Manual Of Practical Instrumentation Dover Books On Music:

Manual of Practical Instrumentation Charles Marie Widor, 2005-01-01 Renowned for his talents as organist and composer Charles Marie Widor 1844 1937 was also a professor at the Paris Conservatoire where his vast knowledge of counterpoint fugue and orchestration benefited such students as Honegger Var se Milhaud and Dupr In the course of his four decades of teaching at the Conservatoire he wrote this study of instrumentation The Technique of the Modern Orchestra which he viewed as a supplement to Berlioz s celebrated but dated treatise on the same subject Full of insights and details not found in other manuals of instrumentation Widor s 1904 text presents a comprehensive catalog of the various abilities and qualities of all the orchestral instruments It also features an abundance of practical advice regarding instrumental combinations and relevant works to study This classic work represents an invaluable reference for any student of orchestration Musical Structure and Design Cedric T. Davie, 2014-05-05 Clear elementary explanation of basic forms Renaissance to 1900 with many works analyzed Nature and function of concerto sonata etc clarified with nonmusical analogies illustrated in detailed analysis of specific piece of music Puccini: A Listener's Guide John Bell Young, 2016-03-15 This Dover edition first published in 2016 is a slightly altered republication of the work originally published by Amadeus Press New York in 2008

Orchestration Paul Mathews, 2006-11-06 Orchestration An Anthology of Writings is designed to be a primary or ancillary text for college level music majors Although there are several how to textbooks aimed at this market there is little available that traces the history of orchestration through the writings of composers themselves By collecting writings from the nineteenth century to today Mathews illuminates how orchestration has grown and developed as well as presenting a wide variety of theories that have been embraced by the leading practitioners in the field The collection then traces the history of orchestration beginning with Beethoven s Orchestra with writings by Berlioz Wagner Gounod Mahler and others the 19th century Mahler Gevaert Strauss the fin de siecle on the edge of musical modernism writings by Berlioz Jadassohn Delius and Rimsky Korsakov early modern Busoni Schoenberg Stravinsky Grainger and others and high modern Carter Feldman Reich Brant Many of these pieces have never been translated into English before some only appeared in small journals or the popular press and have never appeared in a book and none have ever been collected in one place The study of orchestration is a key part of all students of music theory and composition Orchestration provides a much needed resource for these students filling a gap in the literature Johann Sebastian Bach Philipp Spitta, 1992-01-01 This monumental study of Johann Sebastian Bach ranks among the great classics of musicology Since its first publication in 1873 80 it has remained the basic work on Bach and the foundation of later research and study The three part treatment describes in chronological sequence practically everything that is known of the composer s life his ancestry his immediate family his associations his employers and the countless occasions on which his musical genius emerged Author Philipp Spitta accompanies this biographical material with quotations from primary sources correspondence family records diaries official documents and more In addition to biographical data Spitta reviews Bach's musical production with analyses of more than 500 pieces covering all the important works More than 450 musical excerpts are included in the main text and a 43 page musical supplement illustrates longer passages Despite the scholarly nature of this work it also has the rare distinction of being a study that can be read with considerable enjoyment and great profit by every serious music lover with or without a substantial background in the history of music or musical theory

The Clarinet and Clarinet Playing David Pino,1998-01-01 Features suggestions about technique musicianship and musical interpretation as well as guidelines for teaching making your own reeds and preparing for public performance Discusses the history of the clarinet Appendixes Includes 7 black and white illustrations

Psychology of Music Carl E. Seashore,2012-09-06 Standard study by founder of Seashore test Relationship between physical phenomena of sounds and our perception of them Music as a medium physical acoustics auditory apparatus sound perception more Includes 88 figures

Choral Orchestration Cecil Forsyth,2013-11-21 A noted musicologist takes readers bar by bar through a complete choral orchestration in this excellent and inexpensive tutorial on scoring Cecil Forsyth considers and contrasts the orchestral possibilities of each passage explaining the difficulties and details of orchestral execution Organists pianists and composers will appreciate this complete study of orchestration
