body of connecting to the piece of Earth closest to you your own flesh and bones Many a couple has been overcome by passion while walking in the woods or on the beach many a soul has found solace or epiphany in Nature Living in accordance with Nature depends on you being your true whole self a sexual sensual erotic fully alive human being Exploring the territory of intimacy sacred sex and emotional healing as a journey to wholeness Julie McIntyre examines the sacred relationship between sexuality and the Earth and reveals how to create deep lasting intimacy with your lover by recapturing the wild spontaneous natural sexuality that is your birthright Detailing the process of moving from your head to the secret garden of your heart she provides exercises to heal your psyche of old emotional trauma reconnect with the intuitive intelligence of the heart and cultivate a deeper relationship with the Earth in order to trust yourself and become vulnerable and open with your lover and thus truly intimate She shows how there is a direct relationship between our beliefs and values about sex and intimacy and our beliefs and values about the environment and the Earth She reveals how by healing our separation from Nature and our sexuality we can bring the sacred back into our lives shape our own ecstatic sexual experiences and move toward healing the whole planet

Women's Cinema, World Cinema Patricia

White, 2015-04-20 In Women's Cinema World Cinema Patricia White explores the dynamic intersection of feminism and film in the twenty first century by highlighting the work of a new generation of women directors from around the world Samira and Hana Makhmalbaf Nadine Labaki Zero Chou Jasmila Zbanic and Claudia Llosa among others The emergence of a globalized network of film festivals has enabled these young directors to make and circulate films that are changing the aesthetics and politics of art house cinema and challenging feminist genealogies Extending formal analysis to the production and reception contexts of a variety of feature films White explores how women filmmakers are both implicated in and critique gendered concepts of authorship taste genre national identity and human rights Women's Cinema World Cinema revitalizes feminist film studies as it argues for an alternative vision of global media culture

American Independent Cinema Geoff

King, Claire Molloy, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2013 The American independent sector has attracted much attention in recent years an upsurge of academic work on the subject being accompanied by wider public debate But many questions remain about how exactly independence should be defined and how its relationship might be understood with other parts of the cinematic landscape most notably the Hollywood studios Edited and written by leading authors in the field American Independent Cinema indie indiewood and beyond offers an examination of the field through four sections that range in focus from broad definitions to close focus on particular manifestations of independence A wide variety of examples are included but within a framework that offers insights into how these are related to one another More specifically this collection offers an account of recent developments as well as reviewing reassessing and revising a number of central positions approaches and arguments relating to various parts of the independent and or indie sector Individual case studies that range from the distinctive qualities of the work of established quality filmmakers such as Wes Anderson Steven Soderbergh and Rebecca Miller to studies of horror genre production at the more disreputable end of the independent spectrum Examples of the limits of independence available in some cases within Hollywood including studies of the work of Stanley Kubrick and Hal Ashby Case studies of under researched areas in the margins of American independent cinema including the Disney nature films and Christian evangelical filmmaking A number of wider overview chapters that examine contemporary American independent cinema from a number of perspectives Together the chapters in the collection offer a unique contribution to the study of independent film in the United States Contributors Warren Buckland Philip Drake Mark Gallagher Geoff King Peter Kr mer

Insect Media Jussi Parikka, 2010 Since the early nineteenth century when entomologists first popularized the unique biological and behavioral characteristics of insects technological innovators and theorists have proposed insects as templates for a wide range of technologies In Insect Media Jussi Parikka analyzes how insect forms of social organization swarms hives webs and distributed intelligence have been used to structure modern media technologies and the network society providing a radical new perspective on the interconnection of biology and technology Through close engagement with the pioneering work of insect ethologists including Jakob von Uexküll and Karl von Frisch posthumanist philosophers media theorists and contemporary filmmakers and artists Parikka develops an insect theory of media one that conceptualizes modern media as more than the products of individual human actors social interests or technological determinants They are rather profoundly nonhuman phenomena that both draw on and mimic the alien lifeworlds of insects Deftly moving from the life sciences to digital technology from popular culture to avant garde art and architecture and from philosophy to cybernetics and game theory Parikka provides innovative conceptual tools for exploring the phenomena of network society and culture Challenging anthropocentric approaches to contemporary science and culture Insect Media reveals the possibilities that insects and other nonhuman animals offer for rethinking media the conflation of biology and technology and our understanding of and interaction with contemporary digital culture GameAxis Unwired , 2008-05 GameAxis Unwired is a magazine dedicated to bring you the latest news previews reviews and events around the world and close to you Every month rain or shine our team of dedicated editors and hardcore gamers put themselves in the line of fire to bring you news previews and other things you will want to know

Happily Ever After Marriage Sarah Hampson, 2010-04-27 Earlier in my post divorce life I thought marriage would never happen again for me Having exited a painful one I had no desire to enter another Why would anyone want to repeat a difficult experience I felt that my heart would never be as trusting as it once was I had lost my faith in marriage I wasn't sure it was the best custodian of love And I still feared how the wife identity could sabotage me I was content to sit to the side and let others have their turn at giving the institution a whirl from Happily Ever After Marriage There's Nothing Like Divorce to Clear the Mind by Sarah Hampson After eighteen years of marriage and three children Sarah Hampson finds herself amongst the growing ranks of divorced MLWs Mid Life Women Hampson uses this newfound vantage point outside the marriage bubble to bravely explore the institution of matrimony She applies her famously warm perceptive and frequently hilarious perspective not only to her own marriage experience but also to those of her family and friends along with the myriad celebrities she has interviewed in more than a decade of journalism Candid humorous and full of fascinating stories Happily Ever After Marriage is part modern guide part passionate conversation with friends and part meditation on what can be seen as a new rite of passage to self actualization in mid life By bravely examining her own life Hampson brings clarity to the underlying cultural messages that inform the choices we make and shows how embracing change at mid life can open oneself to new possibilities of connectedness

Memo for Nemo William Firebrace, 2022-10-04 A cultural history of living in the undersea both fictional and real from Jules Verne's Captain Nemo to NASA's ECC02 project In Memo for Nemo William Firebrace investigates human inhabitation of the undersea both fictional and real Beginning with Jules Verne's Captain Nemo an undersea Renaissance man with a library of 12 000 volumes on his submarine and proceeding through aquariums undersea photography artificial seas on land nuclear powered submarines undersea film epics giant squid and NASA satellites Firebrace examines the undersea as a zone created by exploration and invention Throughout the history of undersea life is accompanied by an imagined undersea envisioned by cultural figures ranging from Verne and Herman Melville to Orson Welles and Jimi Hendrix Firebrace takes readers through the enormous sequence of rooms impossible in real life in Nemo's submarine recounts the competition among nineteenth century cities to build the most spectacular aquatic world and explains the workings of the bathysphere an early underwater vessel modeled on a hot air balloon He considers the aquarium's function in films as a sort of viewing lens describes the chlorine proof artificial sea life seen by passengers on the submarine ride at Disneyland and reports that Jacques Cousteau's famous underwater documentaries were in fact highly staged The oceans of today are not those imagined by Verne they are changing from both natural processes and human influence Memo for Nemo documents the power of the undersea in both art and life

The Divide Between Humanities and Science Richard Brusca, 2025-03-28 The humanities have become increasingly siloed and distant from science This book will address the reasons for this and the harm it is doing and it illustrates ways to bring these endeavours back together that are beneficial to both disciplines Humanities are the cultural undertakings art music literature theater philosophy etc that set us apart from the rest of the animal kingdom Humanities teach us to think creatively reason and analyse complex situations They offer practical skills crucial in professional settings like critical thinking empathy cross cultural acceptance reading and writing skills and clear communication The humanities steer us away from xenophobia and toward understanding and empathy They broaden our mind in ways that are healthy for individuals and society Recently colleges of arts and science have been diminished In the US fewer than 80 such programs remain in higher education out of 4 000 US universities colleges with severe cuts of faculty and programs in the humanities The proportion of undergraduate students studying humanities fell 30% between 2005 and 2020 Elected officials are advocating for elimination of state funding for the humanities The great divide between humanities and science continues to grow K 12 STEM and Common Core Standards discourage reading literature and students arrive at college unprepared lacking endurance to read long passages or write a proper paragraph Some question the point of reading at all Today few scholars work comfortably across science and humanities This volume will express the views of some individuals who do so producing creative works that express the nature of how a blending of these great human pursuits can be accomplished
