Reading Stephen King Brenda Miller Power, Jeffrey D. Wilhelm, 1997. This collection of essays grew out of the Reading Stephen King Conference held at the University of Maine in 1996. Stephen King's books have become a lightning rod for the tensions around issues of including mass-market popular literature in middle and high school English classes and of who chooses what students read. King's fiction is among the most popular of pop literature and among the most controversial. These essays spotlight the ways in which King's work intersects with the themes of the literary canon and its construction and maintenance, censorship in public schools, and the need for adolescent readers to be able to choose books in school reading programs. The essays and their authors are:

1. Reading Stephen King: An Ethnography of an Event, Brenda Miller Power
2. I Want to Be Typhoid Stevie, Stephen King
3. King and Controversy in Classrooms: A Conversation between Teachers and Students, Kelly Chandler and others
4. Of Cornflakes, Hot Dogs, Cabbages, and King, Jeffrey D. Wilhelm
