Advancing Formative Assessment in Every Classroom Connie M. Moss, Susan M. Brookhart, 2019-05-13

Formative assessment is one of the best ways to increase student learning and enhance teacher quality. But effective formative assessment is not part of most classrooms, largely because teachers misunderstand what it is and don't have the necessary skills to implement it. In the updated 2nd edition of this practical guide for school leaders, authors Connie M. Moss and Susan M. Brookhart define formative assessment as an active, continual process in which teachers and students work together every day, every minute to gather evidence of learning, always keeping in mind three guiding questions: Where am I going? Where am I now? What strategy or strategies can help me get to where I need to go? Chapters focus on the six interrelated elements of formative assessment: 1. shared learning targets and criteria for success, 2. feedback that feeds learning forward, 3. student self-assessment and peer assessment, 4. student goal setting, 5. strategic teacher questioning, and 6. student engagement in asking effective questions. Using specific examples based on their extensive work with teachers, the authors provide strategic talking points and conversation starters to address common misconceptions.

about formative assessment Practical classroom strategies to share with teachers that cultivate students as self regulated assessment capable learners Ways to model the elements of formative assessment in conversations with teachers about their professional learning What if scenarios and advice for how to deal with them and Questions for reflection to gauge understanding and progress As Moss and Brookhart emphasize the goal is not to do formative assessment but to embrace a major cultural change that moves away from teacher led instruction to a partnership of intentional inquiry between student and teacher with better teaching and learning as the outcome Make Writing Exciting, Grades 3 - 4

Gunzenhauser,2011-04-18 Write on Write with special education students in grades 3 4 using Make Writing Exciting This 160 page book uses step by step creative ways to teach and evaluate students writing skills It introduces genres of writing in an order that makes sense with one skill building upon another or lessons can be incorporated into an existing curriculum The book also includes a section on how to help struggling writers and students with special needs learn various writing skills The book supports NCTE standards

High Stakes Dale D. Johnson,Bonnie Johnson,2006 High Stakes is a critical ethnography of an underfunded public elementary school in this era of accountability and high stakes testing The book was written during the year the authors served as third and fourth grade teachers and it juxtaposes the experiences of mostly minority children of poverty and their teachers with an examination of high stakes testing policies and the loss of a comprehensive education to political dictates Passing the Principal as Instructional Leader TExES Exam Elaine L.

Classroom-based Assessment in L2 Contexts Dina Tsagari, 2016-06-22. This edited volume addresses issues that promote the notion of Classroom-based Language Assessment (CBLA) for the academic community and beyond. The book explores recent thinking and research on CBLA within the fields of language testing, assessment and general education based on theoretical and research papers presented at the recent CBLA SIG EALTA Symposia held in Cyprus and the pre-conference EALTA workshops in various countries around Europe. The volume contains 17 chapters which involve both high-stakes tests and classroom-based assessments conducted by academics, professionals and researchers in the field. It brings together high-quality submissions that cover a gap in a research area that has long been in need of theoretical and empirical attention. Overall, this edited collection with its international scope offers a ground-breaking resource bringing together in a balanced relationship the fields of education and second language testing and assessment.
