International Research on Education for Sustainable Development in Early Childhood John Siraj-Blatchford, Cathy Mogharreban, Eunhye Park, 2016-10-14 This book offers a perspective on Education for Sustainable Development in Early Childhood ESDEC that is far removed from the business as usual notion of an extended predominantly environmental educational curriculum for preschools It presents a vision of sustainable development that has relevance to Early Childhood Care and Education ECCE from birth to school it is relevant as much to homes family support and health settings as it is to educational settings and is as much concerned with health and wellbeing as with education The book provides a perspective that is fundamentally embedded in notions of interdependency It places an emphasis upon the importance of recognising the interdependency of peoples within and between nation states the ecological interdependencies of the natural world of humanity and nature and most significantly the interdependency of adults and children These emphases have their origins in the grassroots studies included in the ten chapters representing countries from around the world The book reflects the idea that only global solutions and initiatives are capable of addressing the global challenges of climate change environmental pollution and global threats to ecological systems and biodiversity

Researching Early Childhood Education for Sustainability Sue Elliott, Eva Ärlemalm-Hagsér, Julie Davis, 2020-04-08 This book captures the now burgeoning research field of early childhood education for sustainability ECEfS and comprises insights from an ever widening and diverse pool of researchers who are promoting engaging and explaining the latest ECEfS research in the light of local national and United Nations global policy directives With the increasing urgency of global climate disruptions resource depletions and biodiversity losses alongside greater human dislocation the international scope of research and theory in this book provides a comprehensive guide to the role of sustainability in early childhood education at a time when it is needed more than ever Elliott Ärlemalm Hagsér and Davis have brought together a collection of studies that offer new insights and approaches to ECEfS which challenge dominant narratives surrounding early childhood education and sustainability including topics such as how diverse worldviews and cultures challenge perceptions of sustainability how bold national early education policies and urgent shifts in teacher education are imperative for driving transformative practices and how ECEfS curriculum and pedagogy can be incorporated successfully into early years settings This book will both inspire researchers and more deeply enable early years educators to practise sustainability with children and so will be of great interest to scholars lecturers and researchers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students across the increasingly intersecting fields of sustainability and early childhood education Handbook of Infant, Toddler, and Preschool Mental Health Assessment Rebecca DelCarmen-Wiggins,Alice Carter,2004-03-25 The Handbook of Infant Toddler and Preschool Mental Health Assessment brings together for the first time leading clinical researchers to provide empirically based recommendations for assessment of social emotional and behavior problems and disorders in the earliest years Each author presents state of the art information on scientifically valid developmentally based clinical assessments and makes recommendations based on the integration of developmental theory empirical findings and clinical experience Though the field of mental health assessment in infants and young children lags behind work with older children and adults recent scientific advances including new measures and diagnostic approaches have led to dramatic growth in the field The editors of this exciting new work have assembled an extraordinary collection of chapters that thoroughly discuss the conceptualizations of dysfunction in infants and young children current and new diagnostic criteria and such specific disorders as sensory modulation dysfunction sleep disorders eating and feeding disorders autistic spectrum disorders anxiety disorders posttraumatic stress disorder and ADHD Chapters further highlight the importance of incorporating contextual factors such as parent child relationship functioning and cultural background into the assessment process to increase the validity of findings Given the comprehensiveness of this groundbreaking volume in reviewing conceptual methodological and research advances on early identification diagnosis and clinical assessment of disorders in this young age group it will be an ideal resource for teachers researchers and a wide variety clinicians including child psychologists child psychiatrists early intervention providers early special educators social workers family physicians and pediatricians The Complete Companion for Teaching and Leading Practice in the Early Years Pam Jarvis,Jane George,Wendy Holland,Jonathan Doherty,2016-04-05 Previously published as The Early Years Professional s Complete Companion this new edition has been thoroughly updated and is the essential resource for aspiring and existing leaders of early years practice Covering a wide range of theoretical and practical concepts this book helps the reader consider how they can develop excellent practice within their unique setting Divided into three distinct sections the book begins by exploring the origins of early years practice before discussing principles in development social policy and child protection The second section considers what constitutes high quality practice and reflects on the role of emotional security environment and adults in shaping children s learning and development The third and final section examines how activities associated with continued professional development impact on teaching standards before finishing with a discussion on international perspectives on early years practice Key features include New chapters on safeguarding children s rights continuous professional development and international perspectives of early years practice Chapter objectives tasks and links to the Early Years Foundation Stage Case studies with questions for reflection to promote critical thinking New developments in the early years practice arena are outlined including the emergence of Early Years Teacher Status EYTS This book is an essential text for those working towards qualifications in early years teaching and leading practice and provides a flexible basis for tutors trainers assessors and mentors to further develop programmes of education and training It will also appeal to teachers and practitioners interested in considering potential routes for continuing their professional development Handbook of Research on the Educator Continuum and Development of Teachers Zugelder, Bryan S.,L'Esperance, Mark,2022-06-24 In light of recent sociological events and the COVID 19 pandemic education has undergone an incredible change in both policy and delivery As a result many educators have sought different career paths It is essential to maintain a concentrated effort to retain educators however recruiting teachers into the profession is only one area of focus there must be intentional support for teacher development along the educator continuum in order to sustain the profession through institutional struggles The Handbook of Research on the Educator Continuum and Development of Teachers expands on the body of research related to the educator continuum with a holistic view of teacher development This book combines theory concepts and research studies that pinpoint facets of the educator continuum providing researchers with scholarly contributions that advance the profession Covering topics such as instructional coaching special educator career development and teacher retention this major reference work is a valuable resource for educational faculty and administration teacher colleges educators of K 12 and higher education pre service teachers government officials teacher education administrators libraries researchers and academicians
