The Great Gatsby - Digital Ed F. Scott Fitzgerald, 2014-07-23

The Great Gatsby meets Alain Badiou Ursula Vooght, 2023-12-21 The subject of this book is a consideration of the usefulness of the concept of fidelity put forward by the philosopher Alain Badiou in the discussion of film adaptation Fidelity or faithfulness is primarily a consideration that emerges in relation to so called canonical texts in adaptation Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored The film adaptations paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field

Marxist Literary Criticism Today Barbara Foley,2019-02-20 Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Book Prize 2019 Shortlisted for the Isaac Deutscher Prize 2019 Why Marxism Why today In the first introduction to Marxist literary criticism to be published in decades Barbara Foley argues that Marxism continues to offer the best framework for exploring the relationship between literature and society She lays out in clear terms the principal aspects of Marxist methodology historical materialism political economy and ideology

critique as well as key debates among Marxists and non Marxists alike about the nature of literature and the goals of literary criticism and pedagogy Foley examines through the empowering lens of Marxism a wide range of texts from Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice to E. L. James's Fifty Shades of Grey from Frederick Douglass's What to the Slave Is the Fourth of July to Annie Proulx's Brokeback Mountain from W. B. Yeats's The Second Coming to Claude McKay's If We Must Die

Doing Literary Criticism Tim Gillespie, 2010 One of the greatest challenges for English language arts teachers today is the call to engage students in more complex texts Tim Gillespie who has taught in public schools for almost four decades has found the lenses of literary criticism a powerful tool for helping students tackle challenging literary texts Tim breaks down the dense language of critical theory into clear lively and thorough explanations of many schools of critical thought reader response biographical historical psychological archetypal genre based moral philosophical feminist political formalist and postmodern Doing Literary Criticism gives each theory its own chapter with a brief teacher friendly overview and a history of the approach along with an in depth discussion of its benefits and limitations Each chapter also includes ideas for classroom practices and activities Using stories from his own English classes from alternative programs to advance placement and everything in between Tim provides a wealth of specific classroom tested suggestions for discussion essay and research paper topics recommended texts exam questions and more The accompanying CD offers abbreviated overviews of each theory designed to be used as classroom handouts examples of student work collections of quotes to stimulate discussion and writing an extended history of women writers and much more Ultimately Doing Literary Criticism offers teachers a rich set of materials and tools to help their students become more confident and able readers writers and critical thinkers

Debating the Canon L. Morrissey, 2016-05-24 Over the past two decades the debate over the Great Books has been one of the key public controversies concerning the cultural content of higher education Debating the Canon provides a primary source overview of these ongoing arguments Many of these contributions to this debate have achieved canonical status themselves through the focus on the canon the full spectrum of approaches to literary studies can be seen in the essays Therefore this collection places the recent debate within a larger context of literary criticism's development of a canon going back to the eighteenth century

F. Scott Fitzgerald Jackson R. Bryer, Alan Margolies, Ruth Prigozy, 2012-03-15 Years after his death F. Scott Fitzgerald continues to captivate both the popular and the critical imagination This collection of essays presents fresh insights into his writing discussing neglected texts and approaching familiar works from new perspectives Seventeen scholarly articles deal not only with Fitzgerald's novels but with his stories and essays as well considering such topics as the Roman Catholic background of The Beautiful and Damned and the influence of Mark Twain on Fitzgerald's work and self-conception The volume also features four personal essays by Fitzgerald's friends Budd Schulberg Frances Kroll Ring publisher Charles Scribner III and writer George Garrett that shed new light on his personal and professional lives Together these contributions demonstrate the continued vitality of Fitzgerald's work and establish new directions for ongoing discussions of his life and writing Citizen Sarris, American Film Critic Emanuel Levy, 2001 This collection of essays pays tribute to Andrew Sarris the most influential film critic in American film history A noted film personality Sarris occupies a unique position walking the line between popular journalism and more academic scholarship He began his career in the 1950s with a passion for film and an eloquent style of prose that led him to become a prominent voice in the film world As a writer and editor for the Village Voice at its prime Sarris reached and educated a whole generation of readers and became respected by academics and critics all over the world The thirty eight essays assembled here and arranged according to major themes demonstrate the amazing impact Sarris has had on every aspect of the film world fellow critics filmmakers readers and American popular culture Contributors include noted critics Leonard Maltin and Molly Haskell film scholars David Bordwell and James Naremore and directors Martin Scorsese Robert Benton and John Sayles
