Greenhouses Of Hope Congregations Growing Young Leaders Who Will Change The World:

Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Grinenko Baker, 2010 A Greenhouse of Hope is a Christian congregation freeing itself to experiment with both newly imagined and time honored ways of following the path of Jesus In Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Baker and six contributors tell the stories of these remarkable congregations helping others think about how they can create space for the dreams of young people to be grafted into God's dreams for the world Greenhouses of Hope Dorie

Grinenko Baker, 2010-11-12 Do you know a church where young people regularly shape the liturgy with words that speak their truth in ways that also inspire their elders Do you hear about congregations that reach out in quirky new ways to their ailing neighborhoods instead of locking doors and shipping out to a suburb Do you find churches creating hospitable space that invites the live wriggling questions and doubts of young people in unhurried unworried ways Do you see congregations where young people's gifts are not stored in the basement or bracketed into contemporary worship services but are brought forth and celebrated The authors who collaborated on this book launched a quest for such vibrant life giving greening congregations and observed the diverse practices that grow there They named these churches Greenhouses of Hope A Greenhouse of Hope is a Christian congregation freeing itself to experiment with both newly imagined and time honored ways of following the path of Jesus Its members respond to God's love through practices that genuinely embrace the gifts of youth and young adults Out of these greenhouses emerge young leaders who want to change the world In Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Baker and six contributors tell the stories of these remarkable congregations helping others think about how they can create space for the dreams of young people to be grafted into God's dreams for the world Voices of Feminist

Liberation Emily Leah Silverman, Dirk von der Horst, Whitney Bauman, 2014-10-14 Voices of Feminist Liberation brings together a wide range of scholars to explore the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether one of the most influential feminist and liberation theologians of our time Ruether's extraordinary and ground breaking thinking has shaped debates across liberation theology feminism and eco feminism queer theology social justice and inter religious dialogue At the same time her commitment to practice and agency has influenced sites of local resistance around the world as well as on globalised strategies for ecological sustainability and justice Voices of Feminist Liberation examines the potential of Ruether's thinking to mobilize critical theology social theory and cultural practice The scholars gathered here present their personal engagements with Ruether's thinking and teaching The book will be invaluable to scholars policy makers and activists seeking to understand how colonial and patriarchal oppression in the name of religion can be confronted and defeated

Educating for Redemptive Community Denise Janssen, 2015-10-01 Jesus made claims about redemptive community throughout his ministry when he called people to extravagant grace Even in the midst of the oppression of his day Jesus preached and taught that redemptive community was possible if his followers would simply stop hoarding hiding and excluding What a prophetic word for today in the midst of modern day oppression and fears of scarcity In this edited volume in honor of religious education scholars Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain eight of their PhD advisees each scholars in their own right join Seymour and Crain to lay out their vision of redemptive community Rooted in their own scholarship each contributor proposes ways in which Jesus vision of redemptive community can become reality in churches and congregations and in our larger world In addition to essays by Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain scholars contributing to this volume include Dori Grinenko Baker Reginald Blount Evelyn L Parker Mai Anh Le Tran Leah Gunning Francis Carmichael Crutchfield Debora B A Junker and Denise Janssen The foreword by Mary Elizabeth Moore and afterword by Seymour and Crain set the volume in the larger context of the church and academy

The Generative Church Cory Seibel, 2019-10-10 Virtually all churches aim to invest meaningfully in the faith development of the younger generations who have been entrusted into their care Some churches have a longstanding track record of faithfulness in living out this commitment Some lose sight of this priority over time and allow their intentionality to fade This book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of children s youth and young adult ministries by appropriating Erik Erikson s concept of generativity the interest in establishing and guiding the next generation as a way of exploring congregational life Eleven accomplished authors representing five different countries provide diverse theological and cultural perspectives on key aspects of what it means for churches to invest intentionally in the faith development of the members of emerging generations Their chapters challenge us to think about the intergenerational dynamics of our churches the crucial partnership between church and parents and what it means to involve young people meaningfully in the life of the church The intriguing topics explored by this group of authors and the diverse contexts from which they write promise to broaden and enrich our thinking about caring for children youth and young adults as a vital responsibility shared by the entire congregation

Worship with Teenagers Eric L. Mathis, 2022-02-15 This book addresses the vital role of public Christian worship in adolescent spiritual formation and shows how important youth ministry and worship ministry are to each other Despite numerous research projects books articles and resources that have been published about teenagers and about worship in recent years the relationship between the two has been addressed only peripherally if not altogether overlooked Drawing on his extensive experience in worship ministry and youth ministry Eric Mathis offers insights into the worship practices of teenagers corrects common misperceptions about worship and critically examines four prominent worship models in current practice Mathis invites youth pastors worship leaders ministerial students and congregations to elevate the voices of young people in the worshiping community and enhance worship for all ages The book includes a foreword by Kenda Creasy Dean

Nobody's Perfect Cynthia L. Cameron, Lakisha R Lockhart-Rusch, Emily A Peck, 2025 Cynthia L Cameron Lakisha R Lockhart Rusch and Emily A Peck argue that some adolescents have the privilege to make mistakes in ways that others often do not In Nobody s Perfect the editors offer a curated volume that affirms adolescents as fundamentally good and presents pathways that help youth distinguish mistakes from sin

God Beyond Borders Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2014-03-17 Based on ten years of research God Beyond Borders is a comprehensive study of interreligious learning in faith communities The United States is one of the most religiously diverse countries of the world Kujawa Holbrook details the many practices of interreligious learning in faith communities through interreligious encounters religious education shared sacred space shared prayer and compassionate action The book also surveys the field of interreligious learning and investigates some of the more common intentionally interreligious communities families clergy groups chaplaincies and community organizations Kujawa Holbrook combines theory and praxis to make a case for the importance of interreligious learning in all religious organizations The United Methodist Deacon Margaret Ann Crain, 2014-03-18 The United Methodist order of deacon represents the ever evolving understanding of ordained ministry But because of the continual changes there is confusion about the call roll identity and tasks of deacons With vivid examples this book gives a clear understanding of the order of deacon beginning with a discussion of how its unique call sets apart persons for ordained ministry Contents include A Deacon Is Called and Sent A Deacon Is Connectional A Deacon Is Missional A Deacon Is Examined and Equipped The Meaning of Ordination A Deacon Is Appointed Deacons Lead the Church Epilogue A Snapshot of Deacons and Their Ministry Young People's Attitudes to Religious Diversity Elisabeth Arweck, 2016-07-01 Investigating the hitherto unexplored topic of how young people understand and relate to religious diversity in the social context in which they are growing up this book makes a significant contribution to the existing body of literature on religious diversity and multiculturalism It closes a gap in knowledge about young people's attitudes to religious diversity and reports data gathered across the whole of the UK as well as comparative chapters on Canada USA and continental Europe Reporting findings from both qualitative and quantitative research which reveal for example the importance of the particular social and geographical context within which young people are embedded the volume addresses young people's attitudes towards the range of world religions as well as non religious stances and offers an interdisciplinary approach through the different analytical perspectives of the contributors Girl/Friend Theology Dori Grinenko Baker, 2023-10-15 Images of God are rooted in us for better but sometimes for worse Adolescent girls and genderqueer teenagers often pay a heavy price when those images are oppressive But the best God images serve to free us all The work can be hard but Girl Friend Theology invites us to the work with joy playfulness and shared commitment Author Dori Baker updates her original work with expanded perspective added voices and stories and an ongoing dedication to liberating faith Nurturing Faith Fred P. Edie, Mark A. Lamport, 2021-09-07 Faith left on rocky soil withers But faith nurtured in the good soil of Christian teaching formation and mentorship grows to maturity and yields thriving community Educational ministries are so often where this happens where the desires of the human heart are shaped toward a love for God a love for one's neighbor and a love for the world In this comprehensive guide to educational ministries in the twenty first century Fred Edie and Mark Lamport explore how church leaders and others involved in Christian education can nurture a robust cruciform faith within their communities When discussing strategies and goals Edie and

Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation Heesung Hwang, 2024-09-24 This groundbreaking book serves as a case study delving into the unique challenges faced by the global generation as they navigate the complexities of their hybrid identities Heesung Hwang drawing from her extensive experience as both a minister and theologian presents a compelling vision for religious education inspired by the traditional Korean concept of madang In this open space faith communities gather to engage in communal interaction fostering generative environments where all members are valued and their contributions esteemed Through the lens of madang Hwang invites readers to reimagine religious education as a holistic experience that transcends traditional boundaries encompassing storytelling conversation play and relationship building This transformative work challenges religious educators to embrace innovative approaches that honor the diverse cultural and religious backgrounds of young people ultimately paving the way for redemptive communities that empower the next generation to shape new cultural and religious expressions within society Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation promises to ignite important conversations and inspire meaningful change within faith communities worldwide

From Generation to Generation Charles R. Foster, 2012-10-02 Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation
