Great Short Works Of Leo Tolstoy Perennial Classics:

Great Short Works of Leo Tolstoy Leo Tolstoy, 2004-03-02 The brilliant shorter novels of Tolstoy including The Death of Ivan Ilych and Family Happiness collected and reissued with a beautiful updated design Of all Russian writers Leo Tolstoy is probably the best known to the Western world largely because of War and Peace his epic in prose and Anna Karenina one of the most splendid novels in any language But during his long lifetime Tolstoy also wrote enough shorter works to fill many volumes Here reprinted in one volume are his eight finest short novels together with Alyosha the Pot the little tale that Prince Mirsky described as a masterpiece of rare perfection

Great Short Works of Herman Melville Herman Melville, 2009-03-17 Billy Budd Sailor and Bartleby the Scrivener are two of the most revered shorter works of fiction in history Here they are collected along with 19 other stories in a beautifully redesigned collection that represents the best short work of an American master As Warner Berthoff writes in his introduction to this volume It is hard to think of a major novelist or storyteller who is not also a first rate entertainer a master according to choice of high comedy of one or another robust species of expressive humour or of some special variety of the preposterous the grotesque the absurd And Melville certainly is no exception A kind of vigorous supervisory humour is his natural idiom as a writer and one particular attraction of his shorter work is the fresh further display it offers of this prime element in his literary character

Great Short Works of Leo Tolstoy Leo Tolstoy, Nathan Haskell Dole, Louise and Aylmer Maude, 2012-01-01 A collection of novellas by the distinguished Russian writer with supplementary critical and biographical background

The Cambridge Introduction to Russian Literature Caryl Emerson, 2008-07-10 Russian literature arrived late on the European scene Within several generations its great novelists had shocked and then conquered the world In this introduction to the rich and vibrant Russian tradition Caryl Emerson weaves a narrative of recurring themes and fascinations across several centuries Beginning with traditional Russian narratives saints lives folk tales epic and rogue narratives the book moves through literary history chronologically and thematically juxtaposing literary texts from each major period Detailed attention is given to canonical writers including Pushkin Gogol Dostoevsky Tolstoy Chekhov Bulgakov and Solzhenitsyn as well as to some current bestsellers from the post Communist period Fully accessible to students and readers with no knowledge of Russian the volume includes a glossary and pronunciation guide of key Russian terms as well as a list of useful secondary works The book will be of great interest to students of Russian as well as of comparative literature

Godly Heretics Marc DiPaolo, 2013-03-21 When computers freeze they are rebooted and soon working properly again Similarly legendary thinkers throughout history have argued that Christianity should start fresh by recapturing the humanitarian spirit of Jesus original message These include such disparate individuals as Thomas Jefferson Oscar Wilde Charles Dickens Walt Whitman Friedrich Nietzsche Leo Tolstoy George Bernard Shaw and the religious leaders of the Occupy Wall Street movement Surprisingly enough even classic television shows and films meant to be entertaining Lost Battlestar Galactica It's a Wonderful Life

Groundhog Day Decalogue and A Charlie Brown Christmas are attempts to apply the basic principles of Christianity to modern times This book offers new essays by scholars of literature film history theology and philosophy examining how various thinkers and storytellers over time have conceived of a reinvented Christianity In confronting this controversial idea this book examines how unorthodox interpretations of the Bible can be some of the most valid how visions of Jesus as a revolutionary may be the most historically sound and how compassionate Christians such as Origen have wrestled with the eternal questions of the existence of evil the gift of free will and the promise of universal salvation Breaking Free from Death Galina Rylkova,2020-04-14 Breaking Free from Death examines how Russian writers respond to the burden of living with anxieties about their creative outputs and ultimately about their own inevitable finitude What contributes to creative death are not just crippling diseases that make man defenseless in the face of death and not just the arguably universal fear of death but equally important the innumerable impositions on the part of various outsiders Many conflicts in the lives of Rylkova s subjects arose not from their opposition to the existing political regimes but from their interactions with like minded and supporting intellectuals friends and relatives The book describes the lives and choices that concrete individuals and by extrapolation their literary characters must face in order to preserve their singularity and integrity while attempting to achieve fame greatness and success

Great Short Works of Leo Tolstoy Lev Nikolaevič Tolstoj,1967 The Novel, Who Needs It? Joseph Epstein,2023-07-18 In this brief but highly engaging book Joseph Epstein argues for the primacy of fiction and specifically of the novel among all intellectual endeavors that seek to describe the behavior of human beings Reading superior fiction he holds arouses the mind in a way that nothing else quite does He shows how the novel at its best operates above the level of ideas in favor of taking up the truths of the heart No other form probes so deeply into that eternal mystery of mysteries human nature than does the novel Along the way Epstein recounts how we read fiction differently than much else we read He sets out how memory works differently in the reading of fiction than in that of other works He notes that certain novels are best read at certain ages and suggests that novels like movies might do well to carry ratings with some novels best read no later than one s early twenties others not to be read before the age of forty The knowledge one acquires from reading novels differs from all other kinds of knowledge for the subject of all superior fiction is human existence itself in all its variousness and often humbling confusion The spirit of the novel entails questioning much that others consider home truths This is demonstrated by the fact that so many important philosophers social scientists jurists and other intellectuals have been devoted readers of fiction among them Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr Michael Oakeshott Edward Shils and Clifford Geertz The Novel Who Needs It takes up those current elements in the culture that militate against the production of first rate fiction Prominent among them are the rise of online reading the expansion of creative writing programs the artistically discouraging effects of political correctness and the pervasiveness of therapeutic thinking throughout contemporary culture As for the title The Novel Who Needs It Joseph Epstein s answer is that we all do The Narrative Shape of Truth Ilya Kliger, 2011-04-18 Its champions and its detractors have often understood the novel as the genre par excellence of truthlessness The Narrative Shape of Truth counters this widely accepted view It argues instead that the novel has found new historically specific configurations of truth and narrative The nineteenth century novel in particular can be understood as responding to the emerging tendency to view truth as inseparable from rather than opposed to time Ilya Kliger offers a nonreductive way of reading the histories of philosophy and the novel side by side He identifies the crucial moment in the epistemological history of narrative when at the end of the eighteenth century a new structural affiliation between truth and time emerged This book examines novels by four authors Balzac Stendhal Dostoevsky and Tolstoy as well as the writings of leading European intellectuals and philosophers Kliger argues that the realist novel can be conceived as prompting us and giving us the means to think of truth differently as immanent in a temporal shape rather than transcendent in a principle a fact or a higher order

Art in Doubt Tatyana Gershkovich, 2022-10-15 Leo Tolstoy's and Vladimir Nabokov's radically opposed aesthetic worldviews emanate from a shared intuition that approaching a text skeptically is easy but trusting it is hard Two figures central to the Russian literary tradition Tolstoy the moralist and Nabokov the aesthete seem to have sharply conflicting ideas about the purpose of literature Tatyana Gershkovich undermines this familiar opposition by identifying a shared fear at the root of their seemingly antithetical aesthetics that one's experience of the world might be entirely one's own private and impossible to share through art Art in Doubt Tolstoy Nabokov and the Problem of Other Minds reconceives the pair's celebrated fiction and contentious theorizing as coherent lifelong efforts to reckon with the problem of other people's minds Gershkovich demonstrates how the authors shared yearning for an impossibly intimate knowledge of others formed and deformed their fiction and brought them through parallel logic to their rival late styles Tolstoy's rustic simplicity and Nabokov's baroque complexity Unlike those authors for whom the skeptical predicament ends in absurdity or despair Tolstoy and Nabokov both hold out hope that skepticism can be overcome not by force of will but with the right kind of text one designed to withstand our impulse to doubt it Through close readings of key canonical works Anna Karenina The Kreutzer Sonata Hadji Murat The Gift Pale Fire this book brings the twin titans of Russian fiction to bear on contemporary debates about how we read now and how we ought to

Noble Sentiments and the Rise of Russian Novels Hilde Hoogenboom, 2025-04-30 Noble Sentiments and the Rise of Russian Novels rewrites the history of nineteenth century Russian novels Hilde Hoogenboom examines how Russians created a new literature against substantial odds 90 per cent of novels published in Russia through the 1850s were foreign Using data from eighteenth and nineteenth century catalogues Hoogenboom visualizes readers large appetite for translated sentimental and sentimental realist novels many by such internationally renowned women as Madame de Genlis Sophie Cottin and George Sand The book reveals that contrary to stereotypes of emotional excess Sentimentalism was a tenacious opportunistic chameleon that allowed writers to both challenge and reaffirm the social order Russian writers used European novels as they sought to understand themselves and the challenges of their position as hereditary service nobles in charge of an empire with fifty million serfs Together noblemen and noblewomen adapted the fundamental European literary conversation on a sentimental moral education in duty to the greater good to their search for a life of purpose Hoogenboom s study sheds new light on Karamzin Zhukovsky Pushkin Turgenev Goncharov Dostoevsky and Tolstoy and introduces readers to major authors Evgeniia Tur and Nadezhda Khvoshchinskaia Their debates and rivalries with each other and with European novelists gave birth to an exciting influential literature
